

All work warranted to give the best of Satisfaction.

found dead in bed by his wife. He had been connected with the navy yard at. Vallejo for many years. William Hanna, a farme wers, Cal., shot and motally wounded William Luders, a laborer. The men had a dispute about a few dollars in settlement for labor. Edna, the 14-months-old daughter Walter Sheldon of Spokane Falls, suf-fered a terrible death by setting fire to her clothing. A Carson, Nev., dispatch says: Gov ernor C. C. Stevenson, who has been con fined to his hed for the last three weeks is in a precarious condition and there i little hope of his recovery. Fire destroyed the house, its contents and 1,000 sacks of wheat at Warner Bros.' ranch, near Modesto. Marshal Kelly of Nevada City has been arrested, charged with being an accessory to the brutal murder of Agos-tino Pikzza at Yout Bet a year ago. Sperry Bros. will erect the largest grain warehouse in the world at Stock-ton. It will cover an area of thirty acres on the water front and mark who were arrested in New York for try-pacity of 100,000 tons. The reapportionment bill passed by special session of the Washington legis-lature has become a law. The state is lature has become a law. The state is in flooded. Railroads are washed out and serventy-eight representative dis-and serventy light representative disacres on the water front and have a ca-

Prince George affronted the Tench-Canadians in Montreal by asking the mayor to read an address in English be-fore reading it French. major general, have been crited to Si-beria for stealing from the government. Soldiers charged the striking dock la-borers with bayonets to clear the street ton earthquake smoke has for some days been regularly emitted in considerable volume from seven mountain peaks of been designated the smoking Cincinnati dispatch: During a quarrel Ben Chase, colored, fatally stabbed his mistres, Ida Farrell, colored. He then plunged the knife into his own breast and leaped from a third story window and was instantly killed. borers with bayonets to clear the street in Southampton. Chauneey M. Depew said in a speech at New York on his return from Europe, thet James G. Blaine and William Mo-Kinley were the best known Americans abroad, not even excepting Gen. Grant. A money pasic is imminget. Newspaper readers will recall the pub-lication three years ago of the statement that Thomas Bean died in Texas leaving that Thomas Bean died in Texas leaving an estate worth $10,000, the only here being distant relatives thought to be liv-ing in Washington. After three years of diligent searching the heirs have been found in Washington and Virginia, an-half of the estate of 800,000 acres of the Baset cotton lands in Texas will be di-vided among twenty-one prominent Washingtonians, the other half to go to the Virginia branch of the family. Bieve Chump and George Boalter, col-ored, were convicted of rape at Amoy. Miss. On the way to the jail a mob took them from the sheriff and swung them from the limb of a tree. New York dispatch: Carrie Long was Miss Nettie Carpenter, the American violinist, has gained notoriety in London by jilting Mr. Thrushfield, whom she was engaged to. The tarriff bill has been goes into effect Oct. 1. Six keys of giant powder exploded at Shohola Gien, Penn., with most terrible results. Three man were instantly killed and a number seriously injured. Maine went Republican by 19,000. The set of New York dispatch: Carrie Long was shot and mortally wounded by her sup-posed husband, one Rosenthal, who the shot and killed himself. Jealousy. Two freshmen at Lafayette college of Easton, Pa., learned that the sophomor-Charles Morris and Charles Harris, the alleged San Prancisco gold makers, who were arrested in New York for try-Easton, Pa., learned that the sophomor-were going to haze them. They warned the sophs to keep away and armed them selves with baseball bats. When the door was burst in by the sophomores the two freshmen struck out with the bats Juan Antonio Medina, a Spaniard from Hardware was stuck at which the bats Wiley Holliday is held in $1,500 bail at Tucson, A. T., on a charge of bigamy. He is a Mormon and was an important witness in the Paymaster Wham robbery case last year. The Methodist conference at Pacific Grove petitioned congress to furnish Honduras, was struck a terrible blow The Methodist conference at Pacific Grove petitioned congress to furnish more chaplains and chapels for the army.

