

THE WEEK'S BUDGET

What Our Reporter Finds of Interest to Our Readers

THE LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Summary of the Events of the Week For City and Collected Daily—Items of Interest From Everywhere

The patriotic citizens of the county seat have already contributed about $400 towards the celebration of Independence day...

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The Bethel band will give a concert June 17. There is some help for the debots of fortune—Covvey. J. W. Kirkland's new residence is nearing completion.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

It is a well-known fact that the soil is very productive in and about Independence, and nearly every vegetable production is of an average size and abundance...

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

Native Sons of the Golden West of San Francisco throughout the season of 1891, with Haverly's in 1892, and this year with Patulama until he signed with the Independence team.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

Company, by prudent foresight, having had stored in outside warehouses duplicate machinery, labels and supplies of raw materials in preparation for any emergency...

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The first day opened very favorably and the attendance was good. In the three-quarter mile dash, twelve horses starting, the time was 1:17. Strickland's Ruby came out first, Anderson's Shirena second, and Kay's Undine third.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

On Thursday evening last, one pair of eye glasses, owner can have same by calling at the Warrenton office, paying property, and paying for this notice.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe...

There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach...

There is a fine display of tropical fruits in our sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum.

Mrs. McTrow of Monmouth has been visiting her old Perrydale home. Frank Strong and M. L. Ryan are erecting new houses at Perrydale. Coasters are already passing through the county on their way to Neustoca. Do you enjoy a good cigar? Pink Patterson keeps the best brands only. What with the races and four games of ball this week, our town is quite lively. To cover your feet, 'tis hard to beat those socks so neat, for sale at Stockton & Henkle's. An unusually fine display of tropical fruits is now on sale at Pink Patterson's fruit store. A very pleasant party was the one at the home of Miss Patie Cooper last Friday evening. H. B. Tingle announces his intention of building three new residences at Perrydale this summer. The Perrydale A. O. U. W. will request their performance of "A Social Glass" in the near future. A sale of valuable property belonging to the F. W. Murphy estate takes place at Monmouth next Monday. It is rumored all over town that Stockton & Henkle are selling dress goods at very desirable prices. Mrs. Buchanan, of the city restaurant is setting such a good table that she is building up a large trade. R. S. Middleham has his strawberries now in market and their superior excellence brings him ready sale. After the excitement of the day a social game of billiards at Pink Patterson's seems to settle your nerves. Prof. Parker and Miss Nancy Chapman have been retained as teachers for the Ballston school for next year. T. T. Chaney has a broken arm, caused by falling from a scaffold the other day while working on the Dixie mill. Mrs. Ferry and Mrs. Leon, her daughter, in North Independence, desire employment in doing sewing or washing. Mr. Brown is now sole proprietor of the Hotel Holman at Dallas, having bought out the interest of his partner, Mr. Lindsay. A. Wing, now living in Portland, is in town renewing old acquaintances. He still owns a fine farm southwest of town a few miles. The district court meeting of Albany district of the Evangelical church, will be held this day at Waterloo, commencing June 10th. Miss Maggie Macaulay, of Portland, sister of Miss Macarey of this city, is visiting her mother here and will remain a couple of weeks. Preaching at Grace church on Sunday next at 2 p. m. by Rev. W. R. Struble, pastor of the M. E. congregation. Mr. Struble will also preach at Monmouth in the morning. At the Dallas city council Monday evening their formation in regard to the fixing of the salary of the city attorney at $80 per year was rescinded and it was increased to $100 per annum. Divine services next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at the M. E. church. Preaching by Rev. Wallace R. Struble, pastor. Union Sunday school at the old town schoolhouse at 3 p. m., followed by preaching at 4 p. m. by Rev. Struble. It is said that a mining company with a capital stock of $50,000 will soon be organized at Dallas, their intention being to develop rich leads of gold and silver which have been found in the mountains west of that place. There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday in the evening only unless the bell should ring in the morning, as attendance at the Baptist association at Mr. Palestine will cause Rev. J. B. Baldwin to be absent. Young peoples' union as usual. The Terror Engine Co. of Dallas, elected the following officers for the ensuing term, Wednesday night: President, F. A. Stiles; Secretary, R. E. Williams; financial secretary, H. G. Campbell; treasurer, Fred Toner; foreman, Wilson Webb; first assistant, Frank Chapman; second assistant, I. N. Woods. At the residence of Councilman J. J. Williams at Dallas Wednesday morning Miss Hattie Williams was united in marriage with A. J. Rhodes, the traveling salesman for M. Sellers of Portland. The bride looked lovely in white begonia silk with bride's roses. Only near relatives were present.