FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1892.

THE Douglas county Democrats have nominated a strong ticket. There is no good reason why everyone of them should not be elected.

On account of the crowded condition of our columns we cannot make reply to Bro. A. J. Hunsaker until next week. No great damage will occur because of our delay. THE Democratic candidates for Polk county will meet at Dallas April 30th, 1892, to file acceptance of their nominations, and also to make permanent arrangements for notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

THE state Democratic ticket is now before the people, and as a whole, is worthy the support of every citizen who has the welfare of this great country of ours at beart. We shall try and show this fact clearly by the 6th of next June.

ONE of our delegates to the state Democratic convention paid quite a high price for a pair of opera week. Do not say anything about it however, for he might Send you to Town to look after them.

So-CALLED "civilized races" may well take pattern from the genuine gypsies. Writing of them, Edgar L. Wakeman says: They universally revere the marriage relation. the tent-home form of government and surveillance are such that gypsy children grow unconsciously into hereditarily virtuous lives and loves. Gypsy men and youths regard virtue of as noble perfection in a man as in sweetheart or wife. while such a thing as disloyalty of husband to wife, or wife to husband after marriage has yet to be recorded of a gypsy on the European or American continent.