A man named Canterbury of Rediands was drowned while bathing at Long Beach.
Work on the capitol steps at Sacremento has been suspended, as the appropriation is exhausted.
Grass Valley will vote on the question of issuing $20,000 of 8 per cent bonds to build a new school house, on Oct. 4
The California Athletic club was raided and a prize fight stopped by the police last Friday. The principals were arrested.
John Moff shot and mortally wounded Alexander Langdon in a quarrei at Park Lohn Collins has been nominated for the context of the and on the guestion is stated and a prize fight stopped by the police last Friday. The principals were arrested.
John Moff shot and mortally wounded Alexander Langdon in a quarrei at Park City, U. T. Andrew Dickson White, ex-president of Cornell university of New York, at Miss Helen Magill, daughter of Dr. win Magill, ex-president of Swarths; college, were married at Philadel, recently. Er-Senator Platt says that he has i decided whether or not to accept the ap pointment as one of the commissioner to select a site for a dry dock on Puge-William Stewart and a man nan William Stewart and a man named Reeves were stealing a ride on a. Fort Wayne, O., freight car. Four tramps assaulted and robbed them, and then threw them from the train. Stewart was fatally injured and Reeves cannot be found. The tramps escaped. The Portuguese desire a union with Spain to resist the British tutelage over Portugal. An entrank among the Nar Berge In.

'SAWNYOLLV N. L. WILKIN All Loral Business entrusted to me will re Prompt Attention COLLECTIONS A SPECIALTY Office in Opera Louise. Independence, Or A M. HURLEY. Attorney and Counselor at Law. Offer: lor. Main and Monmouth Sta INDEPENDENCE . . OREGON

Faber's Golden Female Pills. For Female Irregular

THE APHRO MEDICINE COMPANY. BOLT. PORTLAND.

DR.WOOD'S IVER REGULATOR

ND ALL OTHER DISEASES ARISING FROM A INACTIVE LIVER. DRUGGISTS & GINERAL DEALER

recentive use of Scimilants, Tobacco of Of r through youthful indiscretion, over the nect, act, such as Loss of Brain Power, wal-ces, Bearing down Pains in the Back, Sec Textusion, Leucorthone, Disalment, West Y Extission, Leucorthone, Disalment, West Y BITTEN GUARANTEE forever the refund the money if a Permann of effected. Thousands of testisson and young, of both sezes, permainer Armaourities. Circular (res. Addin HE APHRO MEDICINE CO.

BOX 27. PORTLAND, OR

For said by Bant, & Loch

ing bench, and it was upon this bench that Marietta made her bed. Marietta chiefs, opera glasses, cigars, spectacles and any other such things which her light fingered boys picked from the pockets of strangers and residents alike Mms. Polli understood the business well, and knew how to keep the hera at well, and knew how to keep the boys at work. But some days trade was not good and then they had to go Langry. Once a week they all met at the "grand promenade" ground. Then Marietta gave each boy an orange and some chestnuts, and to the mother some money. Boon she would leave them and disappear among the crowd. The boys passed their nights in boxes, under baskets, or on the shins in the harbor. At noon they si in the harbor. At noon they al ways joined their mother in one of the "macaroni kitchens," where they livered their wares and fed the set atarter.

0

latei

c! ----

Mit

but a case a tanght

place of the stately beauty Marietta. a in procuring from upon mecaroni cooked in oil, ster-ples and fried fish, all of which the cured for fifty centesimi, an' if ness had been brisk, they well sixty or seventy centesiud. Then parting each for his place of business So lived this family of Polli, which it was right or wrong, making the part of their talents on the market. Never fail. Successfully and f their talents from the most respectable of the talent of part with 760 lives. After minent in them all, for she dreased wall apart and discussion SUREI SAFEI CERTAIN hein all, for she drugen her shall be and the second she want of an error of the second she what much as three lives a day, during so a second she what here lives a day, during so a second she was the second second she what here is a second Don't be humburged Bent to any address.

