MONMOUTH'S WEEKLY RECORD.

S. D. PERCIVAL, Editor.

Obituary notices, resolutions, cards of thanks, announcements of entertainments 5 cents a line. No ad over five lines.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1893.

Anyone traveling from most any of our towns or cities, will see, a short distance from town, piles of rubbish, tin cans, old boots, shoes, etc. This is very unsightly and mars the beauty of any country road, besides a horse coming unexpectedly upon a shining tin can is liable to become frightened and a runaway occur in which someone will be injured or their property demolished. We understand that there is a statute prohibiting such a nuisance, and our supervisors should see that this thing is stopped, or an example be made of some person.

WORLD'S FAIR.

After paying four-bits to get inside of Jackson Park enclosure the following little items of expense must be met, that is if you want to see the sights:

For all the attractions in the constantinople street scene—$1.25.

Cairo street scene—50 cents.

Dutch East India village—25 cents.

German village of miedieval times—25 cents.

Natatorium—50 cents.

Eskimo village—25 cents.

Venitian glass factory—25 cents.

Chinese village—25 cents.

Japanese tenhouse—10, 25, and 50 cents

Persian building—50 cents.

Ruins of the Cliffdwellers—25 cents.

Costumed natives of 40 countries—25 cents

Typical Irish village—25 cents.

Model of St. Peter's church—25 cents.

Zoological arena—25 cents to $1.25.

Model Eiffel tower—25 cents.

Whaling bark Progress—25 cents.

Electric sunse theater—25 cents.

Festival hall—$1.

Captive balloon—25 cents to gaze, $2 to soar.

The World's Fair, so called, is proving to be anything but satisfactory. It has never been equalled except by the Niagra Falls and Prospect Park conspiracy. Niagara Falls hackmen are particularly notorious, but there are no motes lingering on Chicago.

OREGON'S FINE DISPLAY OF SALMON.

It is the Feature of the State's Exhibit in the Fisheries Building.

Oregon's display in the Fisheries building was installed recently. Owing to the fact that the fishing laws of Oregon prevented the taking of salmon earlier in the season it was impossible to have the exhibit on hand sooner. The principal figure of the display is a monster bull fur seal weighing 1,500 pounds. This old beauty was captured off the Tillamook coast of Western Oregon, and he sits with head erect as if surveying the towering pyramids of Oregon salmon. There are four of these pyramids, and in their constructions 400 cases of Columbia salmon were used. Surmounting this collection is a full-rigged Columbia river fishing boat, while near it is shown a model fishing wheel. Surrounding the pyramids are shown specimens of salmon and other food fishes of Oregon processed as to retain the natural color of the fish, while suspended from the decorations above are exhibited mounted fish representing the numerous families of the West coast. Another feature of the exhibit will be an eighty-two pound salmon frozen in a cake of ice.

This is the largest salmon ever captured in Oregon waters and it was taken without the loss of a single scale. Additions will be made to the Oregon fisheries exhibit as the season advances. Secretary Irvine of the Oregon World's Fair Commission says several hundred more cases are now on the way, which will add to the completeness and beauty of the fisheries display from the "Webfoot" state.—Chicago Tribune, June 6th.

Completely Uprooted.

How many remedies there are which merely relieve without uprooting disease. The contrast with sterling medicines which such palliatives afford, not only enhances the dignity of the former, but serves to emphasize the folly of employing half-way measures when thorough ones are available. A marked instance of this is the effect, on one hand, of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in cases of chills and fevers and bilious remittent, and on the other of ordinary remedies in maladies of this type. By the Bitters, malarial complaint in every stage, and of the most malignant type, are completely conquered and lose their hold upon the system. They are rarely, if ever, dislodged by the ordinary resources of medicine, although their symtoms may unquestionably be mitigated through such means. The same holds good of indigestion, biliousness, kidney complaint, rheumatism, nervousness and debility. By the Bitters they are cured when many remedies fail.

Mr. Norman Lichty, Des Moines, Ia.
Dear Sir:—A sample of Krause's Headache Capsules was left in my husband's office a few days since, and as I am subject to headaches—neuralgic, nervous, and in fact every other kind—he thoughtfully brought the sample box home. The very next day I had a chance to try them and one capsule relieved me in less than half an hour. Next day I was attacked again, took another capsule with the same delightful result, in less than half an hour my head felt as well as ever, with no bad feeling as the after result.

I have had these terrible headaches for twenty years, and have tried every remedy I have ever heard of, but nothing I have ever taken has cured or relieved me as quickly as Krause's Headache Capsules. MRS. N. A. SKINNER.
