FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1922.

ROOMS TO LET.

Nicely furnished rooms to let either by the night or week. Inquire of A. E. Stockton, C. street.

WANTED.—100,000 pounds of wool by Geo. E. Brey, Independence, 29-41

WANTED.—A first class agent. Apply at the office of M. O. Potter, in the Dornale block.

FOR SALE.—Two small tracts of land near Independence mostly set to fruit trees; also one ten acre tract with good building, banyard, and orchard. Inquire at this office.

SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that Buser & Locke's books have been turned over to H. M. Lines, and all accounts due them not settled immediately will be collected with costs added.

CELEBRATION.—Fall City will celebrate our national holiday in a truly first-class style. Last Tuesday evening her citizens held a mass meeting at the Falls City hotel, and decided to hold an old-time 4th of July celebration, to consist of an oration, music, literary exercises, games, etc. For full particulars see large posters, which will appear shortly.

ANOTHER NEW FIRM.—N. O. and D. H. Ciodfiter have bought into the Klemsens flouring mill at Talmage, and will soon run the mill day and night. This makes a strong firm, and more attentive men to business, and men of better judgment, cannot be found. Henry Ciodfiter is bookkeeper for the new firm and he is well qualified for this position of trust. The name of the new firm is Klemsen & Ciodfiter Bros.

GRAND EXCURSION.—Under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church of this city, there will be a grand excursion given to Oregon City and return to-morrow, the steamer Wm. M. Hoag having been chartered for the occasion. Sweet music will be discoursed by the Monmouth band to enliven and make melody in each and every heart. A good time is expected, so do not fail to go. Ticket for round trip, $1.00. Boat leaves Independence dock at 7 a. m. sharp.

THE MONMOUTH SOCIAL.—The ice cream festival at Monmouth last Friday evening was indeed a success, both socially and financially. A short literary program was rendered before the delicacies were served, which was much appreciated. The condensed paper especially created considerable laughter. The water and flower girls in their special costumes presented a very charming appearance. The net receipts were over fifty dollars, which will be expended for a carpet to cover the chapel rostrum.

MISS GRACE LITTLEJOHN is a little girl, aged eleven years, residing in Baltimore, Ohio. Read what she says: "I was troubled with rheumatism for two years, but could get nothing to do me any good. I was so helpless that I had to be carried like a babe, when I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I got it from our druggist, Mr. J. A. Kumbler, and in three days I was up and walking around. I have not felt any return of it since, and my limbs are as limber as they ever were." 50-cent bottles for sale by all medicine dealers.

A WEDDING AND BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.—Quite a number of guests assembled at the residence of H. M. Lines last Tuesday evening and from thence proceeded to the home of W. W. Lines for the purpose of surprising the host and hostess, it being the occasion of their thirtieth anniversary, and also of Mrs. Lines's thirty-second birthday. After a bountiful repast and a pleasant evening of various amusements had been spent, the guests took their departure, wishing them many more years of as successful and happy married life as has been the past six.

QUIT A FLUNGE.—Last Tuesday morning about 5 o'clock, as soon as they had finished counting the votes for the two Independence precincts, Messrs. A. B. Atkins and C. D. Rider started in Mr. Atkins's cart to carry the votes to the county seat. When nearing the bridge leading out of town the horse became frightened at a sudden noise and plunged down a quite precipitous bank, a distance of some 75 or 80 feet. Strange to say, neither of the men nor the horses were badly hurt, receiving only a few slight injuries, and no bones broken.

Mrs. Marian K. La Ransauer arrived in Independence from California yesterday. She will remain in our city a few months. The many friends of Mrs. La Ransauer will give her a very cordial welcome. We induce the hope that our readers will have something from her pen at an early day.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY is the standard. Its many cures have won its praise from Maine to California. Every family and every traveler should be provided with it at all times. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by all medicine dealers.

Word was received from the Chumaw's Wednesday afternoon that they would play the Independence team Saturday at the Talmage grounds, but receiving the word so late, and owing to the fact that a great many will not go on the excursion, they will not play, but will in all probability compete for honors a week from tomorrow, June 18.

In a recent letter to the proprietors Mr. H. M. Bangs, the druggist at Chatawater, Ill., says: "I am very much pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the epidemic of gripple here it took the lead and was very much better liked than other cough medicines." The gripple requires precisely the same treatment as a very severe cold, for which this remedy is so efficient. It will promptly loosen a cold and relieve the lungs, soon effecting a permanent cure, while most other medicines in common use for colds only give temporary relief. 50-cent bottles for sale by all medicine dealers.

