

MONMOUTH WEEKLY RECORD. FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1894.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

We have had full-fledged March weather during the past two weeks. This fine weather has brought tennis sets at the Normal into use.

Misses Rilla McCulloch, Grace Jones and Mr. Kirby of the Normal class of '93, are visiting former schoolmates this week.

President P. L. Campbell took a trip to the State University last Friday.

Henry Key of Perrydale, is visiting the family of his aunt Mrs. G. T. Waller.

V. O. Boots who had a severe siege of sickness, is again able to be on the street.

There will be a lecture at the Christian church next Sunday evening at 7:30.

Cyrus Jones of Perrydale, was doing business in this city last Friday and Saturday.

About fifty-five of our young people attended church at Independence last Sunday evening.

There will be preaching services at the Christian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. conducted by T. S. Hansaker.

Byron Hunter went to McMinnville this week to visit the Y. M. C. A. there as a representative from the Y. M. C. A. here.

Miss Mary Coats is teaching in the Independences public school this week during the absence of Miss Savage who is very ill.

The Baptists commenced protracted at meetings their church here last Saturday evening. The meeting is being conducted by Rev. Short.

Last Friday morning the juniors at the Normal commenced their addresses at the chapel exercises.

The Y. P. S. C. E. at the Christian church will have a special programme next Sunday evening as it is consecration meeting.

A profitable and entertaining meeting is anticipated and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Republican club here meets at their hall in the bank building next Saturday evening, the 24th, and all are invited to attend who wish to receive information on republican tactics.

Last Friday evening the reading circle met at Prof. F. Long's and an interesting programme rendered, William Cullen Bryant's being the works which they were studying.

On last Saturday evening Miss Lella Parrish gave a party for a few of her intimate friends.

Several of the friends of Professor Dann gave him a surprise party on Thursday evening of last week, it being the anniversary of his birth.

There will be another spirited game of football on the Normal campus next Saturday afternoon at 2:30 between Seniors and Commercial vs the Juniors and Sub-normals.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Mrs. J. B. V. Butler Jr. is visiting the Fentons in McMinnville.

Mrs. A. W. Lucas was called to Portland this week to see her son Fred who is in the hospital there. Fred is improving very slowly.

Mrs. McCorkle who has been keeping house for her daughter Miss Lydia and Miss Brierly, returned home last week and commenced a term of school on last Monday.

Misses Rilla McCulloch, Grace Jones and Mr. Kirby of the Normal class of '93, are visiting former schoolmates this week.

Miss McCulloch has been teaching in Eastern Oregon during the winter and will return there the first of next week.

About thirty of the friends of Frank Montgomery gave him a pleasant social party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rash last Tuesday evening.

The principal amusements of the evening were charades and conundrums which kept the company in a laughing mood.

The inner man was spontaneously provided for and everyone received some good things which caused them to be oblivious to the cares of this world, for awhile at least.

After heartily thanking Frank and Mr. and Mrs. Rash for the pleasant evening's entertainment the young people departed for their homes. Frank leaves Friday for Portland where has been sojourning during the past year.

Justice Again Replies to Ex-Republican.

Editor WEST SIDE:— It is difficult to conceive of a method of reasoning or a presentation of evidence where an alleged criminal would be compelled to offer evidence proving his innocence before he was first proven guilty, yet it is in this sense that Ex-Republican attempts to dodge a fair open question.

He published an alleged quotation from "Mr. Lincoln's last message to congress," in the Enterprise of the 15th ult, and when asked for a proof its correctness, he replies that "it devolves upon you to prove its inaccuracy."

Well, here is my proof: You have published an alleged quotation that is not true in theory, fact or application; but is a base and in leign lie, every word of it. The language cannot be found in "Mr. Lincoln's last message."

To add insult to injury, he makes another equally stupid attempt to quote Mr. Lincoln from his first message in 1861. The language quoted can be found in Mr. Lincoln's first message by cutting a sentence here and another there, but Ex-Republican appears to be too blind to discover that Mr. Lincoln was dealing with democratic ideas, laws, state papers and theories of government, as he found them among the public documents; all bred, hatched and reared by democracy.

