LOCALS.

The river was quite high again this week.

The only thing that printers like better than wedding cake is more cake.

The week of prayer will be held all of next week, throughout the entire world.

J. F. O'Donnell moved, this week, into his new brick which is fast nearing completion.

Read the new ad. of the law firm of Daly, Sibly and Eakin, in this week's issue of the West Side.

The District Institute, held at Eugene this week, was a splendid success. The people of Eugene are fully abreast of the times.

Nice new house to rent. May pay rent by boarding owner if desired. Call on or address W. J. Spillman, Monmouth, Or.

A number of the residents of the bottom lands along the river are moving to higher ground, as the river is getting too close for comfort.

The oft-repeated question, "Do you love me?" in engagement, should be changed to "Can you support me?" and "Do you know how to cook?"

Prof. Millard, the celebrated singer, held forth at the Presbyterian church last night to a delighted audience. The professor is a magnificent singer.

R. L. Shively moved into the house recently vacated by J. M. Vanduyt last night to him and his family a hearty welcome into our midst.

The Christmas holiday sales last Thursday were great. Some sales of our merchants ran from $300 to $500 worth in one day. This is a great country.

Albertson, the Tacoma bank robber, who was shot and captured down on the Oregon coast, has been sentenced to ten years in the Washington penitentiary.

The West Side force is under many obligations to Mrs. R. A. Fuller for a generous supply of Christmas cake, and all join in wishing her a happy New Year.

In a personal mention last week, in locating the law office of Geo. A. Smith, we made a slight mistake, his office may be found over the Independence National bank.

"Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful medicine so invigorates the system and enriches the blood that cold weather becomes positively enjoyable.

Young men should be careful, when they leave their best girl in a seat in church, and return and take another seat, and another girl. Such a contretemps causes great embarrassment, and many blushes.

The bridesmaids last evening were unusually handsomely dressed, and evinced a preparation worthy the occasion, while the groomsman displayed equally as good taste in his toilet.

Miss Parle Cooper very royally entertained several of the young people of Independence at her home just north of town last Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Nora Cooper, of McMinnville, who is visiting with her during the holidays.

Physicians all over the country report the reappearance and rapid increase of the grippe, commonly called "the grip." In ancient Greece a sneeze was no rare a thing that it was considered a sign of good luck, which shows clearly that people of ancient times were not "up to snuff."

A family living in Salem consists of a well-to-do Chinaman, Jim Hong, his wife, a blue-eyed Caucasian of prepossessing appearance and their child, a baby nine months old. The couple are man and wife, and to all outward appearance live together as contentedly and happily as most married people do.

There is an old adage: "What everybody says must be true." Henry Cook, of New Knoxville, Ohio, in a recent letter says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here. Everybody likes it on account of the immediate relief it gives." There is nothing like it to loosen and relieve a severe cold. For sale by all medicine dealers.

At the annual election of officers of Lyon Lodge No. 29, Dec. 26, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing Masonic year: G. W. Shilin, W. M.; Dr. O. D. Butler, S. W.; E. L. Ketchum, J. W.; W. P. Conaway, Secy.; W. L. Hodgins, Tyler.

The promptness with which Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops a hacking cough and induces refreshing sleep, is something marvelous. It never fails to give instant relief, even in the worst cases of throat and lung trouble, and is the best remedy for whooping cough.

J. M. Vanduyt moved into his new residence last Monday, just finished by Mr. Plant. It is a neat cottage indeed, displaying much modern architecture, and is quite a credit to our city.

"We know from experience in the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that it will prevent croup," says Messrs. Gadsberry & Worley, Perry, Iowa. They also add that the Remedy has given great satisfaction in that vicinity, and that they believe it to be the best in the market for throat and lung diseases. For sale by all medicine dealers.

Will Whittaker, who had his photograph gallery burned out on December 1st, was insured by the California Investment company. A full adjustment was made, and all damage paid promptly by James Tatom, manager and agent for the company. Mr. Tatom is a live agent, and fully worthy the confidence of all those desiring property insured. His headquarters are at Monmouth, and he can always be found there or at Independence when called upon on business.

There is little doubt that many persons suffer for years with ailments that could easily be cured by the use of some simple remedy. The following incident is an illustration of this fact: My wife was troubled with a pain in her side the greater part of the time for three years, until cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I think, I think, permanently cured her. We also have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy whenever needed and believe it to be the best in the world. P. M. Boston, Pennville, Sullivan county, Missouri. For sale by all medicine dealers.

Rev. Wilson, P. E. of the M. E. church, held quarterly meeting here last Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Wilson preached ably, as he always does. The meeting was enjoyed by all who attended.

