"Nothing succeeds like success," and nothing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood purifier. It stands upon its own merit and never fails to give satisfaction.

J. Q. Barnes, of the New York Racket store, Salem, and his son-in-law, J. D. Mills, were in town Tuesday looking over this part of Polk county. Mr. Mills is thinking of locating in Independence. We bid him welcome.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.

W. M. Mix, who lives three miles northwest of Independence, was in town on Wednesday. He has finished sowing four hundred acres of summer fallow, and is now plowing 340 acres more for next year's crop. He seems to be not discouraged at this year's prices of grain.

There will be held at Lewisville on the evening of Friday, the 17th, quite a unique entertainment in the way of a basket social, at which, among other features will be the auction of a memorial quilt, upon which is embroidered over five hundred names. Everybody cordially invited.

On Friday evening a reception will be held at the Baptist church to welcome Rev. J. Fred Jenkins and wife, who arrived from California Thursday. There will be addresses by J. W. Masterson, on behalf of the church; P. W. Haley, on behalf of the Sunday school, and E. C. Pentland, on behalf of the Young Peoples' Union, and a response by the pastor. Introductions to the new pastor and his wife will then be given to all those present. The public is invited.

The elegant little river steamer Altona commenced making regular trips to Independence this week, leaving here every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at six o'clock. The fare is only $1.50 to Portland, and meals twenty-five cents each. The Altona arrives in Portland at 1:30 to 2 o'clock, making a stop only at Salem and Oregon City. Our people should make it a point to patronize this steamboat as it will be a great convenience to have it on the route. The boat is elegantly fitted and will carry 250 passengers. Seats are arranged on deck like they are on a railroad train. There are no berths on board, hence so much more capacity. You will find the officers very gentlemanly and courteous. She leaves Portland at six o'clock in the morning and arrives at Independence at five o'clock the same day.

When men stop climbing they begin to fall.

A prize every evening at Clodfelter Bros.

If you haven't got much, be thankful and you will double it.

J. H. Goodman, of Eugene, is visiting his son here, A. J. Goodman.

A hungry man never calls for cake. What he wants is bread.

Rev. J. N. Smith, of Monmouth, went to McMinnville this week.

A woman sometimes says more in a look than a man can do in a book.

A thing that was bitter to endure may be sweet to remember.

Miller & Patterson carry Buckingham & Hecht's celebrated line of heavy boots and shoes.

J. S. Cooper, the banker, was called to Portland on business last Monday.

T. A. Wells, a brother of Mrs. W. P. Connaway, left for his home in California Tuesday.

Don't shiver with cold but buy a cloak at Rosendorf & Hirschberg's at actual New York's cost.

Wm. Hart, in North Independence, is gradually growing weaker, although he does not suffer any pain.

Remember that you can buy school supplies, such as slates, pencils, blank-books, etc., at the Bijos.

If you cannot find what you want in foot wear, Miller & Patterson will order it for you without extra charge.

F. A. Patterson spent several days last week at the bedside of his sick mother at Hillsboro, who has been very low.

I. P. Mayes, the sick Old Fellow, was sent by that order to Texas this week, to try and get to his relatives and a dryer climate.

Geo. Shinn, who has been in business here as a house and sign painter for several years, leaves next week for Portland, having sold his business to M. D. Scott.

They had an election of officers in the North Independence Sunday school last Sunday, and Mr. Stanwood is still superintendent and Mr. Griffin secretary.

In the clothing business J. M. Vanduyen leads the procession, and he has 100 suits of boys' clothes left which he is getting rid of at ridiculously low prices.

A good many speculators in wool this year got worried; but you can get worsted goods at Vanduyen's without being worried. See? He takes the lead in low prices.

Rings for engagements, rings for weddings, rings for the baby, rings for friends, rings for nuptials, rings for everybody, all styles, sizes and prices at Patterson Bros.

W. H. Hawley, cashier of the First National bank, has returned from his visit East and to the World's Fair. He says he saw so much he cannot begin to tell it all.

Don't miss your train or your appointments, because you have a poor timekeeper, or none at all, when you can get a clock or a watch so cheap at Patterson Bros.

If you did not, or can not, get a political plum from Washington, content yourself with some of the delicious tropical fruits which P. C. Patterson has so temptingly displayed. Have you tried the California grapes?

Make your wife a Christmas present of one of those lots in Damon's addition. You can pay for it after next harvest, or by that time sell it at a handsome advance.

According to a circular received from the Southern Pacific folks the fare to San Francisco and return, during the Mid-winter fair will be $27.50, including five entrances to the fair. This special ticket is good for ten days only.