Let me quote a few consecutive sentences from his first message to congress which will include a part of your letter, and then kindly ask some friend to explain it to you. Here it is:

"It continues to develop that the insurrection is largely, if not exclusively a war upon the first principles of popular government—the rights of the people. Conclusive evidence of this is found in the most grave and maturely considered public documents, as well as in the general tone of the insurgents. In those documents we find the abridgment of the existing right of suffrage, and the denial to the people of all right to participate in the election of public officers, except the legislative, boldly advocated, with labored arguments to prove that large control of the people in government is the source of all political evils. It is asserted that suffrage is blighted as a possible refuge from the power of the people. In my present position I could scarcely be justified were I to omit raising a warning voice against this approach of returning despotism. It is needed, nor fitting here, that argument should be made in favor of popular institutions; but there is one point, with its connections, not so hackneyed as most others, to which I ask brief attention: It is the effort to place capital on an equal footing with, if not above, labor, in the structure of government. It is assumed that capital is available only in connection with capital; that nobody labors unless somebody else owning capital or some how by the use of it induces him to labor. This assumed, it is next considered whether it is best that capital should hire laborers, and thus induce them to work by their own consent, or buy them, and drive them to it without their consent. Having proceeded so far, it is naturally concluded that all laborers are either hired, or what we call slaves. And further, it is assumed that whoever is once a hired laborer is fixed in that condition for life.

"Now there is no such relation between capital and labor as assumed, nor is there any such thing as a free man being fixed for life in the condition of a hired laborer. Both these assumptions are false, and all inferences from them are groundless. Labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor, and could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital, and deserves much the higher consideration."

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

Excuse this lengthy quotation from Mr. Lincoln's message to congress in December 1861. I have given this much consecutively in comparison with the garbled extracts by Ex-Republican. Mr. Lincoln is arguing the matter from the condition in which he found the government upon examination of "public documents," the same being made by the democratic party which had been in power many years previous.

cola's writings during his occupancy of the White House were generally of a joyous, hopeful nature, notwithstanding the responsibilities and burdens borne by him were enough to have crushed any ordinary man in one month's time.

Evidently Ex-Republican has read but little of Mr. Lincoln's writings, and is now a pupplet because I don't think any democrat would be so dishonest as to misrepresent Mr. Lincoln in an attempt to bolster up a false statement or premise.

Ex-republican's fealty to the party in former years must have been, to say the least, of a very weak order, and I should question any man's loyalty to any party, when he traduces the good name of our martyred president by such wilful and malicious misrepresentation of his sayings. Don't do it. A thinking and reflecting people will not tolerate it. If you have a cause to plead, and can't deal in facts, don't resort to cheap shams and falsehoods.

THE STRONGEST RECOMMENDATION that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that that article has more than ordinary merit.

Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

PARKE ITEMS. L. Helmick was in Dallas last week. Green Suver was a visitor at Wm. Fuqua's, last Saturday.

Lea Steeprow is convalescent. Last Friday evening at the home of Kane Tetherow, was a pleasant dance. Helmick Addition Band furnished the time and excitement, breaking many strings and using much resin.

J. O. Davidson is rather poorly. Marshal Suver was seen in this burg, Sunday.

Cass Kays has two flying squirrels they were caught this winter while stealing apples from the house. The high-water last week surrounded a few of Wm. Fuqua's sheep. They were not drowned—they might have been—and they were all white sheep, and having a fair amount of pleasure on this sphere; raised on Lueticianite grass; imbued with Western spirits; wearing "free wool," and "no place like home," when they hit the current and landed safely, but somewhat heavier from weight of water in their wool. P. S. We noticed Mary's lamb in the flock.

School was postponed this week on account of inclement weather; Mrs. Smith, the teacher, going to her home in Monmouth.

Mrs. King of Buena, took the north-bound train for Portland Monday.