—cor. Statesman. Thomas McNary, who was recently declared a common drunkard in Salem, was on a spree over at Independence yesterday, says the Salem Statesman. Walking into a hotel he put on a coat that he found there and wore it away. It so happened that another person had a claim to the coat and in the afternoon Marshall Wayne Williams of Independence came over to Salem and arrested McNary for burglary and took him back to be dealt with by the Polk county authorities.—Statesman.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged, we understand. The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again. They left about for the capital city. Ladies who fall to have a nice parcel at the races have not seen those fine ones for sale by Stockton & Henkle. They are sure to please the ladies, both on account of price, and also, because they are so stylish. I will govern in the right of one man to govern a nation despotically when I find a man born into the world with boots and spurs and a nation born with saddles on their backs.—Algernon Sidney. Mrs. J. R. N. Bell left for California last week. We understand that if she is pleased with California the Bell family may make their permanent home there. The road to Salem by way of Hall's ferry is now much the best to travel over in going to Salem. Those who go to Salem by the bridge return by the ferry. Commissioner Simpson and county judge Burch were examining the Dixie bridge and the McNary bridge on the Salem road and extensive repairs will be ordered at once. The Schullert Newspaper Syndicate intend to start a new daily newspaper in Portland, Oregon, sometime this month.—National Advertiser, N. Y. Oscar Dickson, son-in-law of J. R. Cooper, of this city, is now spending the summer on his farm near Chelan Falls, Wash. When you jump out of bed in the morning be sure you have one of Cook's rugs to break the force of your fall. Have you seen the new designs of wall paper just received at W. O. Cook's? A whole day laid at once. You need not get hot over anything now for those refrigerators at Cook's will keep you cool all summer. Have you a hammock? If you have not you should go to Cook's at once and buy one or more. Perrydale has a street named Dallas, and another named Salem. Has it an Independence street? She will admire you all the more if you appear in one of Stockton & Henkle's noble suits. Wm. Stirling is running a restaurant out at the race track. You want the latest style in neckwear and you can get it at Stockton & Henkle's. The wife of Mr. Sheldon, of Bethel, has presented him with a son. Rev. D. V. Poling will not preach at Dixie on Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged, we understand. The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again. They left about for the capital city. Ladies who fall to have a nice parcel at the races have not seen those fine ones for sale by Stockton & Henkle. They are sure to please the ladies, both on account of price, and also, because they are so stylish. I will govern in the right of one man to govern a nation despotically when I find a man born into the world with boots and spurs and a nation born with saddles on their backs.—Algernon Sidney. Mrs. J. R. N. Bell left for California last week. We understand that if she is pleased with California the Bell family may make their permanent home there. The road to Salem by way of Hall's ferry is now much the best to travel over in going to Salem. Those who go to Salem by the bridge return by the ferry. Commissioner Simpson and county judge Burch were examining the Dixie bridge and the McNary bridge on the Salem road and extensive repairs will be ordered at once. The Schullert Newspaper Syndicate intend to start a new daily newspaper in Portland, Oregon, sometime this month.—National Advertiser, N. Y. Oscar Dickson, son-in-law of J. R. Cooper, of this city, is now spending the summer on his farm near Chelan Falls, Wash. When you jump out of bed in the morning be sure you have one of Cook's rugs to break the force of your fall. Have you seen the new designs of wall paper just received at W. O. Cook's? A whole day laid at once. You need not get hot over anything now for those refrigerators at Cook's will keep you cool all summer. Have you a hammock? If you have not you should go to Cook's at once and buy one or more. Perrydale has a street named Dallas, and another named Salem. Has it an Independence street? She will admire you all the more if you appear in one of Stockton & Henkle's noble suits. Wm. Stirling is running a restaurant out at the race track. You want the latest style in neckwear and you can get it at Stockton & Henkle's. The wife of Mr. Sheldon, of Bethel, has presented him with a son. Rev. D. V. Poling will not preach at Dixie on Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged, we understand. The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again. They left about for the capital city. Ladies who fall to have a nice parcel at the races have not seen those fine ones for sale by Stockton & Henkle. They are sure to please the ladies, both on account of price, and also, because they are so stylish. I will govern in the right of one man to govern a nation despotically when I find a man born into the world with boots and spurs and a nation born with saddles on their backs.