LOCALS.

Plenty of grain sacks at the Talmage mills.

Buy the White Star Roller mills flour.

The "Red Men" will institute Tuesday night, August 20th.

It would never do to cut down the beautiful blooming thistle.

The thistles are indispensable to the prosperity and beauty of the town.

Why don't you cut down the thistles? The marshal should compel you to do so.

Go and see that fine display of new school books just received at Buster & Shelley's.

Miss Mildred Jacobs, a normal graduate, will teach in the Dallas school.

Your postmaster is an expert ball player. She can throw the rainbow curve to perfection.

Charles Brown brought us some of last year's apples. They were in an excellent state of preservation.

The Red Hill mine, of South Salem, will play the Independence ball team at the Talmage grounds Sunday.

Geo. W. Brey is building a fine warehouse on the S. P. Railroad track just south of the depot.

The hot, perspiring days are here, distressing old and young.

An accident happened to Helmeck Bros. thrasher last week which necessitated the loss of a day while the machine was being repaired.

W. G. Hart has just finished a nice country residence on his farm at Salt Creek.

A communication on the silver question, from W. L. Wilkins, is crowded out this week on account of lack of space.

There will be no services in the church at Dixie on next Sunday, August 21, 1902.

Mrs. Fisk, of Dallas, stepped on a nail and ran it entirely through her foot.

Ed. Dove has purchased the interest of his brother, D. G. Dove, in the business and property of the Dove Bros.

It would be a shame to cut down the thistles this time of year, when they are first beginning to ripen.

Our friend, Attorney G. A. Smith, surprised us this week by putting on the printer's veil and going to the case and setting type as glibly as you please.

Store your wheat at the Talmage mills. The new warehouse is now ready for receiving 60,000 bushels of wheat.

Mrs. Stine, proprietress of the "Christian House," would say to her patrons that she makes a specialty of Sunday dinners.

Rev. J. W. Craig will preach next Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m. at Monmouth in the Christian church.

Dr. E. G. Young, veterinary surgeon and dentist, late of Newberg, has located permanently in Independence.

Four convicts escaped from the penitentiary last Friday night. They were all sent up from Multnomah county.

According to the Statesman, a young married man named Jack Sherman, said to be a bookkeeper of this city.

On Friday the 13th, there came near being a very disastrous fire on the John Vernon farm.

"Two years ago two of my family, a young man and girl, had very severe and dangerous attacks of bloody flux."

When at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea.
