C. A. Rohrer, of this place, returned last week from Lincoln county where he has disposed of his ranch. He will assist Mr. Cox who has lived among us for several months and who is the purchaser, in moving on the place this week.

At the dedication exercises of the Evangelical church the house was packed to its limit. Bishop Breyfogle, from Pennsylvania, preached the sermon, which was the best we have heard for some time. At the close, as usual, the cry for money came, which was responded to by $275.

The Christian church, which is now on the Normal grounds, will have to be moved. Let it be located two blocks south of the college on the same street; this place will be convenient for more people than down in the business part of town. In the business part is no place for a church and should not be.

Fulkerson, vice-president; Iva Haley, secretary; Jenette Wimberly, treasurer; W. W. Curtis, class poet; F. J. Stanton, orator; Olivia Jacobs, historian; Kate Kasto, prophet. Representatives: Grace Jones, Minnie Coleman, E. G. Kirby, Mary Barker, H. C. Baker, Ella Page Agnes Metcalf, C. J. McIntosh, O. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hosmer, and Maud West.

The match game of base ball participated in last Saturday by the girls against the boys of the public school, was an exceedingly interesting one. The game was played scientifically and according to the latest rules throughout. Both sides were neatly uniformed, the girls in white waists and black skirts to their knees, the boys in white and blue. More than two hundred from the town and Normal witnessed the game. The way in which the battery on the girls side handled the ball was unusual, hardly a ball passing the catcher, Maud Hargrove, and the curved pitcher Miss McGrew, caught several liners hot from the bat and made double plays with them. The boys worked hard and did all in their power to beat the game but all in vain. The cheers from the crowd in behalf of the feminine team, "rattled" the boys who were ahead until the last two innings, and the girls succeeded in scoring one more run than the boys. The score stood 36 to 33 in favor of the fair sex. The boys were beaten at their own game.

Out of Sight.

Birds of Passage

Between this and the other side of the broad Atlantic, in the shape of tourists, commercial travelers and mariners, agents "on the road," steamboat captains, ship's surgeons and "all sorts and conditions" of travelers, emigrants and new settlers appreciate and testify to the preventive and remedial properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in sea-sickness, nausea, malarial and rheumatic trouble, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. Against the prejudicial influence of climate, crudely cooked or unaccustomed diet and impure water, it is a sovereign safeguard, and has been so regarded by the traveling public for over a third of a century. No form of malarial fever from the calentura of the Pacific and the broken bone fever of the Mississippi to its milder types, can resist the curative action of this benignant preserver and restorer of health, a veritable boon to persons in feeble health or liable to incur disease.