—Algernon Sidney. Mrs. J. R. N. Bell left for California last week. We understand that if she is pleased with California the Bell family may make their permanent home there. The road to Salem by way of Hall's ferry is now much the best to travel over in going to Salem. Those who go to Salem by the bridge return by the ferry. Commissioner Simpson and county judge Burch were examining the Dixie bridge and the McNary bridge on the Salem road and extensive repairs will be ordered at once. The Schullert Newspaper Syndicate intend to start a new daily newspaper in Portland, Oregon, sometime this month.—National Advertiser, N. Y. Oscar Dickson, son-in-law of J. R. Cooper, of this city, is now spending the summer on his farm near Chelan Falls, Wash. When you jump out of bed in the morning be sure you have one of Cook's rugs to break the force of your fall. Have you seen the new designs of wall paper just received at W. O. Cook's? A whole day laid at once. You need not get hot over anything now for those refrigerators at Cook's will keep you cool all summer. Have you a hammock? If you have not you should go to Cook's at once and buy one or more. Perrydale has a street named Dallas, and another named Salem. Has it an Independence street? She will admire you all the more if you appear in one of Stockton & Henkle's noble suits. Wm. Stirling is running a restaurant out at the race track. You want the latest style in neckwear and you can get it at Stockton & Henkle's. The wife of Mr. Sheldon, of Bethel, has presented him with a son. Rev. D. V. Poling will not preach at Dixie on Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged, we understand. The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again. They left about for the capital city. Ladies who fall to have a nice parcel at the races have not seen those fine ones for sale by Stockton & Henkle. They are sure to please the ladies, both on account of price, and also, because they are so stylish. I will govern in the right of one man to govern a nation despotically when I find a man born into the world with boots and spurs and a nation born with saddles on their backs.—Algernon Sidney. Mrs. J. R. N. Bell left for California last week. We understand that if she is pleased with California the Bell family may make their permanent home there. The road to Salem by way of Hall's ferry is now much the best to travel over in going to Salem. Those who go to Salem by the bridge return by the ferry. Commissioner Simpson and county judge Burch were examining the Dixie bridge and the McNary bridge on the Salem road and extensive repairs will be ordered at once. The Schullert Newspaper Syndicate intend to start a new daily newspaper in Portland, Oregon, sometime this month.—National Advertiser, N. Y. Oscar Dickson, son-in-law of J. R. Cooper, of this city, is now spending the summer on his farm near Chelan Falls, Wash. When you jump out of bed in the morning be sure you have one of Cook's rugs to break the force of your fall. Have you seen the new designs of wall paper just received at W. O. Cook's? A whole day laid at once. You need not get hot over anything now for those refrigerators at Cook's will keep you cool all summer. Have you a hammock? If you have not you should go to Cook's at once and buy one or more. Perrydale has a street named Dallas, and another named Salem. Has it an Independence street? She will admire you all the more if you appear in one of Stockton & Henkle's noble suits. Wm. Stirling is running a restaurant out at the race track. You want the latest style in neckwear and you can get it at Stockton & Henkle's. The wife of Mr. Sheldon, of Bethel, has presented him with a son. Rev. D. V. Poling will not preach at Dixie on Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged, we understand. The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again. They left about for the capital city. Ladies who fall to have a nice parcel at the races have not seen those fine ones for sale by Stockton & Henkle. They are sure to please the ladies, both on account of price, and also, because they are so stylish. I will govern in the right of one man to govern a nation despotically when I find a man born into the world with boots and spurs and a nation born with saddles on their backs.—Algernon Sidney. Mrs. J. R. N. Bell left for California last week. We understand that if she is pleased with California the Bell family may make their permanent home there. The road to Salem by way of Hall's ferry is now much the best to travel over in going to Salem. Those who go to Salem by the bridge return by the ferry. Commissioner Simpson and county judge Burch were examining the Dixie bridge and the McNary bridge on the Salem road and extensive repairs will be ordered at once. The Schullert Newspaper Syndicate intend to start a new daily newspaper in Portland, Oregon, sometime this month.