Messrs. McEcheran & Sandercock, the grocers, have made arrangements to sell all the turkeys, chickens, etc., that will be needed in Independence, and also ship to Portland besides. Leave your orders for a turkey now. They are cheap.

Wash Norton and his Merry Makers are at the opera house this week. They were unfortunate on Wednesday evening in having no pianist on account of Mrs. Evans being sick, but the performance passed off with but slight delays. The aerial suspension is a very pretty piece of work. The admission is only 15 and 25 cents.

Sheriff Wells came over Tuesday and arrested Charles Blanchard, aged twelve years, who was taken to Dallas and will be tried there on the grounds of general depravity. It is probable he will be sent to the reform school at Salem this time—this being the third arrest. There are other boys in Independence who will be treated in the same way if they are not careful.

Fred Kelly and Sherman Cooper, two seven year old boys, were sunfiling and wrestling on the school grounds on Tuesday and Sherman, son of Curtis Cooper, fell in such a way as to double his left arm under his body and it was broken between the elbow and wrist. No blame is to be attached to anyone as they were simply playing together as children often do. Dr. Ketchum set the broken arm and he is getting along nicely.

If two turkeys should be brought to the editorial sanctum, one for Nov. 23 and the other for Nov. 30, we should be very much tempted to consume both of them. Since however, it is improbable that such will be the case, we intend helping Cleveland celebrate. Governor Pennoyer, three years ago never once mentioned God in his proclamation, and this year he calls on God to punish his political enemy Cleveland. Politics and thanksgiving do not belong together. We believe in disunion of church and state.

The Eugene Flouring mills were burned this week.

The next Polk county teachers meeting is at Independence.

Strange to say, since the repeal of the Sherman act, silver has taken an upward tendency.

Owing to the absence of the Congregational church in Astoria, there will be no services there next Sunday.

You should see Wash Norton in his lightning change of costume at the opera house.

E. Anderson, of R. M. Wade & Co. went to Portland Thursday to spend a week.

The Chicago Clothing Store flings its banner to the breeze this week. Its location is C street, Independence.

The stockholders of the Independence Building & Loan Association hold a meeting Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

The republicans are growing fat over the democratic successes (?) in governing the country and giving us better times.

M. Nichols, of Roland, Linn county, came in on Thursday's train, and says he has come to Polk to get something to eat. He does not look at all starved.

R. D. Cooper near Independence, raised 31,457 pounds of hops on twelve acres of land, or an average of 2621 pounds to the acre. This is a profit of $202 an acre, at 18c a pound.

Polk county should be governed by her people instead of delegating it to three or four men at the county seat.

It looks as though the abstractors and map makers will cost this county more than our county roads pretty soon.

He goes to Shanghai, thence several hundred miles up the Yangtze River, and settle in the province of Szechuen which with an area equal to two Oregon's, contains 22,000,000 people. The Christian religion has never been taught there, it being in the western part of the empire.

The Reason Why.

On the front page of this paper we have a business directory of Independence. That it costs us something to run such an amount of advertising is not disputed, but we hope to so benefit the town that we may be reimbursed for the outlay. To those advertisers who regularly patronize the paper we insert their names in the directory under any one heading they may choose, free. To others we make a very small charge. If there are any firms which do not consider it worth their while to allow their names to appear as doing business here, we leave the name out but leave a space blank for them. We intend mailing a paper once each month to each wholesale house in Portland and later may extend the list to San Francisco houses doing business here. Each copy will be marked, calling attention to the directory. It will be the means of keeping every wholesale dealer fully posted regarding the live merchants of Independence, and serve to call their attention to our town and many a circular and price list will be received through the mails directed to our business men on account of the list. The West Side is called for nearly every week by persons desiring it for gaining information about Polk county, and generally we are called upon to furnish it free. We are also asked to write letters describing the town and country. A list of business men, such as we intend furnishing, will answer many a question better than a letter. Someone will see that we have no brewery, no ice works, no soda works, etc., and maybe will locate here. It is not an elaborate method of calling attention to our wants but we believe it will be an effective one. We hope our business men will assist us in making it a full index to the business firms of the town.

Teachers' Meeting.

The Polk county Teachers Association met in the public school building at Dallas, Oct. 29. While awaiting the arrival of other teachers, Supt. Hutchinson took up the subject of the county grade work. The following officers were then elected: President, W. I. Reynolds; vice president, J. N. Hart; secretary, Mary Collins. President W. I. Reynolds was called on for a speech and responded heartily. He then appointed as committee on program, Prof. C. A. Hitchcock, Miss Hattie Mulkey and Miss Alice Savage. After singing several songs the Association was dismissed until 1:30 p. m.

