

MONMOUTH WEEKLY RECORD.

S. D. PERCIVAL, Editor.

Published every Friday, except on legal holidays, at the rate of $1.00 per copy in advance.

FRIDAY, OCT. 20, 1901.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

Our public school is progressing nicely. F. Anstine is on the sick list this week. Miss Carrie Halsey, who has been quite ill with fever, is improving.

Miss Evangeline Watson arrived in the city Monday, and will attend the Normal. Miss Fanny Ayres took a flying trip to Portland and the exposition last week.

Miss Alice Walker, of Portland, is in town and will spend several weeks with her sister Mrs. Dr. Finer. Miss Mary Coats is teaching the primary grade at the public school during the absence of Miss Swann.

The Motor company will discontinue their last trip in the evening during the winter, commencing November 1st. John Inlow took a business trip to Portland last week, and Ernest Talon is catering to the wants of his customers.

Thompson Hunter, and the Misses Byron and Ida Holland addressed the students Wednesday morning in chapel. Miss Mary Church, daughter of B. Church, was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday while at school, but is about all right again.

Mr. Art Armstrong occupied the pulpit of the Christian church last Sunday morning and evening. There was one conversion in the evening. Next Sunday afternoon at 2:30, President J. M. Bloss, of the Corvallis Agricultural College, will deliver a lecture to the students of the Normal and as many others as wish to attend.

We spent a short time at the public school last Wednesday and found the school progressing quite well, and the students taking a good interest in their work. The attendance in the different rooms at present is as follows: Grammar grade, B. L. Murphy, principal, 18; intermediate grade, F. Long teacher, 29; second primary, Miss Maggie Riddell, teacher, 39; first primary, L. L. Swann teacher, 35, making a total of 121 scholars.

MARRIED. SMITH-SWANN.—At the residence of the bride's parents at Crawfordville, Linn county, on October 18, '01, Miss Bonnie Swann was united in marriage to Mr. Wright Smith, of Lewisville. The bride is well known in this county, having taught in the public school of this place and at Dallas. The groom is one of the solid farmers of near Lewisville, and well thought of in this part of the county.

Literary Note For October. Marion Crawford opens up a new line of thought in his article entitled "Rome, the Capital of a New Republic," appearing in the October Cosmopolitan. It is not likely that the October number will have the success which attended that for September. The extraordinary spectacle was presented of a 12 cent magazine selling for 50 and 75 cents, and many hundreds were even sold at $1.00 each. Probably the record remains without a parallel, in periodical sales, of a number proving so interesting that, after 211,000 copies had been sold, the News Company had orders for 50,000 more than they could supply, while dealers in various parts of the country, discovering the esteem in which the magazine was held, immediately raise their prices to double, treble, quadruple and in many cases to eight times the regular price. The publishers do not yet know what their circulation is, owing to the limited capacity of their presses; but machinery being put in place which will supply an edition for December exceeding 300,000, and during that month it will be possible to determine just how many Cosmopolitans the public will buy.

Omaha, Neb., May 5, 1891. I have tried a great many remedies for headache, and Krause's Headache Capsules knock it quicker than anything I ever tried. D. W. McVea. For sale by Shelley, Alexander & Co.

A Young Writer's Mistake. She was a young newspaper woman, and one day early in her career in a certain newspaper office in this city she brought in some copy for the Sunday issue. It was late for use in the department where her work appeared, and it was remarked to her that it would have to wait over. She was anxious it should go in for some reason and urged it a little. "There isn't anybody up stairs now to set it up," she was told, "and, besides, that page is all made up."

This was rather vague to her, except that a typesetter was needed. She hesitated; then a bright thought struck her. She turned away, and the man to whom she had been talking thought no more of the matter. In about an hour she came back with a couple of proofs of her copy. She had taken it down to a little job printing office she recalled having seen in her traveling about the neighborhood, had it set up and a couple of copies run off, and these she brought proudly back to the editor, thinking that she had successfully overcome all obstacles to its immediate use.