—National Advertiser, N. Y. Oscar Dickson, son-in-law of J. R. Cooper, of this city, is now spending the summer on his farm near Chelan Falls, Wash. When you jump out of bed in the morning be sure you have one of Cook's rugs to break the force of your fall. Have you seen the new designs of wall paper just received at W. O. Cook's? A whole day laid at once. You need not get hot over anything now for those refrigerators at Cook's will keep you cool all summer. Have you a hammock? If you have not you should go to Cook's at once and buy one or more. Perrydale has a street named Dallas, and another named Salem. Has it an Independence street? She will admire you all the more if you appear in one of Stockton & Henkle's noble suits. Wm. Stirling is running a restaurant out at the race track. You want the latest style in neckwear and you can get it at Stockton & Henkle's. The wife of Mr. Sheldon, of Bethel, has presented him with a son. Rev. D. V. Poling will not preach at Dixie on Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged, we understand. The residents of Dixie are at last rid of the Holman family, they having given them some money to speed them on their way, and an injunction to never be seen there again. They left about for the capital city. Ladies who fall to have a nice parcel at the races have not seen those fine ones for sale by Stockton & Henkle. They are sure to please the ladies, both on account of price, and also, because they are so stylish. I will govern in the right of one man to govern a nation despotically when I find a man born into the world with boots and spurs and a nation born with saddles on their backs.—Algernon Sidney. Mrs. J. R. N. Bell left for California last week. We understand that if she is pleased with California the Bell family may make their permanent home there. The road to Salem by way of Hall's ferry is now much the best to travel over in going to Salem. Those who go to Salem by the bridge return by the ferry. Commissioner Simpson and county judge Burch were examining the Dixie bridge and the McNary bridge on the Salem road and extensive repairs will be ordered at once. The Schullert Newspaper Syndicate intend to start a new daily newspaper in Portland, Oregon, sometime this month.—National Advertiser, N. Y. Oscar Dickson, son-in-law of J. R. Cooper, of this city, is now spending the summer on his farm near Chelan Falls, Wash. When you jump out of bed in the morning be sure you have one of Cook's rugs to break the force of your fall. Have you seen the new designs of wall paper just received at W. O. Cook's? A whole day laid at once. You need not get hot over anything now for those refrigerators at Cook's will keep you cool all summer. Have you a hammock? If you have not you should go to Cook's at once and buy one or more. Perrydale has a street named Dallas, and another named Salem. Has it an Independence street? She will admire you all the more if you appear in one of Stockton & Henkle's noble suits. Wm. Stirling is running a restaurant out at the race track. You want the latest style in neckwear and you can get it at Stockton & Henkle's. The wife of Mr. Sheldon, of Bethel, has presented him with a son. Rev. D. V. Poling will not preach at Dixie on Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Dallas public school had their closing exercises at the city hall Friday evening. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by James Howe, and Pres. P. L. Campbell, of the state normal, delivered the address. The following were the graduates: Fred Palmer, Herbert Elliott, Willard Elkins, Gifford Lady, Eva Hillard, Newton Gray, Teata Kinnell, Emma Phillips, Ross Ellis, Alice Atkins, Sarah Harris, Minnie Greenwood, Mand Lewis, Vern Seibert, Hugh Black, Ralph Bernberger, Homer Lehman, Lydia Campbell. At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7, 1893, by J. J. Butler, J. P. Mr. James T. Clow and Miss Elizabeth Hyland. The bride and groom are well known in this part of the county, the bride being a daughter of Ex-Commissioner Hyland and the groom a son of Hon. Robert Clow, ex-Portland commissioner. They sail out upon the tide of life under a cloudless sky, and as they drift along with the tide of time, may their journey of happiness be continued until the golden shore is reached.—Junction City Times. There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday evening commencing at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach. Dr. Clapp is a pulpit orator of superior power and eloquence. The following program will be rendered: Songs by congregation, solo by Rev. D. V. Poling, anthem by choir 15 voices, devotion by orchestra, sermon by Dr. Clapp. The public is cordially invited to be present. Tom McNary, who was arrested at Salem Saturday for the larceny of a coat in this city, is now an inmate of our county jail, being bound over in the sum of $150. He is the first one to grace its walls since the last term of court. Not a sound has ever ceased to vibrate through space not a ripple has ever been lost upon the ocean. Much more is it true that not a true thought, nor a pure resolve, nor a loving act, has ever gone forth in vain.—Robertson. A Nelson, president, and M. O. Potter, secretary, deserve much credit for the very able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Polk county fair association this year. Valley lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., of Independence, is now officiated as follows: J. E. Hubbard, N. G.; W. H. Wheeler, V. G.; A. J. Goodman, treasurer, and Fred Doty, secretary. Several gentlemen of this city have agreed to give $100 for the first ticket for passage over the Independence-Salem railroad. J. W. Kirkland and J. R. Co. are among those so pledged,