C. V. MURPHY, Editor.

Obituary notices, resolutions, cards of thanks, programmes of entertainments 5 cents a line, for all over five lines.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1893.

FROM EVERYWHERE.

Every day we read of trusted men going astray because of evil companionships and the use of liquor, both of which tend to deaden their sense of honor and responsibility. No man who goes in bad company or is addicted to frequenting saloons is worthy of employing in a responsible capacity.

Hillsboro has her drawbacks, too. A local paper thus complains: "O those pesky bicycles and electric lights. One can't gently put his arm around his best girl, but what some wheelman rolls along behind to be a witness. It is confusion confounded to be thus interrupted, as was one of our best young men a few evenings ago."

Is there a limit to the age at which a man can make a fool of himself? For some years there has been in the Marion county poor house a worn out old Mexican war soldier named George Young. Four years ago he was given a pension and nearly $3,000 back pay. J. H. McCormick was keeper of the poor house until recently, and when he left Young went with him. He had become very much attached to little Ethel, aged 6 years, and before dying the other day willed her the $3,000 deposited in the Ladd & Bush bank.

The farmer boys around Forest Grove say that the crows are breaking up the nests of China pheasants by eating the eggs whenever they can find the hen pheasant off her nest. War should be declared against the crow.

It is alleged by the life insurance companies that the average length of human life in this country has increased from 41.9 years 25 years ago to 43.9 years at the present time.

Bay City, Tillamook county, has offered $10,000 and a four-acre building site to Superintendent E. K. Barnard, for the purpose of building an academy and commercial college, the building to be completed and ready to receive students as soon as the first Monday in May, 1894.

The new Masonic temple at Corvallis will cost $10,000 and will be three stories in height with a stone front of the pioneer sandstone.

The Cannery at Eugene will put up sweet corn from 100 acres this year. There is a big market for it in Oregon. One firm in Portland alone imports annually 4000 cases, or $6000 worth.

Completely Uprooted.

How many remedies there are which merely relieve without uprooting disease. The contrast with sterling medicines which such palliatives afford, not only enhances the dignity of the former, but serves to emphasize the folly of employing half-way measures when thorough ones are available. A marked instance of this is the effect, on one hand, of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in cases of chills and fevers and bilious remittent, and on the other of ordinary remedies in maladies of this type. By the Bitters, malarial complaint in every stage, and of the most malignant type, are completely conquered and lose their hold upon the system. They are rarely, if ever, dislodged by the ordinary courses of medicine, although symptoms may unquestionably be mitigated through such means. This holds good of Malaria, Malaria, Malaria, nervous debility. By the way, how many

Birds of Passage

Between this and the other side of the broad Atlantic, in the shape of sailors, commercial travelers and mariners, agents "on the road," steamship captains, ship-surgeons and "all sorts and conditions" of travelers, emigrants and new souls appreciate and testify to the preventive and remedial properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in sickness, miasma, malarial and rheumatic trouble, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. Against the prejudicial influence of climate, crudely cooked or unclean-tomed diet and impure water, it is a sovereign safeguard, and has been so regarded by the traveling public for over a third of a century. No man in India, save from the subtlety of the Pacific and the broken bone fever of the Mississippi, to its milder types, can resist the curative action of this benignant preserver and restorer of health, a veritable boon to persons in feeble health or liable to incur disease.

World's Fair Travellers Will Have It.

The public demand through service when travelling. It is old-fashioned to change cars. On the through solid vestibuled trains of the Chicago, Union Pacific and Northwestern line, from or to Chicago, Omaha and intermediate points, there is no change. This is the finest an express road.

Out of Sight.

The traveling public are now fully alive to the fact that the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern Line offers the very best accommodations to the public from and to Chicago, Omaha and intermediate points, not only during the World's fair, but all the year around.
