SETTING EVEN WITH A LOT OF MEN.

Show a Clever Young Woman Chastised Some Careless Scoundrels.

It was one of those delightful Chicago spring days. The rain poured down with an enthusiastic vigor which never abated a drop, although there had been a steady downpour for the last 24 hours.

A group of men had congregated on Randolph street near a certain alley for no other purpose, it seemed, than to watch the feminine pedestrians go by.

A slender young woman came tripping down the street, her blond tresses snugly robed under a little tarpaulin sailor hat.

The group of men waited expectantly with a glad smile on their faces as if they were about to witness an amazonian march.

Suddenly she espied another girl coming down the sidewalk, all unconscious of her doom.

"Of course I couldn't tell the woman on the other side of the street how to close their umbrellas and draw their garments closely about them," she said later when recalling her adventure.

"Many villages in all parts of the United States have taken the names of the roadside inns about which they have grown up, but it is perhaps only in conservative southern Virginia that the 'colonial' for entertainment of those who have given names to villages.

Swinging Around The Circle. One of the diseases to which it is adapted with the best results, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a family medicine, comprehensive in its scope, has never been thrust upon public attention in the guise of a universal panacea for bodily ills.

"In a literary and artistic sense, THE COSMOPOLITAN is one of the most perfect productions of its kind published on either side of the Atlantic; says the Irish Times, of Dublin.

The Confederate White House. "The Confederate White House" has been doing duty as a public school for many years.

An Instance of Sublime Bravery. Corporal Tanner says that while he and many others lay maimed and bleeding on the field after the second Bull Run fight a mortally wounded comrade lay near them listening to the piteous cries for water.
