WESTER ESCAPE.—Webster, the trusty who escaped from the penitentiary...

BIG YIELDS.—Aughbaugh & Heaton's steam threshers threshed a forty-acre field of wheat for Howard Smith...

OUR FIRST YEAR.—The present progressors have conducted the WEST SIDE for one year. We believe, from what our patrons say, that we have given them very good satisfaction.

CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.—We made a mistake in Patterson Bros' ad last week. They tried to tell you that they had purchased their ware for the holiday trade. But we couldn't see the word that way, and printed it "jewelry" instead.

IS WHICH WE KICK.—This interesting item appears in the Statesman, from the pen of the Polk county correspondent of that paper: "Mrs. Ball, of Oregon City, is visiting relatives in the same place."

A FINE MONUMENT.—Dr. T. J. Lee and wife, last week, had erected at the grave of their daughter Leola a very fine monument to perpetuate the memory of their beloved child, who came to an untimely death by drowning, about one year ago.

LOCALS.

It is said about twenty immigrants arrived in the county from Sweden.

A good many bank cashiers are going glib—well loaded when they go off.

Riley Cooper is building a fine residence on the old home place just below town.

John Cooper says he has about 500,000 of the finest brick ever made in Oregon.

Mr. John James and family and Mrs. Sadie Porter are at Lewisville visiting relatives.

Dr. Young had his hip badly out last Monday by a horse going off his feet at the race track.

Mr. C. A. Frantz has bought a nice organ and put in his public hall at King's Valley.

A Mr. Burns, living near the county line on the west, is happy over the arrival of a new son.

There were not as many joined in the excursion last Saturday to Newport as was expected.

Rev. D. V. Poling will preach in the Christian church Sunday morning and evening. All are welcome.

The world's fair appropriation bill passed just before adjournment. There was $2,000,000 appropriated.

One woman worked in the harvest field last week shocking wheat at $1.50 per day. Where is the next one?

John Rodgers has bought the old Chamber's mill, at King's Valley, and is putting in extensive improvements.

Ball & Slopier are drilling a well for the Monmouth water company. It will be one hundred feet in depth when completed.

Mr. Ganfield, who lately arrived in this country from Minnesota, has decided to locate at the county seat and has purchased property.

D. H. Clodfelter is now seen on our streets. He is still using crutches, but is improving nicely and we are glad to say, from his serious mishap.

Congress adjourned last Friday. The well, since filibustering became the prevailing practice of the lower house during the last few weeks.

Mr. James Paul, of Dallas, has the contract for hauling and delivering straw for the Oregon City paper mills. He has purchased a new team.

On Frank Mulkey's farm, near Monmouth, sparks from the threshing engine set fire to a lot of straw, and several stacks of wheat were burned.

The school for the blind will open in Oregon, September 12, 1892. Rev. E. S. Bolinger, superintendent. Address all communications to the superintendent.

Dr. Conaway, of Dallas, is on a visit this week to his brother, W. P. Conaway, of this city. The doctor seems to be improving some since he came over.

Rev. D. C. McFarland, P. E., M. E. Church South, held quarterly meeting here last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. McFarland did some excellent preaching.

Virgil Levins, of Anity, endeavored to take the ramrod from his gun the other day, when the gun was discharged in some way, and his hand was terribly mangled.

Store your wheat at the Talmage mills. The new warehouse is now ready for receiving 60,000 bushels of wheat. Yours respectfully, Klonsen & Clodfelter Bros.

These are the days when the soul of the weary printer pines for the pebbly beach. But we move on in the even tenor of our way, for printers expect but little here below; and sea rule they get it.

Preaching next Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. R. N. Bell, and a congregational meeting to be held immediately afterwards. All members of the congregation invited.

Dr. E. J. Young, veterinary surgeon and dentist, late of Newberg, has located permanently in Independence. The doctor comes highly recommended. His office is over the Independence National bank.

The hum of the thrasher is soothing to our worried brain, for it brings thoughts of the golden dollars which our farmers will soon be receiving in exchange for the golden treasure they are now harvesting.

Last week the Murphy & Madison threshers threshed for Damon, Hill, Daniels, Stapleton, Will Madison and Lemon. Madison's was the last wheat threshed, averaging thirty bushels to the acre machine measure.

J. Story and A. Bevens, of Dallas, have located a ledge of coal near Prescott & Veness's logging camp, on the Luckiamute. Parties who have seen samples pronounce it of good quality. The croppings are two feet wide and fifty feet long.

Messrs. Ferguson & VanMeer take this method of informing the general public that they now have on hand the very best sawed cedar posts, any size or length, and a large supply of first-class lumber. Call and buy at reasonable prices.

Have we any truly great men at the present day? Some doubt it, and ask to be shown the modern Washington, Franklin, or Webster. However this may be, of one thing we are sure, there never was a greater blood purifier than Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Smith, who runs a plater at Prescott & Veness's saw-mill, met with an accident Monday that will lay him up for three or four weeks or more. While running the cut-off saw, his foot was caught under the carriage and was badly crushed, several of the small bones being broken.

Hon. J. S. Cooper, of Newport, Benton county, paid our city a visit this week. He is many old friends were glad to see him. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the wonderful progress our town was making. Many changes have taken place since he left, but he will remember some of the old landmarks.
