THAT INJUNCTION.

The Pendleton East Oregonian

The branch asylum which was to be erected in the Grand Ronde valley has been enjoined by Polk county people across the river from Salem. Ever since the legislature provided for building the branch asylum in Eastern Oregon there have been threats of this injunct to save anything, but if he does not ion. It will delay the building of the asylum and may be the means of preventing its construction alto-

Salem people are accused of being at the bottom of these injunct ion proceedings, but those familiar with the condition of affairs know differently. Salem cannot afford to be so impolitie as to take such a against Salem at the present time, Eastern Oregon.

A democrat in Independence, who depends on his labor for a living, says he has not had any work or address F. Ward, 204 Front street, since hop-picking time, and then at San Francisco. 25 per cent less wages than formerly. The only question is will he still vote the democratic ticket, or will he use his vote to return prosperity?

The republican party should allow no side issues to cause it to leave for one moment its unswerv ing devotion to the cause of protec tion.

What is congress doing? asks a reader. Congress is doing nothing Bedroom Sets, and seem to be incapable of know ing what to do.

FREE TRADE WAGES.

Very many men in these United States do not realize that there is a vast difference in the wages here and in other countries. In fact they cannot be made to believe that a laborer could live on much less than they are receiving, and board themselves. To serve as a comparison let us take a few lines INDEPENDENCE, - OREGON. of labor and make a comparison.
