UNITED ACTION.

A time is coming, and that very soon in the history of Independence when upon the united action of her citizens depends in a great measure her future prosperity.

The Salem Journal says that the recent New Year's issue of the Oregonian was as much a Washington edition as one of Oregon.

Do you believe a railroad to Falls City will be of any benefit to the people of Falls City or of Monmouth or of Independence?

John P. Irish is authority for the statement that wages in the United States are 77 per cent. higher than in England.

A Salem correspondent to the daily Oregonian of Jan. 7th compiles an ominous list of figures on the clerical expenses incurred by the last session of the legislature.

For that session $15,000 was paid for salaries of committee clerks. Of this the engrossment committee had $1000; the enrollment committee $600.

had lady clerks, but nearly all had none if they had not had such. Some of the clerks, it is said, had nothing whatever to do, and did nothing, until at the close of the session, they presented their claims for forty days service.

Land in Oregon is cheap. Why? Because interest on money is high. The man who borrows at eight per cent. (the lowest rate in Oregon) and agrees to pay the taxes really pays about eleven per cent. for his money.

Over thirteen hundred students are registered in the college and there are about fifty full professors and more than as many assistant instructors.

The college has a number large and handsome buildings and more are to be built soon. An agricultural hall is to be built next year.

There is an entire absence of the dormitory system for the men. The fraternities, or Greek letter secret societies, being a favorite method among the students in which to have congenial lodgings.

During the fall and spring terms outdoor athletics are run in earnest. Football, base ball, rowing and tennis all have many enthusiastic supporters.

In closing this summary, I can only say that at Cornell one can get any kind of intellectual training he desires. The only course that I am aware is omitted, being one in theology.

Table with columns: Name, Address, City, County. Lists names like Merritt, J.W., Moore, J.E., Montgomery, J., etc.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY. EDITOR WEST SIDE.—As the Christmas vacation has rolled around, I find time to write you a letter descriptive of the university.

The university is located on the eastern hillside of the Cayuga Lake valley in Tompkins county, New York, and some four hundred feet above the head of the lake.

Our versatile Fall City correspondent sends us a double headed item of so much interest to us personally that our innate sense of modesty will not permit us to publish it.

A theatrical venture spoken of in a recent issue of the West Side is being put on by a party of 30,000 spectators for a Passion Play.

A bitter struggle between capital and labor in Belgium is expected, in consequence of a reduction of miners' wages.

The Illinois state central committee will contest the right of five Democrats to sit in the senate on account of alleged inelegitimacy because of foreign birth.

A piano was exhibited at Edinburgh with two sets of strings and two sounding boards. Each key, therefore strikes six strings instead of three and a pedal makes it possible to play on three only.

The Spanish coaster San Francisco recently ran ashore near Albuquerque, Mexico. A party of Moors boarded the vessel and carried off everything of value they could find.

Table with columns: Highest, Lowest, Mean, Precipitation, No. clear days, No. fair days, No. cloudy days. Includes data for Jan, Feb, Mar, etc.
