FRIDAY.

Weather delightful today. J. S. Cooper left for Portland to-day, on business. Senator Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, is not expected to visit. H. Hirschberg went to Albany yesterday to take in the races. C. H. Hoag, a well-to-do farmer at Suver, was in town to-day. Peter Kurze, living with Jas. Hiltbrandt now, was in town to-day. Newt Jones is hauling plow to the dry sheds of the Independence saw mill. This year has been one of the most prosperous with the Independence saw mill. Dan Calbratt, the agent at Parker's station and postmaster, was in town to-day. Lewis Helmick, the owner of a thousand acres of land near Parker, was in town to-day. Miss Myrtle Lee, who has been visiting Lottie Robertson in Portland, returned to-day. Miles Porterfield, who like many others is waiting to get 23c for hops, was in town to-day. Have you noted how W. H. Wheeler is assuming adermatic proportions? It is the climate does it. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, at Washington, is very low, and there is said to be no hope of her recovery. J. A. Wheeler, manager of Prescott & Veness's saw-mill here, took to-day's train for a business trip to McMinnville. D. W. Klemsen, of Talmage Star Mills, reports trade brisk and has taken in over 20,000 bushels of wheat this year. Ben Hayden, the pioneer leader of Democracy in Polk county, was in town to-day looking unusually vigorous and strong. Ham Hawley, cashier of the First National Bank, has been sick for the past week, but managed to get down town to-day. W. H. Campbell & Son took the contract to-day to repair and rebuild Oliver Waller's residence at Monmouth. J. R. N. Bell left on to-day's train for Portland, Spokane, Denver, and we did not learn how much further East or South. Frank Emmett, one of Polk county's crop of sterling young men, is teaching the Buena Vista school, this being his second winter. Last night Dr. Lee received a telegram stating that his brother in Junction City was dying, and to-day went up to Junction by train. J. A. Veness has been up to the three logging camps on the Luckiamute and returned to-day. They will soon have 7,000,000 feet of logs out. We do not want to find fault but if some well-disposed person would go over the apparatus in the city hall with a dusting brush it would look much better. Samuel W. Wilson, now employed by the Oregon Pottery Company in Portland, was visiting in Buena Vista last week, and passed down on the train to-day. Skinner & Co.'s flouring mill is running at full capacity. Forty-five thousand bushels of wheat have been received this season, and the warehouse is about full. As amusements at the opera house have been rather scarce during the past year, why not get up a local dramatic society? For further particulars see Fred Douty. C. A. Whale, who had an exhibit of musical instruments at the county-fair pavilion, has no complaint to make, as he sold them all and has orders for more. And still it rained. C. A. Wass, a fellow-student with the editor at Eugene, returned from rusticated at Yaguina to his home in Portland. He is manager and part owner of Corday's theater. Fred Green and wife, formerly Miss Laura Wilson, were in town to-day. They are living on Peter Kurze's farm south of town and will have 160 acres in wheat and oats next spring. Miss Ada Judson and Mrs. Dr. Lee were delegates to the Congressional association at Forest Grove, and report a pleasant time among the 150 delegates. Mr. and Mrs. Poling were there also. Chas. Huntley is in charge of Oliver Webster's farm, north of town, during his two months' visit to Michigan. His wife, formerly Anna Stevens, a graduate of the normal school, is teaching the Oak Point school. Wm. Wells, of Buena Vista, the pioneer hopgrower of Oregon, is agent for E. Meeker & Co., and has traveled quite extensively through Oregon and Washington. He reports the quality of Polk county hops, on an average, the best in the state. Robt. Plant, whom many remember as a former resident of Independence, is now conductor on the St. Louis & Suburban Electric street railway, St. Louis, at a salary of $80 a month, and has regained his health. He subscribes for the West Side at 3938 Evans avenue.

log it, although the irrigation season is over. The demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is steadily growing, from the fact that all who give it as a trial are pleased with the results and recommend it to their neighbors. We feel sure that the remedy cannot be recommended too highly—Wagley & Sneed, druggists, Newton, Iowa. For sale by all medicine dealers. There has been a continued tendency to bowel disease here this season, says G. W. Shively, druggist, Wickliffe, Ky., "and an unusual demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have sold four bottles of it this morning. Some remarkable cures have been effected by it and in all cases it has proven successful." For sale by all medicine dealers. Read Shelley & Vanduy's special cloak ad in this issue. Cloaks, cloaks, cloaks, at S. & V.'s.

SATURDAY.

