

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

Whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.—Acts 10:43.

The gospel is for the whole world.

Who is going to give up when on the bosom of God he can have all his troubles hushed?—Talmage.

Phillips Brooks speaks of certain passages of Scripture which are forever robbed of some of their sweetness by flippant jokes or puns upon them, which having once heard, one can never forget.

Higher, my soul! higher! In bodily buildings, commonly the garrets are most empty, but my mind, the higher mounted, will be the better furnished. Let perseverance unto death be my uppermost chamber, the roof of which grace is the pavement of glory.—Thos. Fuller.

A converted pugilist, now a successful evangelist in London, was heard to say, in a very kindly way, to a young man who was smoking on the deck of a Mediterranean steamer: "Before I was converted I used to enjoy my pipe. But when God saved me, he taught me that he wanted me to be every bit clean."—Christian Herald.

Q. Is it in accordance with the principles of the union to tie the white ribbon on men or women who just sign the pledge, but do not join the organization?

A. The knot of white ribbon is the distinctive badge of the W. C. T. U. and properly indicates paid up membership in that organization. Honorary members are entitled to wear the white ribbon if they so wish to do.—Union Signal.