Those young people loitering near Mr. Klemsen's mill in Talmage in the dim twilight, had better be a little careful or someone might catch on to some love secrets.

The best sleeping medicine is a dose of two of St. Patrick's pills. They not only relieve but cleanse the whole system, and purify the blood. For sale by all medicine dealers.

Sarsaparilla belongs to the amixia family of plants, and is found very generally over the American continent; but the variety that is richest in medicinal properties is the Honduras root, of which the famous Ayer's Sarsaparilla is made.

Archie Sloper brought us a box of strawberries Tuesday, the largest of which measured 8 inches in circumference. Oregon bears the world for strawberries, and Archie, though quite young, shows himself to be an adept in berry growing.

Mrs. Harriet A. Marble, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for years a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health.

J. E. McCoy has the race track on the fair grounds completed, and it compares favorably with any in the state. Jas. Campbell & Son also have the sixty stables ready for occupancy. Let everybody put their shoulder to the wheel and have a rousing big fair this fall.

The wall is made that the new tal-lot law is "extremely tedious." It is a little slow, we admit, but the bosses cannot run men up by fives, tens, and fifties, "en bloc," as our pious friend Colonel Shepard would say, any more. We have partly got rid of that evil, at least.

Mr. Hubbard, of Falls City, gave the West Side a pleasant call this week, and says that a big Fourth of July is going to be held there this year. Since all the towns in the county have about given up celebrating, would it not be a good idea for everybody to go to Falls City this year?

Mrs. Marian K. La Ransauer arrived in Independence from California yesterday. She will remain in our city a few months. The many friends of Mrs. La Ransauer will give her a very cordial welcome. We induce the hope that our readers will have something from her pen at an early day.

Sealed bids for Wood for the State Normal school.

THE ELECTION.

The Vote by Counties as far as the Returns are in Chickamauga county.—The Republicans elect their entire ticket except sheriff and school superintendent and one representative, which offices were captured by the Democrats.

Marion county.—The Republicans elect their ticket except county clerk, the Democrats electing that office by a 600 majority.

Benton county.—The entire Democratic ticket was elected except clerk for the legislature and Wilson for county clerk, which two offices were captured by the Republicans. Wilson has been county clerk for the past twenty-eight years.

Klamath county.—The Republicans elect everything except assessor.

Lane county.—In Lane both parties elect some of the officers. The Democrats claim the county judge and one representative, and are sure of the sheriff and assessor. The Republicans elect the other offices.

Sherman county.—The entire Republican ticket is elected except judge and clerk.

Haker county.—The Democrats were generally successful.

Clatsop county.—The Democrats elected five of the officers, and the Republicans the remainder. The Republican majority was reduced from 750 to 220.

Wasco county.—The Democrats elect the sheriff, judge, clerk, and commissioner, and the Republicans the remainder of the officers. Bennett, Democrat, has 800 majority over Moore, Republican.

Morrow county.—The result divides the county offices about equally between the Republicans and Democrats.

Cosco county.—Hors, People's, will probably carry the county over Hermann.

Douglas county.—The Democrats elect five of the county officers, including treasurer, sheriff, and commissioner. The Republicans carry the remainder of the ticket and also give the state ticket a majority.

Jackson county.—Chamberlain carries the county for attorney-general over Webster, Republican. The Democrats elect about half of the county ticket.

Linn county.—The Democrats carry the county with but a few minor exceptions.

Yamhill county.—The Republicans elect everything except one member of the legislature and clerk.

Josephine county.—The People's party elect the legislator and sheriff.

MAMMOTH WORSHIP. A Modern Investment, Which, It Entails Two or Three Thousand Years Hence, Will Stamp us as Open, Instead of Only Covet, Mammoth Worshipers.

