What about the 4th July celebration? All are ready to go to Independence, and have a good time.

Passing along the road last Tuesday with Mr. Strong, of McMinnville, his attention was directed to the work going on at Talmage. He expressed surprise, and at the same time said that "McMinnville would take a hand in what was going on at the district fair." The stockholders in the fair association are to be commended for the spirit of enterprise they have exhibited in this work. Farmers of Polk county, be prepared to |make a good exhibit of your products.

The car of progress, the portable confectionery car, will soon be on a tour of the county.

It is June among the mountains that raise toward the blue, and at the soda fountains it is June and Sally, too. J. J. Wheeler, from Wisconsin, is looking around for a location. He was originally from New Hampshire. He is exceedingly well pleased with Oregon, and especially with this locality. William Hyatt, of Salem, son in law of S. S. Whitman, recently deceased, will move to Monmouth and take charge of the farm owned and formerly worked by the latter. We welcome him to our midst.

Do n't forget the district fair. Last Tuesday, Israel Hedges, now 80 years of age, visited our city for the first time in ten years. He was much surprised at the growth of Monmouth. Mr. Hedges has lived near Independence since 1851. He is and always has been a highly respected citizen and we wish him all the happiness at tamable in this life. Your townsman W. On steamboats, cars, and stage-coaches, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is carried as the most important item in the materia medica of the traveling public. It deprives vitiated, brackish water of its hurtful properties and execrable flavor, counteracts the pernicious effects upon the stomach of bad or indigestible food, remedies cramps, heartburn, and wind upon the stomach. It is a fine defense against malarial disorders, nullifies the effects of excessive heat, cold, and an incomparable cure for costiveness and biliousness. The fatigue of travel often tells most disastrously upon invalids and convalescents, occasionally to such an extent as to jeopardize life. Persons in feeble health, apprehensive of bad effects from travel, will, if pro vided with the Bitters, be far less likely to have their fears realized.
