METHODIST CHURCH. Sermon by Rev. E. E. Phipps, Sur

day, November, 2, 1890. Prayer: Text, Lu. xt, 9. Much has been spoken and written on prayer. Its philosophy, its nature, its design and its quality have been much discussed. I wish to direct your attention to Secret Pray-

There is much moral living and much formal Godliness; sin in high places is denounced by both the pulpit and the press, and the church is perhaps far from complicity in the great national evils, but there is a lack of power in the church. Christ teaches us, both by His examples of retirement and precepts of secret prayer, (Mat. vi. 5, 6,) where the key note of success is.

Those who have succeeded in solving ing its forces into obedience, have sought long and persistently to this end.

Let us ask and seek and knock until thoughts and our lives, and our words for Him will be indeed sharper than

Alice Williams and the pastor, D. V. Poling sang a duett enti-iled, "Must I so and empty handste" cled, "Must I go, and empty handed?" which was well listened to by the condise. gregation present. The text "What is Truth?" was commented upon as follows: The causes of Pilot's skepticism were (1) indecision of character. His entire life was a pitful illustration of this thought. He throws the blame on the priests, and then acknowledges his own responsibility in giving Christ to his accusers. Noble, grand men have been crippled in their life work by being unsertled in their opinions. (2) Falseness to his convictions was another cause of his skepticism. Do You Want to Earn

A PREMIUM.

Then go to work young man or young Never wants for Customers because woman among your friends, and get them to subscribe for the WEST SIDE. You have fiive chances for getting a prize, and from the list below you will see that they are worth striving for.

HOW TO DO IT.

For every New Subscriber, paying $2 for the WEST SIDE to Jan. 1st, 1892, the person sending in the name and money will be credited with one subscription. On the 22nd day of Nov., 1890, the person, or persons having secured the greatest number of New Subscribers will receive the 1st prize, and the next highest the 2nd prize, etc.

THE PREMIUMS.

1st prize. A typewriter. Value $15.00.

$10.00 cash.

2nd 3d Book on Ettequette. Value $2,50.

Book, one of Dicken's works. Value $1.00. 4th Book, one of Verne's works. Value $1.00. 5th "

These prizes can be seen at the this office. These prizes are given for NEW SUBSCRIBERS only, and it is possible that the highest number of subscribers obtained by any one person might not be over ten, hence in that case the ten subscribers will earn the first and a less number each of the others. This is just the work for the boys and girls. A full subscription ($2.00) counts one. Half a year ($1.00) counts one half. Three months, or 50 cents, one-fourth. You can send in the money and names each week until Nov. 22, 1890, and at that time the winners of the prizes will be announced through the columns of the West Side. The West Side will be sent to New Subscribers from date until January, 1892, for $2.

COMMENCE WORK AT ONCE.

Any person whose name appears on our books cannot be counted as a new subscriber. Clubs can be formed in a community, and the names will count as prize winners. For example, ten persons subscribe for the paper, and if ten is the prize club, the 1st will be paid to them. Remember there are five prizes. Two or three new names will almost be sure to secure a prize of some kind.