Far and Wide

Not on this broad continent alone, but in malarial breeding tropical regions, in Guatemala, Mexico, South America, the Isthmus of Panama, and elsewhere, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters affords to invalids and sojourners protection against malaria. The miner the freshly arrived immigrant, the tiller of the virgin soil newly robbed of its forests by the axe of the pioneer, find in the superb antifebrile specific preserver against the poisonous miasma which in vast districts rich in natural resources, is yet fertile in disease. It annihilates disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, fortifies those who use it against rheumatic ailments bred and fostered by outdoor exposure: infuses genial warmth into a frame chilled by a rigorous temperature, and robs of their power to harm morning and evening mists and vapors laden with hurtfulness; strengthens the weak and conquers ineffectual kidney trouble.

FOR SALE.

Thorough-bred Pekin Ducks, large size, and splendid condition. Prices reasonable. Address, E. Dalton, Independence.

FOR SALE.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY HEAD OF stock sheep in good condition. Address Mrs. W. J. Jones, Independence, or call at West Side office.

Clodfelter, under the firm name of Wheeler & Clodfelter, at Independence, Polk county, Oregon, has been and is this day dissolved by mutual consent of the parties. L. C. Clodfelter, having purchased the interest of W. H. Wheeler who retires therefrom.

The business will hereafter be carried on by Clodfelter Bros., who hereby assume all partnership debts and who alone are authorized to collect and receive for all debts due the late firm.

L. C. CLODFELTER, W. H. WHEELER, Independence, Or., Oct. 18, 1883.

CARING FOR CLOTHES.

If One is Careful in Brushing Them, They Will Always Look Neat.

"In taking care of clothes I think the all important thing is to brush them carefully and frequently," says a well dressed man. "They should be brushed every night without fail and not with a whisk broom.

"Whisk brooms simply ruin clothes. You should have a good bristle brush, not too stiff. Then brush as often and as much as you like, and your clothes will look the better and wear better for it.

"I have passed through the period of limited means with which to purchase clothing and therefore know what economy in this sense means. Yet I always managed to dress well.

THE hard times have had their effect on the elections in the East, and New York, Ohio, Iowa and New Jersey are republican by large majorities. Wm. McKinley has been elected governor of Ohio by 100,000 plurality. The republican principles of protection, as against Neal's free trade plank in the Democratic platform, has been voted upon. We do not want free trade and the democrats dare not pass a free trade bill in congress.

VINDEX.

Use Mexican Silver Stove Polish, at J. F. O'Donnell's.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to return my sincere thanks to the good people of Independence who so kindly ministered to me during my sickness. I. P. MAYES.

Another Candidate.

The West Side invited names to be sent to that journal as candidates for governor of Oregon at the coming election. As the invitation did not preclude any citizen of the state, we have a right to consider ourselves invited, and not to be outmatched in courtesy, we name E. C. Pentland, of Independence, Polk county, Oregon—Florence West.

Hon. Alley will please accept our thanks for the delicate compliment. If he will consent to act as our campaign manager, for we know him to be able, and then as our private secretary after election, for his advice is worth something, we will consider the nomination. Governor Pennoyer has advertised Oregon over the whole world, and his advisor behind-the-throne is his secretary, Mr. Munley. Oregon does not want her next governor to simply "saw wood," but do something more starting than that.

I brushed my clothes every night, hung up two pages instead of one, folded the trousers in three, the vest in two, and laid the trousers on the chair and the vest on the trousers.

"I do pretty much the same as present. When I take off a pair of trousers, I stretch them a bit with my hands after folding them once with the crease in front and then lay them out full length on the shelf, or perhaps I fold them in three and lay them on the chair.

"I turn the coats inside out when I lay them away—the sleeves of course; I let them hang straight inside and fold the coat once.

"Coats that I wear frequently I keep hanging on a wire frame. I do the same with the dress suit, though the trousers of the dress suit I lay out full length, with the crease in the front.

"A man can by taking a little care of his clothes dress well, though he is not in independent circumstances financially. But after all the great thing is in wearing clean linen and having the shoes polished. The finest clothes in the world won't make a man look well if his collar or cuffs are soiled.

"On the other hand, if the linen is clean and fresh; if the clothes are well brushed, and if there is a flower in the button hole, one always looks presentable.

"No, I don't have my clothes pressed by the tailor; not often, at least. I think it is the dude that does that most, or perhaps the man who only has two suits and wants to appear something that he is not. Such a man will be found sending his clothes to the presser every other day.
