

MONMOUTH'S WEEKLY RECORD.

C. V. MURPHY, Editor.

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1923.

The United States flag has been hauled down in Hawaii.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has recognized the justice of the claim to have governors of the territories elected from among its citizens...

THE Southern Pacific has begun fencing their track in Oregon. There arrived at Salem last week six cars of lumber and three of barb wire.

THE enormous proportions of the railway traffic of the county can be surmised, from noting the extent of a single point. The Railway Review says: Nearly 250,000 cars passed through the St. Clair tunnel...

SPECIALS from Omaha and Denver reported that a strike was ordered among the boiler makers, pattern makers, blacksmiths and moulders in shops along the line of the Union Pacific...

A reaction has set in against pugilism, which will tend, if continued, to rid the arena of fistie encounters. Two deaths within a year caused by "punchment," and the general disreputable character of prize fights...

It is a newspaper's privilege and business to express an opinion on all public issues. That opinion cannot meet the ideas of all, and it is useless to hold that the paper should keep still because it does not coincide with you in your views.

A Baby Born in New York.

A baby was born in New York the other day. It was an Astor baby, and is heir to $150,000,000. Mr. Bellamy's New Nation thus figures on the wealth and income of this one baby:

At 6 per cent the interest is $9,000,000 per year, or $30,000 per day for, say, 300 working days. It, therefore, would require 20,000 workingmen at $1.50 per day to pay the interest...

For Sale. A house and lot for sale on monthly payments, will furnish the same, and sell at actual value. F. ANSTINE.

Out of Sight. The traveling public are now fully alive to the fact that the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern Line offers the very best accommodations to the public from end to end of the continent...

"Who is the belle tonight?" asked she, as they stood on the ball-room floor. He looks around the room to see. And she speaks to him no more.

LOCAL JOINTINGS.

In Hewitt's show window is a hip bone of a land animal. The tail of the hip bone measures nearly fifty inches around. It is supposed to be the bone of the ancient mastodon.

J. J. Dealey, of Dallas, was in town Wednesday. The graduating class at the public school have elected the following officers from among their numbers: Miss Linnie Murphy, president; Oscar Russell, vice-president; Miss Olive Howell, secretary; Miss Lulu Mason, treasurer; Miss Nora Hatt, valdicatorian.

John Miller gave the public school children an invitation to come down and drink soda with him, to which they gladly responded.

The I. O. O. F., of this place, will have a fine large hall fitted up in the bank building soon, over Smith & Jordan's. They will take it for three years.

Sol Stump, of Saver, was in town Saturday with his fast cart horse.

We keep the best in our line. No one can, does, or shall undersell us. Come in and see for yourselves. Cook & Portwood, Main St.

Six delegates were sent to the Y. P. S. C. E. state convention Thursday which will be held in Portland.

J. H. Inlow, our confectionary man, and Mr. Edgar, our stable man, took a flying trip to the capital last week on business.

J. H. Frazier, our local dentist, went to Portland last week and brought his family back with him. He will take rooms over the bank.

Mrs. Nellie Craven, of Corvallis, is here helping the Smith sisters who are overrun with work.

J. E. Sibley and Sheriff Wells were in town last week.

Supervisor Butler is busy himself and others on the roads now. They need a great deal more work than the taxes will come to.

Mr. Mumper, of this place, visited friends and relatives in Salem last week. Mr. Louis Briggs, a normal graduate of '92, a teacher in Marion county now, was visiting his brother last week.

Everybody is at work in the door yards, making ready for spring.

At a regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., of Monmouth, a vote of thanks was tendered to all those who took part in the Milkmaid's convention.

The proposition is being considered in Oregon City to pave its main street with vitrified brick. The bricks are so hard that sparks will fly when steel is struck against them, and it requires a good hard blow from a hammer to make an impression on them. They are made of ordinary clay.

A town does not grow without help, although there are hundreds who believe that a town grows itself without any aid. No matter, however, what may be the natural advantages, the town must be boomed. Its advantages must be made attractive, or there is no hope there. The energy and push of the people make the town.

As fine and as good beans as we ever ate were raised in this county, and enough of them could be profitably raised within our borders to ten times supply the home demand, yet every year our merchants import thousands of pounds of beans. This is a hint for the ladies and ambitious boys and girls to plant a patch of beans for the market. You will be surprised to find how easy you can thus make from $5 to $10 or more.

Miss Mamie Stanton, an old Normal student, was visiting here last week. Miss Cora Dempsey, of the Normal, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Dixie.

The question of good roads interest all—farmers, teamsters, city people, bicyclists, and tramps.

Love is closely allied to war, and its fullest expression is an appeal to arms. "The air is very familiar," said a musical young Normal girl as the sea breeze twisted her hat off.

Sunday, May 14th, Bishop Brayfogle will conduct the dedication exercises at the Evangelical Church. He will preach both morning and evening.

Mrs. J. L. Diens, who has been an invalid for many years, died Thursday, April 27, at 10 o'clock a. m. Mrs. Diens leaves a faithful husband and two married daughters—one Mrs. Dr. Davis, of Gervais, and Mrs. John Sherman, of Seattle.

Misses Mackey, of Corvallis, were visiting here last week. Dr. Mason of Dallas, was in town Friday.

A very pleasant party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Prof. J. M. Powell in honor of J. W. Dawson, who will soon return to Heppner, Or., where he will resume his duties in the law with partners Ellis & Lyons.

Willard Stevens of Marion Co., who attended school here last year, was in town Wednesday delivering goods for a firm in Salem.

The funeral service of Mrs. Diens was conducted by Rev. Smith, our Christian pastor, at the Christian church Saturday at 10 o'clock. The floral display was unusually rich and everything went off without a discord.

Chas. Wood, proprietor of the shoe shop was in Salem last week having his ears doctored for deafness. We hope the treatment will prove successful.

Miss Eunice Alexander of Newport, a former student of the Normal, was visiting her many friends here last week.
