What Our Reporter Finds of Interest to Our Readers.

THE LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Summary of the Events of the Week Thoroughly Told and Collected Daily—Items of Interest from Everywhere.

New veillings at Vanduy's. Children's clothing at Vanduy's. Frank Knys was made the father last Friday of a ten pound boy. Ladies, you can get any thing you want in glove-wear at Vanduy's. Two brothers of A. J. Goodman from Eugene, have been visiting here. Mrs. Della Rennie, of Salem, is visiting her father Peter Cook, of this city. At Vanduy's a large line of Saller Lawin & Co.'s shoes have just arrived. Leu Hawk, the Chinese divine lectures in the opera house next Friday evening. The sister of our townsman C. M. Brown, has gone back to her former home in Indiana. Last Friday L. W. Robertson, of Portland made a business visit to town as did also B. Lucas of Rickreill. Today is St. Patrick's day—commonly called the "17 of Ireland." Green is the prevailing color worn. The Oregon Mercantile Co. has G. W. Shinn at work lettering a brand new delivery wagon for their grocery store. Asa W. June, who has been conducting the Little Palace Hotel, has given up the job, and Jesse Wilkins is again at the helm. Preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday. Ladies aid society at Mrs. Taylor's Friday. Young people's union Sunday evening. Call at Vanduy's and examine the new line of ladies, misses and children's jackets. It is by far the most handsome line ever handled in the city. F. A. Douty, who has opened out in the agricultural implement business here, is a business man of sterling worth, and deservedly popular in this section. Otto Hendrick left one day last week for Lewisville, Polk county. His presence will be missed here, as he was the leader of the Alsea band.—Corvallis Times. Miss Nellie Carnahan, a former student at Monmouth, now teaching in Salem, was arrested for whipping a boy in school. After a trial she was acquitted of any blame. Miss A. Macaulay will have the able assistance of Miss Burnett again this season, who is a competent and accomplished trimmer. She also has two other assistants as her trade demands it. G. W. Whiteaker has rented the up stairs of his brick to a number of the ladies here for an exercise room. He has the painters and paper-hangers at work putting the room in a nice clean condition. Marsh Merwin, who is an ex-member of the city council, wishes the readers of this paper to understand that he did not write the article in last week's issue of the West Side entitled "Sunday Observance." Miss A. Macaulay will have her annual spring opening Thursday and Friday, March 30th and 31st, at which time she will have a grand display of imported hats and novelties which will interest the ladies. All are cordially invited. J. W. Buster and family left on Wednesday for their new home in Roseburg. Mr. Buster was an enterprising citizen and the community regrets his departure. He has our best wishes for his success in his drug business in Roseburg. At the meeting of the ladies who organized the Exercise Club here, Mrs. A. J. Goodman was elected president, and Mrs. J. M. Vanduy secretary. The membership now numbers nineteen with several others who are indicated, enough to fill out the limit of thirty-five members. A. M. Hurley is building an office for his legal business, on the vacant ground between his building and the Independence National Bank, which will make him a very pleasant place in which to do business. It is eight feet wide and twenty-eight feet long. At the Christian church next Sunday, Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening theme, "What must we do?" Singing by the choir and male quartette; young people's society convenes promptly at 6:30, with Mrs. Hattie Kramer as leader. Extensive improvements are being made by the Tile Co. one of which will be the building of a switch from the Southern Pacific railroad. When the factory starts up again it will have added a pulverizer for reducing the clay and a pug mill. Five thousand pieces of tiling a day will be turned out, and the fires will be kept burning all summer. The demand for the tiling is on the steady increase and it is of very fine quality and is sold at a very low price.

