

E. C. PENTLAND, - - PUBLISHER Registered at the Post-office in Independ

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

One Year Six Months 1.00 Three Months When not paid in advance

TO ADVERTISERS.

Independence is located at the head of nav-tation (the most of the year), on the Williamstit dver, and on the main line of the Oregon and failfornis Railroad; contains a population of 500 people; is the principal shipping point for he county, which is one of the larget, most results and thickly populated in the William-tin value. The steadily increasing circulation the Wass ins is enjoying enables it to be one of the best I Advertising fedlums JOB PRINTING!

Latest and Best Styles -> AND AT THE -> LOWEST :: LIVING : RATES.

PHYSICIANS-DENTISTRY.

LEE & BUTLER. Physicians & Surgeons

-: ALGO:-4 U. S. Examining Surgeons.

Office: east side of Main St., INDEPENDENCE. - - OREGON E. L K.ETCHUM,

Physician and Surgeon. Office: Opposite First National Bank, INDEPENDENCE. OREGOI

DR. J. K. LOCKE.

Physician and Surgeon.

Buena Vista, Oregon.

J. E. DAVIDSON, M. D. Physician and Surgeon. U. S. EXAMINING SURGEON, Independence, - - Oregon

DR. J. B. JOHNSON, Resident Dentist, All work warranted to give the best

I can see her thr

She is coming. the woman of the future! O, how beautiful As in fancy I behold her, in the brightest of can tell my dreams: In fancy I behold her, and I long to hear, her wolce Ringing down the pleasant valleys, "I am com-ing, O, rejoice!" The woman of the future will not trifle with

She will find more time to study into sciences and arts; She will not be too disdainful, irreverent and proud, But with all the bighest virtues and attain-roman of the future will be a looks, will sing the sweetest ballads and peruse the choicest broks. 3be the cholcest books; sympathies will widen and her goodness will extend. Her

Until the poor shall bless her and the weak "he woman of the future will not th

For the ballroom's giddy pleasures bringing wrinkles and decay: Nor orink the honeyed motar of enchantment, long and deep. Sowing seeds of dissipation that in anguish she must reap.

The woman of the future As the fragrant Easter lilles, and her fame will rest secure: When she comes to dwell among us, in her cyes that light will be That we have never seen on land, nor not yet O, the woman of the future will h and brave, And her honor she will cherish without blem-lsh to the grave. In joy I wait her coming, she will blossom like And her heart will find a lover who is worthy

-Moses Gage Shirley.

A BUTTERFLY.

When Mrs. Walsingham lost the dia-mond butterfly which her husband had given her on the first anniversary had given her on the next anniversary of their wedding-day she was natural-ly much perturbed by her loss. For two seasons Mrs. Walsingham's butterfly had been an absorbing topic of conversation whenever pretty Mrs.

of conversation whenever pretty Mrs. Walsingham herself happened to be present, and on more than one occasion it had attracted the attention of rovalty.

And now the butterfly was lost. The world-or rather such portion of it as was crowded into the Gourt theater on was crowded into the Gourt theater on that disastrous night—had seen the jeweled insect flashing and scintillating in Mrs. Walsingham's pretty brown hair all the time of the performance. But, when husband and wife stood in the light of their own hall lamp, the former had uttered an exclamation of dismay.

The butterfly was gone! Everything had been done that is usual in such cases. The colonel had looked carefully through the carriage, and had made a thorough examination of each separate fold in his wife's dress. Next morning he ing Scotland Yard parratives. "It's not that the criminal classes are so especially clever," he remarked judicially as he wound up one of his tales, "but the public is so uncommonfor the prospective coin, made him consent, after a little demur, to do what he could.

"I'll go up-stairs and call up one o the women-servants," he said, "and send her to ask Mrs. Welsingham. Till shout up to the under housemaid," he added; "she'll come like winking when "Everything, madam, as far as we "Tell us about it," commanded Mrs. Walsingham in her pretty, imperious manner, while her husband's face sec-added; "she'll come like winking when she hears my voice." It took longer to get the housemaid down, however, than the butler had anticipated; but at last she had goue off on her authors, and had brought her mistrem' answer to Baily, pa-tiently wailing on the upper landing. "I'm sorry, ar," he began, as he de-seended the last flight of stairs, "but Mirs. Walsingham hasn't seen your pa-ners." onded her request! "Oh, well, there's not much to tell ma'am. From information received we made this morning a raid on the house of a party called Sleepy Jim-sleepy because he just isn't sleepy. don't you see, madam? Well, Jim was very easy and careless and we searched and not a thing could we find, and at last we gave it up. I was the last to go and as I went I heard—for my ears are Then he stopped short. The rosy tints fied from his well-nourished face quick-I heard Jim give the least bit of a sigh. and a bilious hue took possession of that broad expanse. The street door was open and Mr "Come back, men.' I shouted; 'the things are here, and we won't be such numskulls as to go away without them

Sawder had disappeared. "A 'do," nurmured Balley, faintly; "a real old 'do." numskulls as to go away without them. Let's have one more look around. Then it occurred to me that Sleepy Jim had not been sitting on the table for nothing all the time we were turning his place upside down. So I just pushed him and it on one side, kicked over the square carpet on which the table had been standing, and lo and behold, there were plain signs that the boards had been raised pretty recent-He thought of his plate, and almost breathed again as he remembered that he had deposited it in the plate-chest and turned the key before he had left the insidious stranger in. "Depend upon it, he's only gone off with master's umbrella," he said, try-ing to reassure himself.