Oh! Almighty Dollar, our acknowledged governor, preserver, and benefactor, we desire to approach thee on this and every other occasion with that reverence which is the due of superior excellence, and the regard which shall ever be cherished for exalted greatness. Almighty Dollar, without thee in the world we can do nothing, but with thee we can do all things. When sickness lays its paralyzing hand upon us thou canst provide for us the tenderest of nurses, the most skillful of physicians, and when the last struggle of mortality is over, and we are being borne to the last resting place of the dead, thou canst provide a band of music and a military escort to accompany us thither, and last but not least, erect a magnificent monument over our grave with a living epitaph to perpetuate our memory. And while here in the midst of misfortunes and temptations of life, we perhaps are accused of crime and brought before magistrates, thou, Almighty Dollar, canst secure us a feeble lawyer, a bribed judge, a packed jury, and we go free. Be with us, we pray thee, in all thy delectable parts, for that thou art the only one altogether lovely and the chief among ten thousand.

We feel there is no condition in life where thy potent and all-powerful charms are not felt. In thy absence how gloomy is the household, and when thou, Oh! Almighty Dollar, art with us, how gleefully the breakfast sings upon the gridiron, how genial is the warmth that anthracite coal or hickory wood diffuses throughout the apartment, and what an exuberance of joy continues to swell every boom; thou art the joy of our youth and the solace of our old age; thou canst adorn the gentleman, feed the junkie; thou art the favorite of the philosopher and the ideal of the lunk-head. When an election is to be carried, Oh! Almighty Dollar, thou art the most potent argument of politicians and demagogues, and the umpire that decides the contest. Almighty Dollar, thou art worshipped the world over; thou hast no hypocrites in thy temple, or no false hearts at thy altars, kings and courtiers bow before thee, and all nations adore thee; thou art loved by the civilized and the savage alike, with unfeigned and unflattering affection; we continue to regard thee as the handmaid of religion and the twin sister of charity.

Oh! Almighty Dollar, be with us we beseech thee, attended by an inexpressible number of ministering angels made in thy image, even though they be but silver quarters and dimes, whose gladdening light shall illumine the vale of penury and want with a heavenly radiance which shall cause the awakened soul to break forth in the acclamations of joy. Almighty Dollar, thou art the guide of our footsteps and the goal of our being. Guided by thy silvery light we hope to reach the golden gate and triumphantly enter, while hands harmoniously sweep the golden harps as we enter the golden street.

Almighty Dollar! thy shining face bespeaks thy wondrous power; In my pockets make thy resting place, I need thee every hour.

And now, Almighty Dollar, in closing this invocation, we realize and acknowledge that thou wast the god of our grandfathers, the two-fold god of their children, and the three-fold god of their grandchildren. Permit us to possess thee in abundance and all thy varied excellences, be our constant and unwavering prayer.—From an Unknown Exchange.

THE VOTE OF POLK COUNTY—GENERAL ELECTION, JUNE 6, 1922.

OFFICERS AND CANDIDATES.

Table listing election results for Polk County, including candidates for Congress, Oregon State Senator, Oregon State Representative, County Clerk, Sheriff, Treasurer, Assessor, and various school superintendent positions. Columns include candidate name, party, and vote counts.

The above vote is unofficial. It does not include the Prohibition vote, because up to the time of going to press the county clerk was unable to furnish them in detail. The figures here given, however, are correct as to the majority and the vote of the Republican and Democratic parties. We will give the People's and Prohibition vote next week.

THE STATE ELECTION.

The Republicans of Oregon awake today to a realization of the fact that they are in a minority in the state. They have elected two congressmen, it is true, but they have done it by a division of the opposition vote. Chamberlain, a straight Democrat, defeats Webster, a straight Republican, for attorney-general. It is neck and neck between Bennett and Moore for supreme judge, with the chances favoring the former. They are virtually beaten on the head of the ticket.

But the significant fact is that the combined vote of the Democrats and the People's party is far in excess of the whole Republican vote. If the Telegram's advice had been followed and there had been a fusion between the two wings of the opposition, the Republicans would have been wiped from the face of the earth in this state election. We would not only have elected the full state ticket, but we would have elected the two congressmen and all the circuit judges, with a fair prospect that we would have carried the state legislature.

While the fruits of victory have not been gathered as they should have been, still yesterday's election was a defeat for the Republicans. It emphasizes the fact that they are in a minority in the state, and if the opposition vote will get together it will end the Republican regime forever in Oregon.—Telegram.

NO NOMINATION YET.

At the last moment as we go to press this morning, the telegram tells us no nomination yet for president. Harrison is decidedly in the lead this morning, but a trap may be sprung at any time. Blaine's forces are fighting a mighty duel.

THE WEEK.

JUNE 2.

