Advertising is to business what steam power is to machinery—the grand motive power.—Maconday.
There is but one way of obtaining business—publicity; but one way of obtaining publicity—advertising.—Blackwood.

If affairs, as at present, continue much longer, we may look for wheat to sell for 35 cents a bushel.
War claims to the amount of $600,000,000, mostly claimed by the South, are in the archives at Washington. Wonder if the coming congress will not seek to put more money in circulation by paying these claims?

Someone recently remarked that you cannot get some people to believe some things until they are starved into believing it. Those people who are clamoring for a double standard of value, both gold and silver, are beginning to see that there is something wrong in the idea.

The death of Senator Stanford was a great shock to his warm personal friends although they knew that his health was bad. Mr. Stanford was hardly a statesman, but he was something rarer and better—a rich man whose heart and pocketbook were always open to his fellow men who had been less successful.

Our Dallas friends certainly cannot complain that Independence and vicinity did not turn out and attend the 4th of July celebration, for the town was depopulated during the day almost. Now then Independence has the fair this fall, and we hope our Dallas friends may join in making it a representative of county affairs.

A great hue and cry is being made about scarcity of money and hard times, and yet no one seems able to point any reason for it, excepting lack of confidence. Lack of confidence in what? Who is at the head of our government now? What party is now in power? What is its past record? Can you point the lack of confidence to any other cause?

Thirteen banks of Portland have agreed not to receive on deposit for the credit of dealers, checks or drafts payable elsewhere than in Portland. All such items will be registered for collection, and credit given only when proceeds are received. This is the outcome of the stringency in the money market. And this action of the banks while it protects them, makes money still tighter.

Tom Bahr, who came from Germany four years ago, is working for John James, seven miles south of Independence, for $30 a month and his board and washing. For the same work in Germany he received three dollars a month, and he says he can live as cheaply here as in Germany. Such men as Mr. Bahr are perfectly contented in America, working at what native Americans consider low wages. He will in a few years have several hundred dollars saved, and American born boys will grumble at, as they call it, paltry wages of a dollar a day and board.

THEIR FOURTH ANNUAL REUNION IS HELD AT DALLAS.
DALLAS, Or., July 4.—Monday and Tuesday have been gala days at Dallas. The Polk County Pioneer Association held its fourth convention here yesterday and the attendance was large. Pioneers who came here as far back as 1843 were present. After spending the day in social reunion, Hon. I. F. M. Butler, of Monmouth, was elected president and Nat Holman, of Dallas, secretary for the ensuing year. The place of the next meeting will be decided by a committee. Today was the celebration of the glorious Fourth.

Ryan was the first to break away from the bunch. He led him by half a length at the quarter, however, with George L. coming up fast. At the three-quarter post Paddy had regained his lead, with Pencil second, Rockland Boy third; coming home Rockland Boy passed the filly and followed Paddy under the wire a length behind. It was an interesting race from beginning to end. The winner was favorite at $40, Pencil $35, Rockland Boy $25, field $17. Mutuels paid $21. The summary was:

Tartar Bros. aged b. h. Paddy Ryan, by Tyson Dudley-Woodberry, 124 pounds, 1:12.
A. M. Allen's aged b. g. Rockland Boy, by Montana-Rockland Maid 119 pounds, 1:13.
Charles J. Burch's 3-year-old b. f. Pencil, by St. Paul—by Jack Naylor, 119 pounds, 1:13.
J. T. Strickland's aged ch. g. East Lynne, by Johnny Moore—by Steamboat Charley, 119 pounds, 1:13.
C. D. Russell's aged ch. h. George L., by Connor-Miss Davis, 124 pounds, 1:13.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The president this evening issued the following proclamation:
WHEREAS, The distrust and apprehension concerning the financial situation, which prevails all business circles have already caused great loss and damage to our people, and threaten to cripple our merchants, stop the wheels of manufacture and bring distress and privation to our farmers and withhold from our workmen the wage of labor, and
WHEREAS, The present perilous condition is largely the result of a financial policy, which the executive branch of the government finds embodied in unwise laws which must be executed until repealed by congress.
Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, in performance of a constitutional duty, do, by this proclamation, declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the convening of both houses of the congress of the United States, at the capitol, at the city of Washington, the 7th day of August next, at 12 o'clock noon, to the end that the people may be relieved through legislation from the present impending danger and distress. All those entitled to act as members of the 53d congress are required to take notice of this proclamation and attend at the time and place above stated. Given under my hand and the seal of the United States, etc.

The president had left directions for the issuance of this proclamation before his departure for Gray Gables. The determination to call the extra session the first week in August, instead of the first week in September, it is understood, was only definitely arrived at at this morning's cabinet session, after giving full weight to the numerous telegrams received from all parts of the country urging this course. Most of the cabinet officers have followed the president's example and left the city for brief vacations. Those who remain say the president's proclamation speaks for itself, and decline to discuss the situation further.