J. S. Cooper returned from Portland. J. W. Kirkland took a business trip to Dallas. Mrs. Smith's child is still quite sick at Monmouth. H. Hirschberg returned from Albany races to-day. Geo. C. Bolter, of Parker's station, was in town to-day. Mrs. Frank Morris returned to-day from visiting friends at Dilly. John Vernon, of Rieckreal, and daughter Alle, were in town to-day. Mart Scraftford reports the farm lands in the very best of condition for sowing grain. A. B. Atkins and son Norval took to the exposition at Portland, returning to-day. J. R. Scraftford has returned from Fairhaven, Washington, and is now at Monmouth. Vessie Sears, daughter of Van Sears, of near Ballston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Collins. The infant child of J. A. Veness here is very sick, and also that of Coma Wells, of Buena Vista. Wm. Dawson, the young Portland attorney, came up to-day and is visiting his mother at Monmouth. The trial of the Evangelical church matter was decided in favor of the Bowman side of the question. Complaint comes to the justice of a very noisy crowd on the streets Saturday morning about three o'clock. R. L. Shibley, of the drug firm of Buster & Shibley, is in Drain, Oregon, settling up business he has there. W. R. Stevens and family are recent arrivals at Independence. He will be employed by Prescott & Veness. Miss Pickle, a teacher in the Salem public schools, will spend Sunday with her cousin J. W. Buster, of this city. Wm. Brandt's back again as brakeman on the West Side train, and the familiar face of Webster, the conductor, is there again. Alex Turnbull, lately of Bismarck, Dakota, will locate in this county, probably on A. B. Atkins's farm, which he will purchase. Wm. McLean, an old resident of Buena Vista, made his first call at this office to-day, although he has read the paper many years. Mr. Heffelman, living in North Independence, brought in some excellent quality of horse radish to this office, and it is full strength. B. E. Wilcox, lately of Buena Vista, has resided for fourteen years, has rented the Mattney house and will work in the Independence saw-mills. Misses Jane and Bertha McDaniel, graduates of the normal school, passed through on to-day's train south, and will spend the winter in Los Angeles. W. M. Sterling, from near Corvallis, has rented J. S. Cooper's farm there and will keep posted on the movements of his friends here by receiving the West Side each week. Announcement cards have been received of the marriage of Jacob L. Mitchell, of Salem, a rustling real-estate dealer, to Miss Anna Schott, the 21st ult. The West Side extends congratulations. At the Portland exposition a steel box, near the model of the battle ship Oregon, is intended for subscriptions to a fund to purchase a testimonial from Oregon for the honor in having the great ship to attend the christening of the Oregon," writes Irving B. Scott, of the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, "and to do something on its own account. All ships have received something in honor of having been named after some particular place, and we know that the state of Oregon will not allow itself to be an exception to the rule in this matter." Go to Mrs. E. Wimmil if you want anything in the line of millinery as she has a full line of very beautiful bonnets and hats. Remember she has moved to her old place; third door south of the First National bank. "I would rather trust that medicine than any other doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter county, Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This medicine can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases, both for children and adults, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all medicine dealers. Miss Macaulay kindly invites the ladies to call at her millinery parlors Saturday, and see her pretty display of fall millinery. She will have her final winter's opening during the week of the fair. All are cordially invited to attend. Prices are no object to Miss Macaulay, for she endeavors to please her customers.

SUNDAY.

We depend upon our friends to furnish us news for this column. Will ministers please not abbreviate names of societies, in their reports to this paper? There will be no services at the Baptist church Sunday, as the pastor will be absent. There will be no services in the Baptist church next Sunday on account of absence of the pastor. Rev. C. P. Smith, of Portland, will preach in the Christian church next Sunday, morning and evening. Rev. J. A. Townsend will preach next Sunday, morning and evening, in the Presbyterian church. In the evening, particularly for young men. Prof. Kantner, of Corvallis, will preach Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings. Some of the reports received for this column are in the form of standing notices. We want church news of the current work or none at all. It is a matter of news to know what was done in the churches the past Sunday, and announcements of ones to come. Rev. D. T. Summerville, of the M. E. church at Dallas, held services morning and evening. Communion service in the morning. Sunday school well attended. Young people's meeting in evening. Rev. John Osborn, of Monmouth, assisted in evening service. At the Baptist church of this city, Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m., was held a profitable meeting, and baptisms were conducted. Rev. A. J. Hunsaker conducted services morning and evening to-day. At the morning service the hand of fellowship was extended to newly received members. Sunday school held before morning services. Communion services in the morning. Rev. D. V. Poling held services in the Congregational church here in the evening only. Communion services were held, and one addition received to the church membership. The Young People's Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening, conducted by Prof. Hitchcock, was very interesting. The evening discourse was on "Responsibility." Excellent music and an attentive audience. Rev. A. S. Copley held services in the Evangelical church last Sunday. Rev. I. B. Fisher will preach there on Friday evening. Religious services also Saturday and Sunday, morning and evening. The Lord's supper will be administered in the morning. Sabbath school at 3 p. m. THE POLK COUNTY FAIR

List of the Premiums Awarded and Paid.

ONLY A TWO DAYS' PROGRAMME.

But the Association has Paid Every Bill Promptly and the Public now has implicit confidence.

The heavy rains of week before last came just at the time of the Polk County District Fair here, and as a consequence the last three days were a complete failure. This public knows was no fault of the association, and yet it entailed a heavy loss indirectly on the stockholders. The association has expended over $6,000 in purchasing lands, erecting buildings, digging wells, and building a race-track, and naturally the stockholders expected some return for the money invested. The total receipts were $1,000, and the outlay for prizes, $1,025; for premiums, over $150, and other expenses $75, so that there is a deficit of about $150. In spite of these discouragements every pure, every premium, and every bill, is being paid. This course on the part of the association places it on a firm financial standing with the public, and at future meetings of the public and the entry of just as fine line of fast horses as this year. While financially this year the fair was not a success, the sterling integrity of the members of the association insures the coming meetings a larger attendance. Secretary J. M. Vanduy has furnished the following list of premiums awarded:

CLASS I.—FARM PRODUCTS. Best popcorn, 1st Pr. A. Hartman, $2.00. Best wheat, 1st Pr. J. A. Hartman, 2.00. Best white beans, 1st Pr. A. Hartman, 2.00. CLASS II.—CROPS (not less than 4 lbs.). Best sample butter, 1st Pr. J. B. Parker, 5.00. Best sample butter, 2d Pr. J. B. Parker, 2.00. CLASS III.—DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES. Best carpet, 1st Pr. Mrs. E. D. Johnson, 2.00.
