

MONMOUTH WEEKLY RECORD.

FRIDAY, DEC. 1, 1893.

LOCAL JOUININGS.

Rain, Rain! RAIN!! RAIN!!! Our people celebrated Cleveland's Thanksgiving yesterday.

Gene Noble returned to his home in Umatilla county Monday.

L. D. Jones went to Salem on business Monday and returned Tuesday.

Miss Joe Daly, of Astoria, a student of last year, re-entered the Normal this week.

Chris Sanford, son of Mrs. Samuel Kramer, arrived in town from Waltsburg, Tuesday.

Miss Wilder Campbell, who is attending the Normal, visited at her home in Eugene last week.

F. Anstine purchased the interest of J. H. Inlow in the Elite here and will hereafter continue the business.

On account of the inclemency of the weather yesterday (Thursday) the Normal football team did not go to play at Corvallis.

Mr. Fowler, of Lewisville, was visiting at J. L. Murphy's last Sunday, and in the evening entertained some young people with some nice music.

Quite a number of our pedagogues attended the teachers' association at Independence last Saturday. The next meeting will be held in this city on the first Saturday in December.

All the little swales around here are running out of their banks this week. The Luckiamute and LaCreole will give the loggers a chance to send down the logs during the high water.

Last Friday being the end of the first term of the four societies at the Normal gave an open session and social in the evening. A very entertaining programme was rendered, and among the productions of special interest was the paper by Miss Parker, which was brimful of humor; also the duet by Mrs. Spillman and Miss Ayres, which received much applause. After the literary exercises came the social during which all enjoyed themselves with playing games, singing, etc.

A Herald of the Infant Year. Clip the last thirty years or more from the century, and the segment will represent the term of the unbounded popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

The opening of the year 1894 will be signalled by the appearance of a fresh Almanac of the Bitters, in which the uses, derivation and action of this world-famous medicine will be lucidly set forth. Everybody should read it. The calendar and astronomical calculations to be found in this brochure are always astonishingly accurate and the statistics, illustrations, humor and other reading matter rich in interest and full of profit. The Hostetter company, of Pittsburg, Pa., publish it themselves. They employ more than sixty hands in the mechanical work, and more than eleven months in the year are consumed in its preparation. It can be obtained without cost, of all druggists and country dealers, and is printed in English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, and Bohemian.

Use Mexican Silver Stove Polish, at J. F. O'Donnell's.

The Pope of Rome is Dying. LONDON, Nov. 25.—There have been a number of false alarms from the Vatican during the last few years, but this time preparations are being seriously made for the election of a new pope. While still able to get about and take part sparingly in his public functions Leo XIII. has visibly fallen into a stage of a senile decay, which his physicians do not believe can last till March. His hold on life, at best, is a matter of months.

When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, of Luray, Russell county, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his little boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's cough remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy. For sale by all dealers.

For pity's sake, don't growl and grumble because you are troubled with indigestion. No good was ever effected by snarling and fretting. Be a man (unless you happen to be a woman), and take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which will relieve you, whether man or woman.

A PUZZLE IN PRONUNCIATION. Students at Monmouth are Asked to Solve It.

The following rather curious piece of composition was recently placed upon the blackboard at a teachers' institute in Vermont and a prize of a Webster's dictionary offered to any person who could read it and pronounce every word correctly. The book was not carried off, as twelve was the lowest number of mistakes in pronunciation made: "A sacrilegious son of Bialla who has suffered from bronchitis, having exhausted his finances, in order to make good the deficit resolved to ally himself to a comely lenient and docile young lady of the Malay or Caucasian race. He accordingly purchased a calico and coral necklace of a chameleon hue, and securing a suite of rooms at a principal hotel, he engaged the head waiter as his coadjutor. He then dispatched a letter of the most unexceptional calligraphy extent, inviting the young lady to a matinee. She revolted at the idea; refused to consider herself sacrificable to his desires, and sent a polite note of refusal, on receiving which he procured a carbine and bowie knife, said that he would not now forge fetters hymeneal with the queen, went to an isolated spot, severed his jugular vein and discharged the contents of the carbine into his abdomen. The debris were removed by the coroner."