parts of the year, and they often with dered whither it could be that she carried Bo Marietta rode eight-and-twenty times the money and what became of it This was a question which puzzled bota mother and brothers, but only in times of great needs were calls made upon etta's bounty, and then she gave Marietta's bounty, and then she gave sparingly, but yet enough. Marietta's beauty was well known. From her father, who by birth was a Roman, she inherited here wonderfully fine figure, her clear, broad forehead, and her beautiful eyes. From her Sici-lian mother, her handsome nose, the small, firm mouth, and the wealth of black, curly hair, which blew about her when and there back her head in the set when she threw back her head in the act of singing, and the melancholy look which came into her eyes as she sang. but which changed into a smile if by chance some passer-by favored her with chance some passer-by favored her with a bit of money. With men in general she had little to say, yet, as she passed along in her sing-ing, her neighbor upon the corner (who sat all day behind a basket of dried pumpkin seeds, across the top of which was arranged a board, upon which were displayed the seeds) would stop a mo-ment now and then to talk. The pro-feeden of street discer had sym among ment now and then to talk. The pro-ension of street singer had, even among ar class, a certain social standing, and he was thought to be a good gisl and ad the respect of all many a wealthy amily helping her by gift of clothes. Iven the old "Principal Dorandi," as he messed her stand each morning upon his very to the Palasso used to speak to her, and he left her at his death ten hundred lease

dette demanded a great deal of re

Mariette demanded a great dati of re-spect, and strangers who dared to smile upon her received only cold looks and scornful frowns. Even the most fatter-ting temaries upon her beauty were with-out swall. A suitor from the "Hotel de Rome," with his gold braided cost, was

Rome," with his gold braided cost, was dismissed with a great deal of contempt. This was considered comewhat by Mari-sta's ideal. Her great wish, and that which possessed both heart and mind of the Nespolitans of her standing, was that of being a proprietor of a one horse cosch, which can be drives through the eather city, and which both rich and poor allke might use. Marista not only dreamed of some one who might own one, but funday afternoons, when she did not thus, she, dreased in her light blue holi-day dram, with the pale yellow herehisf and and gold hoops in her pink, shell like one and of the city to the otherand back other house, and then their prosperity was assured. They were very happy to-gether, although she was some years his samior, and he could never refuse her ber at the national bank. B ide her strong, clear voice, Mari-etta had a genuine Italian ability to ma a harmin: so she betook herself to a cone i of hors who was still young and anything. On Sunday afternoons she took her asual ride with the married man; but i and for herself some money. She is the stand with table and is is would like to buy. The the difference was that the driver be-longed solely to her, and was proud to have her for the occupant of his carriage. --Translated from the German by A. M. F. for New Tork Ledger. con and gladly into the advantageous burgain, and the next morning these who passed that corner of the Strada San Ferdinando, found in the very sallow young person, around whose neck was the well worn green ribbon upon which hung the old guitar, and who same to it as if she were singing out her very the standing by the weather I had just come out of the postoffice when I caught sight of a face that seemed familiar to me it was that of a man of aned to the widow of a about my own age, with bronzed featarriage driver. She w o drive a bargaln wis and, a carringen painted st rod, a new rug, and of seeing you here?" I don't know why he said this, and of course I don't atwhence an orani tempt to defend it. but it is a style of to Naples, mating to drive He looked as profoundly actonianed if they meet to the to drive He looked as profoundly actonianed if they meet as fun that brought in you in a restaurant as if they had run you come to that, who'd have thought of seeing you here?" We stood opposite each other for a few One day she presented hereelf at the place where carriages are usually hired We stood opposite each other for a few in Naples it was strange to her, and a seconds: I simpering somewhat emptily at the nature of our greeting and stragtriffe awkward, too, when she placed the triffe awkward, too, when she placed the at the nature of our greening and string lacquered hat upon her curly hair and held her whip in her hand. The streets head slightly on one side and an ez-were strange, too, with the many passers pression of courteously suppressed annue-by, as she stood or sat waiting for some ment on his face, as if my presence on by, as she stood or sat waiting for some ment on his face, as if my presence on one to drive. Hardly had she been ten the steps of the postoffice was one of minutes at her place before people began those inexplicable freaks of chance for one to drive. Hardly had she been the minutes at her place before people began to stop and look. Soon a large erowd collected about her The police erowd rescable law. I gave him a few which it is hopeless to assel to assign any considered the there were two sergesants with their large hats, two officers with their gray mantles, but without num-bers, two ordinary officers with their others whose business it was to keep the peace. They laid hands upon hors and carriage at the same time and de manded her license papers. Marietts had none. She had not mown the need. "Your carriage has a number, but your lanterns have been cleaned—as they should be—and you have neglected to replace the number upon them. What have you to say? Explain yourself? "You have no license!" remarked one of them. "No," answered Marietts. "No," answered Marietts. "Ones down and hand over to us the bereas and erriage," said the officer. Marietts began to cry, st which here shering made upon a down and hand over to us the here for was the some began to cry, st which here shering or over langt the same the officers. "Dore Marietts began to cry, st which here shering or over langt here the realing that the analyte into the shering or over langt here to the contral officer. "Tour bave no license!" remarked one the shering or over langt here to the contral officer. "Bor Marietts began to cry, st which here shering or over langt here the real agent of the papers and priced up his ears. "Ore Marietts began to cry, st which here shering or over langt here the real the grave and price the grave a to fiver. They had beard of differ-riage diver. They had beard of differ-