BOB MILLER PLACED.
He is appointed Receiver of the Land Office at Oregon City.
WASHINGTON, June 30.—At last the labor for the democracy of Colonel Robert A. Miller has been rewarded. He is made receiver of the Oregon City land office, succeeding John T. Apperson, who was appointed May 27, 1893. Colonel Miller left New York yesterday morning for home, very despondent and almost cast down because his appointment had not come. The place is worth $3000 a year, and is much less important than minister to Turkey, which Miller became a candidate for when he first arrived in Washington, about three months ago. The administration seems to be dividing the appointments among the various factions in Oregon and trying to give the leader of each something. Murphy's man, Wilson, was appointed at La Grande, although Murphy's enemies were sure he would not be. Miller's appointment is anything but a Murphy move, as they were very antagonistic during the latter portion of their stay in Washington.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS
Important Happenings of the Week.
A FORGER'S REMOISE.
He Confesses a Crime which an Innocent Man Served a Term in Prison For.
St. Louis, July 1.—This afternoon a man giving the name of Louis Trowbridge walked into the office of Chief Harrison and asked to be arrested. He is a self-confessed forger and has been free for eight years while another man has been suffering for the crime. Eight years ago Trowbridge, then a San Francisco lumber merchant, forged a note for $1,000, using the name of Warren Jones, a banker at Eureka, Cal. He got money on the note from James Harmon. Harmon was arrested and convicted and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary. Strickland with remorse, Trowbridge today gave himself up.

CUT HIS THROAT.
Corvallis, Or., July 4.—E. C. Bernhard, the man who attempted to suicide and who mysteriously disappeared in Portland last Saturday, arrived in this city this afternoon. He came on foot and claims to have walked the distance. There is an ugly wound three inches long and one and one-half inches deep across his throat just above the larynx, which is exposed. His condition is not dangerous.

SURVIVORS REACH ENGLAND.
Malta, June 30.—The British cruisers Edgar and Phaeton, of the Mediterranean squadron, have arrived with the survivors of the battleship Victoria, sunk in collision with the Campden off Tripoli, Syria. Great crowds gathered along the water front. Hundreds went out in boats to meet them. The survivors were greeted with cheers as the vessels passed to anchor.

REDUCTION IN POSTAGE RATES.
Halifax, N. S., June 30.—The postage rates between Canada and Newfoundland, the only portion of British North America outside the Dominion, has hitherto been 5 cents per half ounce. After July 1st, the rate on letters will be 3 cents, and newspapers mailed from the office of publication will be transmitted free.

MEXICAN MINES SHUTTING DOWN.
El Paso, Tex., June 30.—The drop in the price of silver has brought down the price of the Mexican peso to fifty cents, and has cut down the Mexican trade with local wholesalers more than one-half. Many firms have received telegrams cancelling orders. The Mexican silver mines are shutting down.

DEMAND AN APOLOGY.
Chicago, June 30.—The foreign commissioners today at the World's fair held a meeting and after discussing the arrest of Dr. Haecker, the commissioner from Paraguay by a Columbian guard several days ago, wrote a letter to Director-General Davis demanding that the exposition company make a suitable apology.

THE DALTON GANG.
Wichita, Kan., June 30.—The highwayman who attempted to rob the Santa Fe train yesterday morning is now in jail here. He is a boy only 18. He says the Dalton gang, headed by Bill Dalton, forced him to stop the train under penalty of death. They told him to stop the train near Blackburn creek June 30 and they would do the rest. He mistook the day. The officers have gone to the scene in hopes of capturing the gang.

THROWN FROM A HORSE.
The Dallas, Or., June 30.—Last night as Johnny, a 7-year-old son of Angus Campbell, of Hartland, was returning home from school on a pony, an older boy, also on a horse, proposed a race. Johnny consented, but after running some distance lost control of his horse, which shied, throwing him to the ground. He struck on the back of his head and was instantly killed.

OREGON CITY, July 4.—An otherwise pleasant and uneventful Fourth culminated in a serious and fatal accident at Clackamas river two miles north of this city at 8:45 o'clock tonight, when M. P. Bradley's team became frightened and ran away, throwing the wagon containing himself, his wife and four children over a rocky precipice forty feet high. As the wagon was going over he jumped and caught upon the verge of the precipice but the rest were all more or less seriously injured. Mrs. Bradley struck upon the rocks at the bottom tearing the scalp loose from the top of her head. Her body rolled into the water and was found after an hour's search a hundred yards down stream dead. The baby, eighteen months old, was brought up unconscious and seriously hurt and the oldest, a boy 10 years of age, sustained a concussion of the brain and he is in a critical condition. The other two children escaped with serious but not fatal bruises, while Mr. Bradley himself has no serious injuries.

Pioneer Day at Dallas.
Dallas was in gala day attire Monday. The streets were lined with fir trees and houses gaily ornamented with bunting of great variety of designs.
The train from Albia and Monmouth came in crowded, and a representative of this paper, just to pass the time, went through the car and interviewed every passenger to find whether they were pioneers or had parents who were pioneers. The following is the result:
Miss Ella Fisher and sister Mrs. S. A. Mitchell, daughters of C. G. Fisher, '52.
Mrs. J. E. Hale and sister, Mrs. H. J. Butler, daughters of A. E. Thorp, '41.