The next moment he struck his hand The next moment he struck his hands wildly together and rushed into the colonel's study. When he came back he was perfectly green. The colonel's fur coat, for which he had paid 80 guineas only a few weeks back, was nowhere to be found! "We had those boards up again in a jiffy, and there in a deep hole under-neath was all the Fenton Court jewel-

The detective paused impressively, and looked at his two eager listeners as though challenging their admira-The officials of Scotland Yard next morning listen d with polite attention to Col. Walsingham's account of what tion. "Well, and my wife's butterfly?" had happened. "A clean-shaven man, with gray asked the colonel inquiringly. "I am coming to that, sir. Among "I am coming to that, sir. Among the things there were several pins and brooches not included in the list supplied to us at the Scotland Yard. I had seen your advertisement and I thought one of the miscellaneous arti-clas looked rare much like neural neural second se eyes, you say?" "Yes," was the answer. "He gave the name of Sawder-Fred Sawder." "Fred Sawder! The man was James Croft, alias Sleepy Jim. the cleverest rogae in the United Kingdom, and as cles looked very much like your insect. So I just asked Sleepy Jim about it, and he told me that it had been brought slippery as an eel. I am afraid you will never see your coat again, sir." And he was right, for the colonel never did. But one result of his little to him by a maa who had picked it up in Sloane street and had been afraid to pawn it. Jim gave him 30 shillings for it, for he saw the diamonds were experience was that he completely for it, for he saw the diamonds were uncommon paste, and ——" "But they were nothing of the sort," put in Mrs. Walsingham indignantly; "that was only my husband's idea to call them paste." "Ahl that was smart, sir; very smart. he was often heard to say; "it is those scamps who are so horribly clever.-Argosy.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Is a stiff backbone an indication of etback ?-Boston Herald.

and a snare."-Figaro. ceedingly communicative, and enter-tained the colonel with the most thrillfriends.-Elmira Gazette. "Yes, I was awfully fond of that girl, and I believe her to be perfect, but I saw something about her last night that made me sick." "What was that?" "Another fellow's arm." A rebellion in Hayti is feared. -Binghamton Leader. Boulanger will winter at Malta.

Census Enumerator-"Well, I have finished a big day's work, and I'm tired." His Wife-"I'm so sorry I can't help you. Now sit down, dear, and tell me all you found out about our neighbors."-N. Y. Sun.

s still $35,000 short. The average American citizen would turn his back on the greatest man that this world ever produced to look at a pretty 18-year-old girl with a new spring suit on and with a dumple in her chin.—Somerville Journal. The union gas workers in London have The capital of the Edison Electric

Sunday-School Teacher-" 'By their fruits ye shall know them." Tommy Traddles you may explain what that means." Tommy—"It means that you can always tell a Dago by his banana-W. I. Martin was hanged at Raleigh Court House, W. Va. for wife murder.

stand."-Lawrence American. Cora - "Miss Fussanfeathers' hair used to be black. I see it has turned to a chestnut. How do you account for that?" Clara—"I believe she has It is rumored that Spain is negotiating for reciprocity measures with the United been using the funny papers to do her hair up in."- Yonkers Statesman. Two of the men who robbed an Adams car in Ohio a few days ago have been "Would any shock at this stage my trouble cause a relapse, doctor?" inquired the patient. "Yes and a se-rious one." "Please, then, doctor, to captured.

An aerial ship company has been in-corporated in Chicago with a capital of death of Annie Goodwin by mapractice, "Please, then, doctor, remember that important fact in mak-ing out your bill."-Fliegende Blatter. 20,000,000. Thirty thousand men participated in the German Day parade at St. Louis

States

Mr. Phileas Fogg (in the West)—"I suppose you met with a great many hardships out here on the plains?" Lariat Luke—"Hardships? I should last Sunday. Five men were instantly killed by the say so! Why, pard, I've sometimes been obliged to chaw smokin' terback-er!"-Puck. xplosion of a saw mill boiler at Chewalls, Tenn.

The clergy of Treves have de lawn tennis as an unbecoming game for Briggs-"I understand Jackson has German girls.

ecided not to strike.

ompany is $12,000,000.