A. W. Cooper, of Sherman county, nephew of J. R. Cooper, is in town on a visit. Mr. Cooper says many changes have taken place since he was among us. He was brought up in this town and we hope that he will return to the place of his boyhood days.

Ell Johnson returned home from his mountain sheep-ranch Sunday evening, and reports high water, and bridges gone. He also speaks of the small amount of snow in the coast range, and thinks it is due to the direction of the wind, and ocean currents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Young, of Portland, spent their Christmas holidays in our city, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Claggett. Mr. Young was in business here for several years, while this is the home of Mrs. Young. Their many friends were truly glad to see them.

Rev. Mr. Eeelson, of Lafayette, exchanged pulpits with Rev. A. F. Lott last Sunday. The congregation here was highly pleased with Mr. Eeelson's two splendid sermons, and no doubt the Lafayette congregation was well pleased with the minister from Independence.

These exchanges show a brotherly kindness and good will which can be shown in no other way.

So. Wood, of Grizzly, Crook county, was in town this week visiting friends. He was formerly a citizen of Polk, and resided near Independence. He is a son of Doc Wood who brought the first beam to Oregon that ever crossed the plains. It was in 1846. The bees were brought safely to Oregon but were lost in the then dreaded Umpqua canyon.

Mr. Sol. Wood has fine ranch in Eastern Oregon, and has made a success of stock raising. He subscribed for ten copies of the holiday number of the West Side. He says Independence has made great improvements since he was here last.

AN APPROPRIATE LETTER. We take the liberty of publishing the following letter written to us, as it is so full of encouragement and written by one who has friends by the hundreds in Independence. We hope Bro. M. will pardon us for taking this liberty.

NEW YERSON, Morris Co., N. J., Dec. 16th, 1891. DEAR BRO. BELL: I enclosed you will find one dollar for the West Side. I see by the label that my subscription has expired. I am glad to know you are making such a success of it. It is the first thing I read when it comes and we are always disappointed when it fails to put in an appearance as it sometimes happens.

Independence has changed so much, I presume that we would scarcely know it. We are always on the lookout for any improvements that you may chronicle and rejoice with or old friends in every advance made. There is one thing that has caused us sorrow—the Sunday base-ball games. I used to enjoy a game of ball, and after last S. S. picnic tried my best to sit with some of the young men, but do hope some other day will be taken for it.

Mrs. Murgatroyd joins me in kind regards. Yours very truly, E. R. McMATROVY.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per tin. For sale by all druggists.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS.

Yes, the wedding bells rang out sweet and clear last night at 8 o'clock p. m. at the Christian church.

It was New Year's eve, and two happy hearts were made to be one. Rev. D. V. Poling, of the Evangelical church, and Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams of Independence, were joined in the bonds of holy matrimony, Rev. C. G. Poling, brother of the groom, officiating. The groom is a young and promising minister of this city of splendid pulpit ability, and beloved by all for his sterling worth, and efficient work he is doing in our midst.

Miss Irvine, is one of the most accomplished and handsome young ladies in all our city. She is deservedly popular and the leading soprano of Polk county. We could only consent to the marriage of these two excellent singers, on the ground that they will remain among us. The marriage ceremony was impressive, and the large audience of invited guests sent up a silent prayer for their voyage o'er life's sea, to be a pleasant one.

DECORATIONS AND MUSIC. The church was very beautifully decorated with garlands of evergreen with a large bell of ivy just in front of the pulpit under which the contracting parties stood during the ceremony. The orchestra, consisting of three pieces, Mr. Sebring with the violin and Mr. Hill with the cornet, and Miss Ida Bates at the organ, rendered Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." The groom proceeded by the groomsman marched up the aisle to the altar, followed, shortly after, by the bride, the bride and the bride leaning upon her father's arm. The officiating clergyman then stepped forward and pronounced the ceremony. Immediately after the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom were escorted to the residence of the bride's parents, the minister leading, followed by the bride and groom, after whom came the bridesmaids and groomsman.

THE BRIDESMAIDS. The bride was richly attired in white silk and lace, with train, white silk veil, and a real orange blossom wreath. The bridesmaids were Miss Cora Snel, Clara Irvine, Etta Whitaker and Alice Macaulay, and wore cream costumes with trains. The groomsman, Messrs. Frank Nottner, W. H. Hawley, L. Weaver, W. S. Laughlin, and were dressed in the conventional black with white kid gloves.

The dresses of the ladies present were rich and handsome while the attire of the gentlemen were of the most approved style. A more richly attended audience of invited guests, one seldom sees.

THE RECEPTION. After the marriage ceremony in the church, a large number of the immediate friends repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous supper was partaken of, and where sweetest strains of music filled the air, until the old year swung back into the mighty past, and the new year came from the Orient to greet the Occident, with happy congratulations for the future prosperity of the newly wedded pair.