A VERY OLD FRIEND.

to the chief of police."
He turned and looked at one of the officers. Marietta was very pale and thous so that the horse became uneasy and precised up his ears.
"Come down and hand over to us the horse made curriage," add the officer.
Poor Marietta began to ory, at which the gathering crowd laughed loud and the gathering crowd laughed loud and the state reacting the conversation so many had gathered that not a few were the an explanation, and, in addition, I fait one horse horse of a horse and carriage for hiring having a woman as a driver.
Bore shorted:
"Marietta, the singer, turned coachy mere to gave and they years very much in the idee that if 1 bit things the street would end."
Marietta moased and pried, but did and some to save providential meeting the bare and pried, but did and some to one worked the set of t ir hats, shouted and from side to side, under falce ; from side to side, under falce ; under false pretenors; "you know they"!

wife." He looked intensely surprised as he said: "My dear fellow I am very sorry. I never heard..."

I never heard—" He paused inquiringly, and again I blurted out, "I never had one." A look of extreme pain spread over his face as he heard this. He leased across the table, and laying his hand on mine said, with infinite sympathy: "I see it all. I ought not to have asked you. Forgive me, old fellow, and forget that I have asid those works"

Forgive me, old fellow, and forget that I have said those words." I gave him a clammy hand and turned away lest he should detect the conscious guiltiness of my face. I had become confirmed in a suspision that had been gradually dawning upon my mind that I had never set eyes upon my host be-fore that day, and that I had been car-fied away by some (newflowlice blace) about my own age, with bronzed feat-mes and a some what attennated figure. As I was trying to recall when and where I had seen its before, our eyes met, and I in astely perceived that our recognition of myself. There were no blinking the facts, however. Everybody ward me with a frazik expression of plessare and held out his hand, saying, "Hello, old fellow, who'd have thought of seeing yen here?" I don't inter wity My sole object new was to estricate My sole object new was to estricate

My sole object now was to extricate myself from my false position without detection. I got absolutely and hope-lessly involved in fable and falsehood, and after busice the sole and falsehood, to drive the looked as protonoidy actonized if they meet you in a restaurant as if they had run actors you in a restaurant as if they had run is vas willing to aid her. Bo Markita role eight and twenty times the four here's route, and after that ap-prents ap she thought hereif well is and said as i shock hands. "Well, if tanght

The dinner was good, the wine excel-lent, and my host geniality itself. We sat late and drank freely, and over our cups I blush to think of the people I mar-ried, the old friends I buried, and the characters I took away. Bu: he would have news, and what was I to do? Much of my information seemed to afford him matter for astonishment, and often he sisculated, "You don't tell me so!" as I conveyed some specially startling piece of news. However, the time for departure came at last, and my mind was forn with con-flicting desires to escape detection and to ascertain his identity. "You'll come and see us!" he said cor

"Yes, certainly," I replied; "but where are you putting up now?" "Oh, the same old quarters," he re-

Inmed

What is the best way to get there?" asked, as a last hope. "You can't do better than take a cab," he said, and we parted never to meet again .- True Flag.