The river Neva is over its banks and Speaker Reed opened the Connecticut ampaign with a speech at New Haven.

Many persons were poisoned by lemo nade at the county fair at Portland, Ind.

st. Petersburg is partly flooded.

entered into a matrimonial partner-ship with a rich widow, hasn't he?" The wife of General Ballington Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Braggs-"O, it is hardly a partner-Army, is dead.

Army, is dead. The New York Telegram advocates the raising of a fund to get Mrs. Gen. General Clarkson will go to China as United States Minister after the conship; it would be more correct to say that he is retained on a salary."-Terre

"How soon do you start on your talked-of trip to Europe?" "I had to give it up." "Why so?" "Because my wife went and ordered a bonnet for the voyage, and when the mil-Emperor William has invited Von Moltke to spend his 90th birthday, the 26th inst., in Berlin. for the voyage, and when the mil-liner's bill came in it took all my mon-The Clyde line steamer Iroqu ton laden, was badly damaged by fire at her dock in New York.

Barillas says his not satisfied with the The Indian Messiah at Fort Reno, I. treaty of peace with San Salvador and T., predicts a deluge of mnd next sum-ey."-Light. Mr. Bliffers-"Beg pårdon, Mr. Hammer, but can you tell me where my wife is seated? I can't find her." Mr. Hammer (auctioneer)-"She has not been here today." Mr. Bliffers (wildly)-"My! My! She must be dead."-N. Y Weekly. Her dock in New York. Barillas says his not satisfied with the treaty of peace with San Salvador and is anxious for more war. The family of John McBee of Dubuque, Ia, five in number, perished in the fiames of his burning home. "Jack the Ripper" has notified the

"Jack the Ripper" has notified the London police that he will kill another "I wouldn't run away with any girl I remember going boldly up to the old man and asking him for his daughter. He told me to go to Hades." "And did you go?" "Well," he mused hes-itatingly and reflectively, "I married the girl"—Philadelphia Times. voman in the near future. The Cincinnati baseball club has been ransferred to the Players' league the reported price of $38,000. The remains of Easton, the man who ommitted suicide in St. Paul,s cathed-"Ah!" says a sympathetic friend "you should go to the dentist imme ral, London, were cremated.

S. B. Heath's oatmeal mill and a ware diately and have that tooth pulled out. house at Des Moines. In., were totally there and that he confessed on his death-bed that he was Charles William Quan-It is reported that the Vatican has adtrell, the noted Missouri guerrills atch: The myste ing at the coming Italian elections how the various Vatican secrets have leaked out has at last been solved. An Capt. John Latouch, who was adjutant for

Mrs. Rathbone of Chicago, who i charged with adultery by her husband has sued him for divorce on the goun The King of Holland is not expected cruelty, intemperance and unfaithful-A new cabinet has been appointed i The New York Grant monument fund

tions for shows.

wonne

killed Needham

a bad reputation.

gressional elections.

in possession of the land.

Archbishop Walsh of Ireland.

sister and then killed himself.

The Washington Post publishes

The executive committee of the South western Railway and Steamship associa-tion tendered the chairmanship to Traf-

Advices from Rome state that the James Denton, of Welton, N. Y., was insane for over a year and not confined, The other day he killed his wife, made an unsuccessful attempt to kill his wife's

A Birmingham, Ala., special says that a man known as T. J. Henderson died

A straw paper trust, representing eighty-two mills with an output of 825 tons daily, has been formed to control the market west of the Allegheny mounculation at Tucson. M. J. Berhens, a well known druggist of Helena, Mont., is dead. W. P. L. Winham, a prominent citi-sen of Salinas, is dead. Acting Indian Commissioner Belt has sued a letter to Indian agents directing them to promptly refuse any applica-tions for Indians for "Wild West"

Disastrous fires occurred early this week in the vicinity of Napa. Frederick Mitchell of San Francisco will serve five years for forgery. George R. Graham, one of Baltimore's wealthiest and most widely known citi-zens, accidentally gashed his neck while shaving and died from the effects of the idaho went Republican.

The cruiser San Francisco has been formally accepted by Uncle Sam.

Fremo bricklayers have struck.

The Dunsmuir strike is nearly ended.

Eugene, Or., is going to have a street

The strike at the Sand Coulee mine

Montana, is ended. Considerable counterfeit money is in Grass Valley will issue $20,000 worth if bonds for a new school building. A $25,000 fire was caused by a lamp

Wesley Brown, a young and good looking minister of Bedford, Ia., was engaged to no less than five young ladies of his congregation. He is no longer at explosion at Cœur d'Alene the other day. I. Pratt has been arrested at Tacoma for several forgeries committed on the

The jury in the case of Dr. McGonigal Work on the Union Pacific's bridge across the Columbia at Vancouver has been begun. rendered a verdict of manslaughter in Mining industries in New Mexico and Arizona have been revived by the advance in silver and lead. the first degree. Frank Needham, a farm hand at Schuyler, Neb., opened fire on Deputy Sheriff Straabe, who came to arrest him. Percy Williams was shot and killed at Fresno by Jack Smith in a dispute over The officer returned the compliment and a game of cards.

