COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT THE OREGON STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

The new Chapel-Class Tree-Grading Exercises-Twenty-one Graduates.

The eighth commencement week of the Oregon State Normal school took place this week.

The new chapel, which with the new building of which it is a part, costing over $12,000, was beautifully and profusely decorated for the occasion.

On Sunday the 22d of June a large and intelligence audience assembled in the Normal chapel to listen to the baccalaureate sermon delivered by Eld. R. M. Messick, of East Portland.

After a song by the choir Rev. Byers offered prayer which was followed by a song, then the sermon. The subject was "Christ as a Teacher."

The speaker showed by comparison and history that Christ far surpassed all other teachers.

A song followed the sermon after which Pres. Campbell made the announcements for the week and Rev. Kramer dismissed the congregation with the benediction.

At 10 a. m. on Monday the trustees met in session, and after eating the class proceeded to the election of teachers.

Miss Sarah Tutill, of Month-mouth, was returned to the position of teaching English and elocution.

Energy directed by a well laid plan to a given object, and success.

possession added to its effect. We give the essay here in full.

An, this class of '90 are about to leave this institution of learning and enter upon a new field of action...

"True Merit Wins" was presented by Miss Aggie McArthur. That the world does recognize merit.

"Common Sense" received consideration at the hands of G. A. Stanley. That all success in life comes not from luck...

"The Present Age" by Miss Mary Blount, of Albany, was read in her usual excellent style.

Energy directed by a well laid plan to a given object, and success.

While on the other hand are others with far less natural endowments who will go into business and succeed.

The opening address by Al. Briggs was short but to the point, assuming all that they were welcome.

On Tuesday evening a short program was rendered by the societies in which quite a number of the members of the societies took part.

At 10:15 to the music of the Month-mouth band the graduating class of 1890 marched in to the chapel led by Professors Campbell, Powell, Doughty and Tutill.

Our purpose goes before us like a form of beauty ever urging us onward it will go with us by day to guard us against the allurements of pleasure.

"The Beautiful" was presented by Miss Maude Pittenger, of Hillsboro. That beauty in the highest form is only found in nature.

Oh! Father, as they pass from our view

Bliss and ours for them, each one When they cross the river of death.

"A Good Cause Makes a Stout Heart" by Miss Ida Keefe, of Wash.

"Choosing a Profession" was presented by C. E. Cochran. That we are called upon to choose our profession guided by not only our inclinations...

"Class Prophecy" was delivered by Miss Carrie Hayden, in which she visited a letter from Portland to Miss Callie Brodie, of Astoria, a classmate in the year 1890.

Upon Miss Ida Porter, of Linn county, delivered the duty of delivering the valedictory.

Miss Maude Walter, of Weston, read an instructive essay on the "History of the Novel." Traced the history of literature from its birth and growth to the present important place which the novel occupies in the literature of today.

Mr. E. C. Key, of Perrydale, gave in a clear and lucid manner "The Student's Duty" in which he pointed out that in this as in actual life the laborer only receives a reward.

At the hour of 8 o'clock the alumni association assembled on the large platform of the Normal chapel, and remained while the class of 1890 numbering twenty-one marched up through the main aisle and upon the stage.

But smooth way led not always. Here hills we had to pass through. And the long way often seemed darkened To this way but hopeful crew.

Teachers, as you stand with outstretched hands Ever ready to aid and cheer The class of '90 with grateful hearts.

THE CITY OF SALEM.

Salem is a beautiful city and owing to the energy and enterprise of her citizens is now exceedingly prosperous.