The clay pit of the Independence Tile Co. filled up with water from the heavy rains, and as the distance to the Willamette river was nearly half a mile, and to drain it thoroughly would be very expensive, Mr. Griffin decided to dig a deep hole and run the water into it as a temporary measure. He dug down some twenty-five feet and came to a strata of loose gravel, and when he turned in the surface water, to his surprise it gradually sank away, and soon the pit was empty. The water ran through the gravel into the river. He now has a natural sewer. The railroad to Salem is an assured fact, so Messrs Talbot and Wheeler say, but no one can inform the public how it is to be built when there is no tangible evidence of money behind the project. The city council of Independence stands ready to grant a franchise whenever it is shown that by so doing it will insure the building of the railroad. Granting franchises is a dangerous thing unless the benefits of such grants are reciprocal. The Oregon Mercantile Co. is now ready for business with a complete line of groceries and crockery. The gentlemen, Mr. O'Rourke and Mr. Sandercock, representing the firm, are experienced men in the grocery and crockery business, and will be able to give their patrons full value for their money. Call and examine their stock and prices. They will also buy all kinds of farm produce. Remember the place, Clodfelter's building, corner Main and C streets, Independence. About twenty-five of the leading ladies of Independence, says a correspondent to the Salem Statesman, have organized themselves into a club and propose to fill up a large room with the necessary implements for a gymnasium, and males will be debarred from any of its advantages. That Polk is a prolific county, is evidenced by the fact that in H. D. Stant's band of sheep one ewe, last week, gave birth to three lambs, and another to four lambs, and all are doing well. The wool growers will have to form a trust pretty soon and limit the production. B. F. Hall of Croston informs us that the samples of coal found on his farm at Croston, have been pronounced to be of very best quality for stove fuel. He also has a mineral spring on his place which has been the means of effecting quite a number of remarkable cures. W. R. Hall, of Croston, will leave about the 30th of this month for Moscow, Idaho, where he will engage in opening an opal mine belonging to E. C. Hall. Mr. Hall has struck it very rich up there, having sold half an interest in the mine for $12,000. The ladies gymnasium club has gone in partners with the young men's club, and each will occupy the hall on alternate nights of the week. That young men's club will become more popular now that joint seasons may relieve the monotony of events. The Polk Co. fair management intends doing extensive advertising this year, and commence early. They are having the grounds photographed, and will have electrotypes made and place the picture on all of their stationery. The Kickapoo Indian Medical Co. under the management of Dr. Leon Smith, opened at Albina, Portland, Monday March 13th, where they will remain four weeks. They will remain in Portland all summer. There are some curious names in this country. Up about Corvallis is a man named Calhoun below Independence one named Hahn; near McCoy one named Pigg and over near Salem one named Goose. The personnel of the managers of our daily S. P. train is as follows: Conductor, M. C. Webster; baggage master C. D. Berry; brakeman, F. Farnell; engineer, Wm. Bateman; fireman, D. Fish. Pink Patterson is just recovering from the mumps after quite a long siege; Wm. Patterson has been in the house a week or more, and now Doc Patterson is down with them. A young lady who can do any kind of housework, take care of children, and comes well recommended, desires a situation. Can accept at once. Inquire at West Side office. Frank Loughary found amusement this week watching through the glass door of his incubator, while the little high-class chicks cracked their shells for daylight. The mumps are an epidemic here now, nearly every other house in town having from one to three cases. No serious cases are reported. Justice Lines, of this city, on Sunday last united in marriage John Stump, of Dallas, and Miss Carrie Helu, of Dixie. D. B. Boydston, the fish dealer, says he can get no more salmon until after April 10th, on account of the close season. Rev. D. V. Polling will be at Dixie next Sunday morning and will preach in Independence in the evening. Loughary Bros. have a Plymouth rock egg measuring eight by six and one-fourth inches. M. G. Hendricks, of Wheatland, the proprietor of the warehouse here, was in town Monday. J. A. Bowman has gone to Albany and is in the blacksmith business there. Have you seen the elegant display of millinery at Mrs. A. M. Hurley's? Ladies, misses and children's ferris waists, at Vanduy's. Call on Loughary Bros. if you want to raise fine chickens. The dry-house of Prescott & Veness is about completed.

Prices reasonable and goods fine at Mrs. Hurley's. Mrs. S. B. Walker is visiting relatives at Dixie. The Monmouth grange meets Saturday afternoon. Miss Julia Locke returned from Portland Tuesday. Wm. Davidson, of Buena Vista, was in town Wednesday. Rev. C. P. Smith of this city, is visiting his parents in Portland. Wayne Williams left for Forest Grove Wednesday on business. Miss Cora Snell, of Astoria, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Conway. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Madison are thinking of making their home in Roseburg. Mrs. C. H. Badle returned on Wednesday from visiting her parents at Carlton. You can always get first class butter at the Oregon Mercantile Co's store, Clodfelter's building. Miss Stehla Umphlette, on account of the sickness of her mother, has left school at Monmouth and returned to her home at Amity. M. O. Potter will soon call on our business men in the interests of the Polk Co. Fair Association, in order to extensively advertise the meetings here. A recruiting officer of the United States army, was in town the first of the week. He was looking for the young and vigorous men from the county. John Burns of Luckiamute, D. M. Klemens of Talmage and Geo. S. Skinner of Independence, were attendants at the Millers convention at Portland last week. E. R. Case, the barber, makes a specialty of fine pompadour. Try him. The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. C. Richardson on Tuesday next, at 3 p. m., a full attendance is desired. Rev. E. D. Horner, of Corvallis, made a flying trip down last Tuesday visiting friends here. We sorely regret that time and space will not permit of us publishing a long and exceedingly interesting letter from Bethel. It contains many pithy news notes which we will give to our readers next week. Remember the Gypsy Carnival at Monmouth, in the near future. Our City Fathers in Council. Members present, Douty, Irvine, Bell, Finch and Locke, Wilson coming in when the session was almost over. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. We therefore recommend that the city council employ him for the balance of this year. Respectfully submitted, F. A. Douty, A. S. Locke, H. C. Finch. Report accepted and committee discharged. An ordinance was then introduced and read providing for the closing of all business houses, not exempted by law, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday. News Notes from the Several Towns in the County.

WHAT OUR PEOPLE ARE DOING. Our Correspondent at Monmouth Chronicles the Week's Happenings at that Place—Interesting News from Dallas and Other Places. Luckiamute. Miss Minnie Tetherow of Independence, was visiting friends here Friday. Miss Tetherow is engaged to teach our spring term of school. Mr. Shipley, of Monmouth, opened school at Elkins school house Monday. Mr. Shipley comes well recommended and will no doubt teach a good school. Last week Isaac Simpson lost 20,000 hop roots through the neglect of the railroad company. They were valued at $75, and the company will have to make it good. Brown of Talmage, has been buying cattle in our vicinity for the Portland market. Last Saturday evening a number of young people were well entertained at the handsome residence of Mr. McEldowny; singing and various games were indulged in until nearly midnight. The hop growers are busy with the vines, and all expect a better crop than last year. Considerable more will spray their vines this season, and no doubt will bring about a better price for their crop. There seems to be considerable unpleasant feeling among the people of this vicinity about our school. This could be avoided if a few persons would not attempt to run things all one way. Monmouth.