J. C. Weiss, charged with the murder John Walsh of Herkimer, N. Y., quarof Charles Ingram at Yreka last June, reled with his mother because she would has been acquitted. not give him money, and shot her, in-flicting a fatal wound. He is 27 and has

San Diego has voted to bond the city for $826,000 for the construction of a water works system.

Capt. O. Anderson of the sloop Augusta was drowned during a squall off Dunrenness light recently

Lee Hooper, aged 19, and Alla Sweitzer, aged 14, of Wheatland, eloped and their whereabouts are unknown.

Weston Allen, a brakeman, had his foot crushed by a train a: Athlone, Cal. imputation was necessary.

James Daly, a prisoner, escaped from the Port Townsend penitentiary and a reward is offered for his capture. mer which will overwhelm all whites and bad Indians and leave good Indians

Engineer Basser of the Northern Pa-cific was killed at Mullan, Mont., in an accident caused by an open switch. William A. McDermott, a promin British ministery is bringing all its influ-ence to bear upon the pontiff against the bestowal of the cardinal's hat upon olitician of Tucson, A. T., committed uicide because of business troubles.

Registration will close in all counties of California where re-registration has been ordered on Oct, 18 at midnight.

Mrs. Frederick Stronder was killed while crossing the railroad track at Eureka in a buggy with her husband.

Helena, Mont.: The assessment of the county in round numbers is $25,000,000 and the bonded indebtedness $190,000.

W. J. Lee has been sentenced to a year in the penitentiary for stealing a pene draft for $12 from an old soldier at P

Miss Mary E. Seal, an inmate of th

nsane asylum at Salem, Or., jump

Col. John R. French, editor of the Boise City Sun, is dead. He served nine years as sergeant-at-arms of the United

The house of Martin Pennish of Sac

amento was burned while the family was absent. A trunk containing $200

"The people of California know me and they know Mr. Huntington. I am willing to abide by their decision. "-Sen-stor Stanford in a recent interview.

was found empty in the swamp.

from the fourth story window land.

tates senate.

You ought to be one of us." The colonellooked gratified. "Won" you take a glass of wine, Mr.Sawder?" he said, pushing the decanter over to ner when he comes after dinner. -Bing-hampton Leader.

The fortunes of the politician and a As a consequence he soon grew exgambler are in the hands of their ey."-Light.

Haute Express.

"It is not that the public is so stupid,"

The tramp always comes before din-him, "Thank you, sir; I don't mind if I do," replied Mr. Sawder, helping him-self; and he required little pressing to be induced to repeat the action sev-eral times in the course of the next "Avoid whisky and water. my son," said the fond father. "It is a dilution ly soft!" The colonel acquiesced. There were a great many fools in the world, he opined; but for his part he had no pity for them. He himself had never been one of us." The colonel did not at all resent Mr to the colonel, who actually that it's not a thing to be left in the

"It looks as if it had," said the de-asked.

hall.'

ler.

to me?

guineas!"

INDEPENDENCE, - · OREGON CONTRACTOR STATE

W. L. WILKIN. Attorney and Counselor at Law All Legal Business entrusted to me will re-Prompt Attention.

COLLECTIONS A SPECIALTY Office in Opera House. Independence, Or

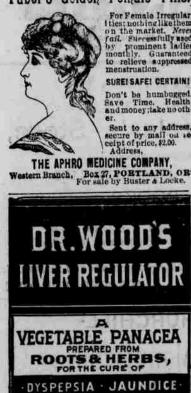

A. M. HURLEY,

Attorney and Counselor at Law. Office: Cor. Main and Monmouth Sta.

OREGON

INDEPENDENCE. . .

Faber's Golden Female Pills.

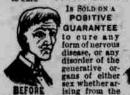

CHILLS & FEVER DISORDERED DIGESTION SICK HEADACHE GENERAL DEBILITY

AND ALL OTHER DISEASES ARISING FROM A INACTIVE LIVER. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS & GENERAL DEALERS

The Gelebrated French Gure arranted "APHRODITINE" or mo

22

hful in nec, &c., such as Loss of Brain Power, ess. Bearing down Pains in the Back, Yeakness, Hysteris, Nervous Prostration

A WRITTEN UARANTEE for every $.0 to refund the money if a Permanen not effected. Thousands of testimonia d and young, of both sexes, permanent THE APHRO MEDICINE CO.

PORTLAND, OR. BOX 27.

