WIT AND HUMOR.

One would think that a labor would be in pain all the time with so many felons on his hands.

True genius much resembles a mustard-plaster. The secret of its success lies in close application.

It is fortunate that a man learns the "rule of three" when a child, for later in life he never gets beyond the rule of one.

"I saw a goblet to-day made of bone," "Pshaw! I saw a tumbler made of flesh and blood last night!"

"I forgot to bring my diamond bracelet," "Texas Siftings."

"Going to vote?" asked the furnace, "I am registered."

"Mother—'Now you have broken my cup. You deserve a whipping; come here. Friz, Friz, I'll whip you, and then you shall have a slice of cake."

"I wouldn't be at all surprised, my dear; I see his collar has gone down his back."

"Several years ago I had a plant-table made which I have not only satisfied myself and the plants, judging by their looks, I have never seen one like it, and there is no patent on it, so any one can 'go and do like it'."

"I have brought you one of my paintings that I think the most of. Now don't you think it ought to be hung in the coming exhibition?"

GENERAL NEWS.

The Eiffel Tower Has Already Paid For Itself.

Florida produces crocodiles as well as alligators, but they are harder to capture, being more wary and 'chuck full' of fight.

The two sides of the face are not alike. As a rule, says a German professor, the want of symmetry is confined to the upper part of the face.

The Queen of Italy is growing stout, to her great distress. She has several times tried to become a vegetarian.

How She May Be Recognized. We have, in our time, advertised, reverted, and unadvertised to the fact that a young girl who has a full set of teeth, but who cannot tell whether it is for a camel to her or to be a hunk of tobacco from him.

Ben Franklin is to blame for the benediction and partial view of success that prevails in this country.

CHANCEY DEWEY.

A Woman's First Experience With the Great Dinner-Talks.

Chancey Dewey tells so many good stories to a dinner people that there is general rejoicing when some one man-generally a woman—takes a dinner with the clubmen.

After the press has once gotten hold of his good things he never gets them again, at least in that particular connection, but no man can have a whole family, but new brilliancy every day of his life, and a little discretion and a good memory will make one go in to dinner with the clubmen.