It is not recorded what the editor said.—New York Times. Antenna, Fight If They Can't Run. The fighting propensities of some species of our dumb fellow creatures has been developed by their unwieldiness and the consequent difficulty of escaping the pursuit of their enemies, and the naturalist Linnaeus called attention to the suggestive circumstance that "short legged monkeys are braver than the long legged ones." That Paleolithic motive of valor makes the East Indian rhesus ape fight like a bulldog and partly explains the courage of sluggish brunn and some of his fellow relatives.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Of Interest to Sportsmen. Mr. W. H. Hurlburt, A. G. P. A., Union Pacific system, Portland, Oregon, has just received a supply of books called "Gun Club Rules and Revised Game Laws." This publication contains a digest of the laws relating to game in the Western states and territories. Mr. Hurlburt will be glad to mail you one of these books upon receipt of two stamps to cover postage. W. H. HURLBURT, A. G. P. A., Portland, Oregon.

"In a literary and artistic sense, THE COSMOPOLITAN is one of the most perfect productions of its kind published on either side of the Atlantic; says the Irish Times of Dublin. Extending over 128 pages of beautifully printed and illustrated matter, every single item of which will be perused and studied with interest, the magazine may be regarded as perfectly unique, and one wonders how so magnificent a work can be produced at a cost of twenty-five cents, or a shilling. Cosmopolitan and West Side together for $3 a year.

Down Go The Rates! The Union Pacific now lead with reduced rates to eastern points, and their through car arrangements, magnificently equipped Pullman and Tourist sleepers, free reclining chair car and fast time, makes it the best line to travel. Two trains leave from Portland daily at 8:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. There are now within reach of all, and everybody should take advantage of them to visit the World's Fair and their friends in the east. Send for rates and schedules of trains, and do not purchase tickets until after consulting M. O. Potter, Independence, or W. H. Hurlburt, Asst. Gen'l Pass. Agent, U. P. Portland Oregon.

Purely out of curiosity, we have counted the illustrations, some of them full page, in the current issue of THE COSMOPOLITAN; says the Methodist Record of London England. They numbered 129; but if there were none the literary character of the magazine would amply justify its immense circulation. Some of the best known names in American literature appear in the list each month, besides English writers of such names, for example, as Sir Edwin Arnold. From every point of view, we regard the magazine as unique. You can get the Cosmopolitan and the West Side for $3 a year.

Among Live Business Men. L. D. Jones, the barber, is always ready to serve "the next." Otho Williams, the Dallas tailor, is an expert cutter, and insures his work to be first-class. When you want to settle down to live, buy a lot or buy a farm through J. H. Moran, the dealer. Chas. N. Woods, the shoemaker, will tell you a little secret about shoes if you will ask him.

The Polk Co. Bank is ably presided over by J. H. Hawley president, and Ira C. Powell as cashier. Dr. J. M. Crowley has his office at his residence on Main street near College.

Dr. D. M. Doty, the dentist, resides in Monmouth, and is a permanent fixture. Call at his office when in need of work. Frazer & Son, the hardware men, are also dealers in agricultural machinery, and have their warehouse full of farming implements.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE partnership heretofore existing between Ground & Frazer has been dissolved by mutual consent, and that all notes and accounts due said firm are payable to L. B. The Fountain Head of Strength. When we recollect that the stomach is the grand laboratory in which food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood, that it is, in short, the fountain head of strength, it is essential to keep this important supplying machine in order, and to restore it to activity when it becomes inactive. This Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does most effectively, seasonably, regulating and reinforcing digestion, promoting due action of the liver and bowels. Strength and quietude of the nerves depend in great measure upon thorough digestion. There is no nervous tonic more highly esteemed by the medical fraternity than the Bitters. Physicians also strongly commend it for chills and fever, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, sick headache, and want of appetite and sleep. Take a wineglassful three times a day.