For sale by Buster & Locke.

had gone off to the theater, and had ilf searched the box in which they had been sitting. Then, with com-mendable prudence, he had cautioned his wife against speaking about her loss, even the servants, and in the advertisement in which he offered a considerable reward for the recovery of the missing triuklet he had described it as "a jeweled insect (paste), valu-able to the owner because specially designed for the Polish wife of Prince Boris Ivanvitch when she secretly sold the Ivanvitch diamonds to supply her compatriots with funds for a revolutionary uprising." The colonel was very pleased with the wording of this advertisement, and read it alond with a great deal of complacency to his wife. Mrs. Walsingham was not quite so pleased as her husband. She ob-jected to the slight put upon her cher-ished possession by describing it as paste, and the aristocratic flavor of him a lift. ranged with Mrs. Walsingham that its mythical history did not console ranged with Mrs. Waisingnam that she was to come down to Scotland Yard the following morning, he went out with the colonel into an adjoining room, waiting there while the gentle-man got ready to go out. This room was a sort of sanctum of Col. Waising ham, and while he drew on his glove "Even if I do get it back," she mur-mured plaintively, "I shan't care to wear it if everybody imagines it is fail. Successfully used by prominent ladies monthly. Guaranteed paste. When, however, the colonel pointed out that he had referred the public in the first instance to a neighboring stationer's, and that there was nothing SUREI SAFEI CERTAINI whatever in the advertisement to sug-gest to a captious world that Mrs. Walsingham's famous butterfly was in Don't be humbugged. Save Time. Health and money take no oth question, she was greatly impressed by her husband's eleverness. That evening the Walsinghams did not dine out, but had a cosy tete-a-tete Sent to any address, secure by mail ou se seipt of price, $2.00. Address, dinner at home, so as to be on the spot if any one came with news of the miss-butler came softly in. "A person to see you sir," he and butler came softly in. "A person to see you sir," he and nounced deferentially: "he wont give his name, but says Foster (the station-er) has sent him, and that you will know all about it." Mrs. Walsingham gave a little start of delight, and the colonel could scarcely conceal his excitement. "Show him in here, Bailey," he said quickly; "It is some one we are expecting." The butler withdrew and in a few seconds ushered in a slight gentleman-ly looking man, with sharp gray eyes and smooth face. "A person to see you sir," he and "It looks as if it had," said the de-tective warmly; and, the colonel be-toor beil, Mrs. Walsingham was tired and had gone to bed, and the tousehold had followed her example. "Why, master's forgotten his latch-key!" he cried, hurrying to the door; 'it's lucky for me he's come back so early."

nd smooth face. "Col. Walsingham, I believe?" began the stranger, taking with easy self-pos-session, the chair which the colonel indicated at the far end of the table. colonel assented. "You have The ler. "Sorry to trouble you, my man," he said, speaking very fast and slipping a shilling into Bailey's hand; "but I left some most important papers behind me, which I was showing to Col. and Mrs. Walsingham. Will you give them to me?" come, I presume-"To give you information about some lost property of yours. Precise

"Have you found it?" queried Mrs

"Have you found it? queried ans. Wallsingham eagerly. "Well, that's just what I wish to as-certain" said the stranger suavely. "My name is Sawder—Fred Sawder, late of Scotland Yard." he continued, turning to the colonel. "I'm a de-tective, and a few hours back I came "Papers, sir? I haven't seen any." "But they must be here," cried Mr. Sawder, looking very worried. "The fact is—I daresay Mrs. Walsingham told you—these papers have to do with the Fenton Court robbery. We nabbed the man and the swag this alternoon and the owner's coming up to-morrow. So you see the papers are awfully im-nortant."

across a piece of jewelry answering to your description." "You don't mean to say so?" cried the colonel excitedly. "Where did portant." find it P" you find it?" "Well, it's a long story." said Mr. Sawder deliberately, "and brings in matters which are, so to speak, pro-fessional secrets at present. But there —the whole account will be in the pa-pers to-morrow, so there's no harm in my telling you." Both the colonel and Mrs. Walsingham waited anxiously for him to go on, and after a few seconds' pause he was graciously pleased to do so, point-edly addressing himself now to Mrs. ham waited anxiously for him to go on, and after a few seconds' pause he was graciously pleased to do so, point-edly addressing himself now to Mrs. Walsingham. "Of course, madam, you have heard of the great Fenton court robbery!" Mrs. Walsingham made a motion of assent.