The Grees Card in the Mail Boz. The Grees Card in the Mail Mot. There is a little green card in use by the postoffice department that is a terror to careless letter carriers. It is a terror only when they have once been caught. Very seldom, indeed, are they caught the second time. This card is dropped in a letter box, and on it is marked the object, of course, is to test the The

In a letter box, and on it is marked the time it was put in and also the time it should be taken out by the carrier. A record is kept by the chief of the carriers, and if that little card does not turn up with the other mail with which it is due it is clearly to be seen that the carrier has not taken the mail from that partio-ular here.

The object, of course, is to test the reliability of the carriers. Where there is any complaint on the part of ditients about the tardiness of local mails, then a little green card is dropped in one or more boxes in the district from which the complaint comes. Sometimes it shows carelessness on the part of the onverer, not necessary the there should be complaints, for frequently the cards are put in the boxes of the most efficient men. Of course they are happy when integed in which there is a green card, then the cards is bound to get into the cards are bound to get into

City, U. T. John Collins has been nominated for mayor of Seattle by the Democrats.

Redondo beach has been purchased by the Southern Pacific. "Old Man Howard of Pomona," who victim, and was arrested. slept in sheds in Los Angeles, was found in a shed in the last stages of starvation and taken to the station house, where Congress will soon adjourn. in a shed in the last stages of starvation and taken to the station house, where he died. Sheriff Healy of San Rafael is after Antone Lujan, the murderer. Lujan is guilty of two murders. Sheriff Endirt of Del Norte county, Cal., and Sheriff Birdsaye of Jackson-We operation the station adjourn. Three men entered the Second National bank of Bay City, Mich., and while two engaged the teller and bookkeeper in ouversation the third stole $5,400 in bills. The robbers escaped. Richard Croker, the Tammany chief-tain, has returned to New York from his Antone Loyan, the murderer. Lujan is guilty of two marders. Bheriff Endirt of Del Norte county, Cal., and Sheriff Birdsøye of Jackson-ville, Or., arrested two horse thieves who were wanted at Del Norte. They were riding stolen horses when captured. Alex Davis was killed by a giant pow der explosion at the Elgin quicksilver mine near Coluss. Bannel Mars, a negro murderer, has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. He killed his mistress at Fresno. Philip Reynolds was knocked down and robbed in Spokane Falla by Charles Gilmore. Gilmore hit him on the head with a "hilly" and knocked him senseless. Basmel Mayfield was in the wooks near Kngene, Or., and was struck in the arm with a bullet. Two hoys were hunting in the visinity and it is supposed that it was through their carelessness that the and wooked.

An outbreak among the Nez Perce In dians in Idaho is imminent.

Auguste Sauret, the once popul pianist, died in a New York insane as lum in abject poverty. He leaves wife and four children. Henry C. Wilson of Kanas City had Henry C. Wilson of Kanas City had planned an extensive business to kidnap the children of wealthy parents and hold them for ransom. He was betrayed by his confederate, a coachman of a wealthy widow, whose child was to be the first

Dr. George B. Chiselin, the famo traveler and diplomat of the Confede acy is dead. When Mason and Slid were dispatched to Great Britain Chis lin was sent after them by way of Ca ada, as an emergency man. If was the only ambassador to reach the Englis shores, and was also the first one of th Confederacy to warn Jeff Davis that hi contest was a hopeless one. Returnin to the United States he was one of th first to develop its mining resources. H died in New York.

Holmes Business College

Of Fortland, Oregon will open Sept. 1st. Wesco, the leading peniman of the coar become a partner in this school and will the feading Business College, Se BORLE E. C. Pentland West Side office.

MRS. A. M. HURLEY. Millinery : Fancy Good Nort to Independence National B INDEPENDENCE,