Midway Dillon is not expected to live. A wall-paper trust was organized to-day. Wm. Johnson, of Hillsboro, Or., was killed by a falling tree.

James McCarty, a brakeman, was caught between car bumpers at Centralia, Wash., and crushed to death. The express car on a Santa Fe train was robbed of several thousand dollars near Guthrie, O. T., by train robbers.

Base ball: Portland 9, Spokane 3, at Portland. Tacoma 6, Seattle 5, at Seattle. Portland's victory to-day put her in the first place.

Delegates from all over the United States convened in St. Louis. The convention is for the purpose of pushing the Nicaragua ship canal.

At Port Jarvis, N. Y., Bob Jackson, a negro, outraged Lena McMahon. The crime was witnessed by several young girls, who gave the alarm. Jackson was lynched.

At Van Buren, Ark., a steamboat ran into a bridge, and four persons were drowned. Three boys and a girl were killed by lightning near Scranon, Pa., during a thunder storm.

At Reading, Pa., several people were killed and a vast amount of damage done by a tornado. The investigation of the census bureau is bringing out much damaging testimony against it.

Robert T. Day was hanged at Kalamazoo, Wash., for the murder last October of Thomas Clinton Beebe.

Base ball: Spokane 9, Portland 8, at Spokane. Tacoma 6, Seattle 2, at Seattle. Portland's defeat dropped her from first to second place, while Seattle is at the foot.

JUNE 4.

The Mississippi river is again rising at St. Louis. At Galvestone, Cal., three men were killed by lightning. An explosion of nitro-glycerine in Kensington, Pa., killed two ladies and a man.

Argus Byers, of The Dalles, fell from a fish wheel at Celilo, Or., and was drowned. At Elk, California, Wm. Harris fatally shot Mrs. Scott, a widow, because she refused to marry him, and then committed suicide.

A cyclone at McCook, Neb., injured several persons to such an extent that they will die. A church in which 200 children were rehearsing for children's day was totally destroyed, but the falling timbers formed an arch that kept the falling stones from crushing them.

Blaine handed in his resignation as secretary of state, and President Harrison promptly accepted it. Blaine's action created great excitement among the politicians, and those Republicans who favor Harrison's nomination speak of it as a contemptible trick on the part of the ex-secretary to defeat Harrison before the Minneapolis convention.

JUNE 5.

Creedle, Colorado, was damaged by fire to the extent of $1,000,000. Base ball: Portland 3, Spokane nothing, at Portland. Seattle and Tacoma two games at Seattle. First game: Tacoma 4, Seattle 3. Second game: Tacoma 12, Seattle 4. Portland has first place and Tacoma is second.

Near Yacumina, Oregon, a train on the Oregon Pacific collided with a hand-car. Mrs. Pruitt, wife of the section boss, and one of the her children, were killed. Mr. and Mrs. Manning, who were also on the hand-car, were injured, and their child was killed.

At Oil City, Pennsylvania, Death and Destruction have been holding high carnival. It has been raining for a month, and Oil creek is a raging torrent, the surface of which became covered with a film of oil. A locomotive passed a leaky gasoline tank and it exploded, and in an instant the oil on the water was a sea of flame. Hundreds of houses in Oil City were burned, and at least fifty lives were lost. In Titusville the loss was almost equally great. Thirty of forty people perishing. The exact number of deaths is not yet known. The loss will reach into the millions.

JUNE 6.

Base ball: Portland 6, Tacoma none, at Portland. Another strike in the woolen mills at Oregon City is in progress over the company failing to keep its promise made when the strike of a couple of months ago was settled.

While rescuing a woman from death by a train, Frank Miller, a flagman of the Central Railroad of New Jersey at Bergen Point, was struck by the engine and killed. The woman was uninjured.

Sixty-seven bodies have been recovered at Oil City. It is thought the total number of deaths will reach 150. At Titusville sixty-three bodies have been found, and the indications are that fifty or seventy-five more are among the ruins.

A young Swedish girl, aged fourteen, employed as a domestic by Richard Parker, of Seattle, gave rough on rats to Parker's infant son. Her object was to get him out of the way so as to lighten her work. The child is dead and the girl has disappeared.

JUNE 7.

Base ball: Seattle 7, Spokane 4, at Seattle. The Republican national convention convened in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Samuel Johnson, living near Walls Walla, Wash., placed "rough on rats" in the cupboard. Her two grandchildren ate it, and one will die.