The wise employe always laughs promptly when the proprietor makes a oke.—Somerville Journal. joke.—Somerville Journal. "Go hire a haul," said the hackdriv-er to the man who was coaxing for a free ride.—Merchant Tr sveter. Niagara Hackman—"Une Gollar! Visitor—"What for?" Hackman—"In-told me anything." Hackman—"Did-a't you ask me what I charge t' drive you t' the falls?" Visitor-'Yes, and you said $5, which is altogether too much." Hackman-'Well, d'ver sup-Most people look on a favor as a memorandum of where they can ex-pect another.-Milwaukce Journal. pose I'm goin' ter give away price list tor nothin'? Autel"-Brooklyn Life. She-"What was the chief feature at he mass-meeting last evening?" He -"The mouth."-Terre Haute Express.

taken in in his life. "I can quite believe that," said Mr Sawder politely; "and, if I may make so free, I repeat again you ought to be "Beckley and his wife get along nicely now." "So? Which of them is dead; he or she?"—Boston Trangive you a few hints as to your treatript.

Sawder's freedom. He was particular-ly pleased with him and his stories, and He (despairingly)"I wish I could in the fullness of his heart he told him find something to take up my mind." She (softly)-"Try blotting paper."he was going down to his club for half-an-hour, and would be charmed giving Bronson-"Who shall decide when Mr. Sawder was quite sensible of the the doctors disagree?" Johnson-"The Coroner generally has to do it."-Munsey's Weekly. colonel's condescension, and accepted the offer with effusion. Having ar-

"He can't get into society. He had no grandfather." "And he doesn't seem to know his grandmother, eith-er."-N. Y. Herald.

If you use your eyes to any purpose you will observe that there are very tew square men 'round these days.he passed in review his recollection o nton Leader. firearm and other objects of warlike

A writer says: "There is som predictions. The detective seemed a bit of a con things a woman dosen't know." may be, but no man can tell her what noisseur, and his enthusiasm was suf-ficiently dashed with discriminating they are .- N. Y. Ledger.

Householder (to suspicious charac-ter-....What do you want?" Suspi-cious Character(thoughtfully)-....Well, knowledge to be particularly pleasing to bring out from a cavernous cup boad his latest extravagance, to wit, s I dunno; what yer got?"-Life.

Col. Yerger-"Well, how did you like that picnic?" Gilhooly-"I was so glad to get home again that I was glad I went."-Texus Siftings. handsome fur-lined coat he had recent ly imported from Russia. "What do you think of that?" he "Think?" said the detective. "Why, "Do you think your father likes me?" he inquired. "O' yes," she auswered. "He said he was going to wait up to-night to see you."—N. Y. Herald. "Rather not," isughed the colonel. "We keep it in the cupboard in this room. Why, that coat cost me 80 Cumso-"Young Gurley is a college graduate, isn't he?" Fangle-"I think he must be. He doesn't know what he is talking about half the time."-

Epoch. "I've changed my mind since I saw yon last," said Cadley. "I hope the new one is better than the last," put in new one is better than the last," put in Cynicus, and Cadley got mad.-N. Y. Herald.

You never see the mau who dozes in church going to sleep at a base-ball match. But then there is quite a diference in the style of delivery .- You kers Statesman.

First Boy-"How do you like your new teacher?" Second Boy-"He is not a lightning teacher. He strikes early." But it was not Col. Walsingham who tood in the doorway-it was Mr. Sawtimes in the same place."several Tezas Siflings. Home Journal.

Halworthy (entering late)—"How long has Dr. 'Vox been preaching?" Sexton—"Twenty-two years sir." Hal-worthy—"I guess I won't go in then." —Harpard Lampoon.

"Why do you go into law? There are more lawyers than the world can support now." "I know it. Many of them must starve. Then will come my chance."-N. Y. Sun. 'Papers, sir? I haven't seen any."

"In time of peace," said the Major, "I frequently go to the military balls." "And in times of war?" "The military balls come to me. That's how I lost my leg."-N. Y. Herald.

"Before we were married you you would do your best to make home happy." "Well, haven't I?" he inportant." "Of course they must be," said the butler, unbending from his solemn dignity on the instant. "Well, I'll just light a taper and see if they are any-where in the dining-room. I may have overlooked them, but I don't think I quired. "In what way?" "By keep-ing away from it."-Washington Post. Minnie—"And she had the impu-dence to refer to me as a retailer of such a thing. Everyone knows you are a wholesaler."—Terre Haute Ez-press. The detective followed him into the dining-room and helped in the search, but no papers could be found and he

Hodge—"The doctor says poor Left-lung is likely to have cold on his chest all summer!" Keightley—"Lucky dog. I'm afraid mine will be empty, with ice at the present rate."—American Grocer

Niagara Hackman-"One dollar!"

How to Treat a Sweetheart.

When he comes to see you, let m of Libby prison during the war, died at Richmond, Va. He was 70 year old. The secretary of the treasury has decided that imported books are forfeited when copyrighted in the United States. Hon. Gordon E. Cole of Faribault, Minn., is dead. He was a Republican leader and widely known in the North-Jay Gould says, in an article writte by him on the effect of the new tariff, that there is little probability of a financial panic.

ment of him:--First of all my dear, don't let him Jake Kilrain and Jack Ashton went on a drunk in Baltimore and got in a fight. get an idea that your one object in life is to get all you can out of him. and a bartender knocked Kilrain into the gutter. Don't let him believe that you think

Gen Thomas C. Drayton, aged 83, the so lightly of yourself that whenever he has an idle moment he can find you ready and willing to listen to him. last surviving classmate of Jefferson Davis at West Point, is dying at Charlotte, N. C.

Don't let him think that you are go-ing out driving with him alone, even Relatives are endeavoring to break will of John Crerar of Chicago, who be-queathed nearly $3,000,000 to charitable if your mother should be lenient enough to permit this. Don't let him think that you are go Institutions.

ing to the dance or the frolic with him, Straight-out Democrats of South Caryou are going with your brother, or else you are going to make up a party which will all go together. Don't let him spend his money on you; when he goes away, he may bring you a box of sweets, a book or olina have issued a call for a convention to nominate an anti-Tillman candidate for governor.

Rev. Dr. Parker, the well known Congregationalist preacher of London, is now delivering sermons lasting exactly Don't let him call you by your first name, at least not until you are en-gaged to him, and then ouly when you are by yourselves. Don't let him put his arm around you and kiss you; when he put th of surveys.

you and kiss you; when he put the pretty ring on your finger it meant that you were to be his wife soon, he gained a few rights, but not the one of indiscriminate caressing. When he placed it there he was right to put a kiss on your lips; it was the seal of your love; but if you give your kisses too freely they will prove of little value. A maiden fair is like a beanti-tul, rich, purple plum; it hangs high ment and they have returned with much valuable information. They discovered the greatest glacier in the world, and among other things that the crest of ful, rich, purple plum; it hangs high up on the tree and is looked at with Lieutenant Commander Reiter of the midnight Saturday night. At that mo-ment the McKinley bill went into effect. The office had been kept open to allow belated steamers to enter their cargoes, envy. He who would get it must work for it, and all the trying should United States steamer Ranger has been ordered home and will be relieved by commander Wingate.

St. Elias is in American territory. One of the wildest scenes ever wit-20,000 tons weekly.

be on his side, so that when he gets it he appreciates it. You know the story belated steamers to enter their cargoes, and all had gotten in except the Etruria. Just as the deputy collector was declar-in the custom house closed Capt. Haines rushed in and entered his vessel. The of the man who saw a beautiful plum on a tree, which he very much wanted. Next to it hung another plum; it seem ed as beautiful, and it was apparently Postmaster General Wanamaker has just as sweet as the one he wanted The seeker for it stood under it a mo advanced further arguments on postal telegraphy. He says that it would be popular and is a necessity. The excitement over the Oklahoma ment, looked at it with longing eyes, and behold, the plum dropped into his mouth. Of what value was it then?

It was looked at and cast aside. Now take this little story, and make it point the moral that I wish it to.—Ladice' capital question is intense and unabated and armed men of both sides are in attendance at the legislature.

Ex-Governor Philip Francis Thomas of Maryland, who was secretary of the treasury under President Bu-dead. He was 80 years old. to music.

adorament is thus described by Edith Sessions Tupper: I was calling on a pretty girl not long since who is al-ways in search of novelty. Her ex-plorations sometimes led her to daring lengths. I noticed that whenever she The American wife of Yan Phou Lee a Chinese graduate of Yale college, is suing for divorce on the ground of in-fidelity, at New Haven, Conn.

London dispatch: The McKinley bill is likely to destroy the Birmingham but-ton trade. Many orders have been canmoved or walked that there came the tinkling of bells from some part of her. At first I fancied these ornaments celled and the employes of most of the button works have been put on short might be on her gown, but a quick glance showed me I was mistaken. Tinkle, tinkle came that exasperating

58,000 words, Worster's latest edition 116,000, Webster's 118,000, the Im-Edward Brown of New York was arperial 130,000, the Encyclopædic 180,rested and sentenced to three moths' im-prisonment for begging. He lived in affinence in a brownstone front. 000. The Century dictionary is to have 200,000 and more, very possibly 10,000 or 20,000 more. tintinnabulation until my woman cur osity got the better of me and I aske "Will you kindly tell me if you has 000. The Century dictionary is to you kindly tell me if you hav Cardinal Hergewrothen, a Catholic -The real name of Edna Lyall, author of "We Two," "A Knight Er-bells on your toes?" She laughe gave ber head a saucy toss and sai historian and champion of the Vatican decrees against Dr. Dollinger, died at Mehearn monastery in Germany. The Guatemalan government is very anxious to settle with Hollander, the American editor of the Guatemal Star, silver bells to her garters. She en-joyed the sound, she said, and also the curiosity her fad aroused. It was such fun, she vowed, to see people studying her, watching her movements and trying to discover the location of the tinkling of the bells. Now can woman's ingenuity surpase such tan-talizing devices?

She Enjoyed the Sound.

A new freak in the matter of femini employe of the papal office confesse on his deathbed that he had gossiped with Premier Crispi's steward. Senor Don Manuel Montufar formerly Gratemalan secretary of the legation at Washington, has been sent by the Guat-emalan government to Washington to confer with the state department in re-

Judge Armstrong of Sacramento has decided that vagrancy is a crime, and that the person charged therewith is en-titled to a trial by jury. gard to the Barrundia case. Miss Annie Husaboew of Scranton, Pa., sued Rev. Peter Roberts, a prominent young divine, for breach of prom-ise, and was awarded $3,000. As Roberts had just married a wealthy young woman the affair created a sensation.

Berlin dispatch: Rosa Seifert, an 8-year old girl was decoyed into the out-skirts of Leipsic by a man who outraged and murdered her. The child's body was terribly mutilated in the manner

Billy Lynn, the puglist, who shot Patsy Mulligan and Jack Smith, pugi-lists, at Spokane Falls, has been con-victed of assault with intent to kill. suggesting the work of "Jack the Rip-During the first nine months of thi W. W. Whitney, wife and daughter year 3,763 miles of new railroad have been built in thirty-nine states and on 212 different lines. The total construcand Mrs. J. C. Sprigg, all of San Diego, claim to have been robbed of $3,000 worth of diamonds at a Tacoma hotel. tion for the year is estimated at from

Robert Majors, aged 18, stabbed Dick Shannahan in the breast and inflicted a fatal wound. The trouble arose over the lad's attention to Shannahan's sister. 6,000 to 6,500 miles, against 5,200 miles last year. For public land surveys for the current year: Arizona gets $5,000; Califor-nia, $10,000; Idaho, $20,000; Montana, $75,000; Utah, $8,000; Washington, $85,-Bloodshed is expected among the Brit-ish Columbia Indians who have been engaged in picking hops in Washington. 000; Wyoming, $20,000. The reserve for contingencies is $27,000. The sum They are buying arms and ammunition of $40,000 is allotted for the examination in large quantities. Millie Panhorst, who killed her lover, The eyes of the scientific world have beld without bail on the charge of murturned on the St. Elias expedition for der. The verdict of the coroner's jury the last six months. It was under Kerr was justifiable homicide. ann Russell of the United States govern-

James Shover of Wheatland, Cala., attempted suicide. His wife is suing him for divorce and he told her he would kill himself if she didn't come back to him. She did not return to him, however.

George Rily was arrested at Tucson One of the wildest scenes ever wit-nessed in the New York custom house was enacted just as the clock struck midnich Saturday nicht. At that we house house Journal and is wanted in several places for similar offenses.

George Frankell, aged 70, committed suicide at Shingletown, Shasta county. He was a bachelor until three week ago, when he married a lady aged 50 to whom he was engaged thirty-five years ago. Lemuel Bannister, for himself and George Westinghouse of Pittsburg, Pa., paid $75,000 for the Speculation silver scene which followed was a wild one. Brokers yelled like madmen and nearly mines located near Tucson. Experts went wild. Capt. Haines saved over claim that there is over $2,000,000 in $100,000 in duties on the Etruris's cargo.

Patrick Connors was shot and danger-

PERSONAL AND LITERARY. —George Eliot was so religious when a young woman that she would not go to the theater or opera or even and the woman shot him. an oratorio, although she was devoted

Saturday night Louise Esslinger and George Werhlin were married at Red-wood. After the ceremony the couple -The color of Othello has been questioned point in Shakespeare. M. went to the new home-a handsome lit-Benjamin Constant, the French artist, the cottage. The bride refused to allow questioned point in Shakespeare. M. Benjamin Constant, the French artist, has recently expressed his opinion that Othello was not yellowish-brown, but decidedly black. -Todd's Johnson's dictionary has 58,000 words. Worster's latest edition cide for some unknown reason.

rant," and other semi-religious novels,

her novels, which have a large sale

she was only seventeen.

who was expelled from that country. The Comte de Paris was tendered an She is said to have made up her mind

Lawyer (in justice's court)-Now, young lady, you may take the stand. Lady-Yes, sir, with pleasure. Man (in a whisper)-There, that does me up. She's my wife and she's 40 years old, but the sugar on that lawyer's tongue will cost me $75 for millinery be-fore the end of the month.-West Shore.

City Restaurant

The Comite de Paris was tendered an elaborate reception by old army friends upon his arrival in New York. He was in the Federal army under Gen McClei-book was written and published when Has been re-opened, by the Misses Fennells on Main St., opposite the Opera house, Inde-pendence, Meais 25 cents, Board, $3.50 per week. Ice Cream and Oysters in sesson, Thole supplied with the best the market af fords. No Chinese employed.