An Unseen Enemy. Is more to be dreaded than an open and visible one. That subtle and lurking foe, which under the generic name of malaria manifests itself, when it clutches us in its tenacious grasp, in the various forms of chills and fever, bilious remittent, dumb ague or ague cake, can only be effectually guarded against by fortifying its insidious attacks with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a thorough antidote to the poison of miasma in the system, and a safeguard against it thoroughly to be relied upon. In the event of a malarious attack, avoid poisoning your system with quinine, and use instead this wholesome remedy unobjectionable in taste and far more efficacious than any drug. Use the Bitters for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, kidney complaints and rheumatism.

Bethel and McCoy. Mr. J. D. Kelly of Bethel, has been attending the populist convention of Oregon City.

L. P. Reese and Geo. Kelly shipped a car-load of sheep to Portland this week.

Chas. Sears, the McCoy teacher, has secured that school a second time, with a raise of salary.

The Bethel school has an attendance of about sixty, and is greatly improved under the control of Mrs. Tuggart and Miss Emmett.

After a hard night's rain Wm. Bean of Bethel, found his orchard swarming with gophers, which had been driven out of the ground by the water, and killed quite a number of the animals.

Mrs. A. C. McKinnon, who has had consumption for several years, died Thursday, March 15th, at her home in McCoy, and was interred at Bethel on Saturday.

Mr. Richard Wiggs of McCoy, received the contract of furnishing the Bethel school with wood.

A Junior Y. P. S. C. E., for the children, was organized in Bethel with Ethel Kelly, president, Ruby Reese, secretary, and Lena Reese, treasurer.

Several of the farmers of this vicinity are preparing to raise flax this year.

Chas. Emmett is visiting in Albany.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it. 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

The steamer Altona will resume her regular trips today (Friday).

People are fools to suffer when a remedy can be found to cure them. Oregon Kidney Tea is no experiment, and not a fake to get your money. Why will you hesitate, when we assure you that it is absolute cure for all kidney and urinary diseases—

Snaps Shots. Inez Davidson of Buena, is convalescent.

Harrison Linnville's old wooden clock is still in existence. It was invented and made by Eli Terry & Sons, Plymouth, Conn., before 1830, for it was bought by Linnville in the '90s. It is still in running order, and is made almost entirely of walnut and hickory wood.

Last week Joe Vanderpool started for Independence in a cart, finally catching up with Geo. Thorp on horseback, bound north. The boys are the best of friends and temperate in habits, but on reaching the Davidson bridge, (which spans the Luckiamute, small but Oh!), they found quite a puddle in the road; the horses were gently prodded with gum-boot heels until the heels had to perform another branch in the trade of getting out of a swollen stream. Vanderpool shed his overcoat and boots; shaped a course south by east, ultimately "hauling up" on a barb-wire fence, where he hoisted a signal of distress. With the assistance of Geo. Reuf and a few others he was launched and pulled ashore with ropes. Geo. Thorp, being on horseback, fared better than Joe, and was the means of having him speedily brought onto the dry docks. The overcoat and boots are gone but the cart is moored to a tree, rocking gently in the current. The horse was badly cut on the wire.

J. O. Davidson still has the faithful old rifle he carried in his younger days "on the trail." The barrel is four feet long, and could originally be turned into a combination fish-pole. If the fish got off the hook you could give him an ounce bullet in the neck.

FURNITURE OF ALL KINDS AND Latest Styles.

Carpets, Oilcloth, Mattings, Carpet Lining, Wall Paper, Etc. AT

HARD TIME PRICES. The New Furniture Store, Corner C and Main Streets, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

General or local Agents, $75. The Oregon Kidney Tea is a sure cure for all kidney and urinary diseases. It is a natural and healthy remedy, and is made from the finest ingredients. It is a sure cure for all kidney and urinary diseases. It is a natural and healthy remedy, and is made from the finest ingredients.

G. L. HAWKINS, Proprietor of The Independence Marble Works, estimates on all cemetery work. First-class workmanship, latest designs, and lowest prices.

DR. JORDAN & CO. GREAT MUSEUM OF ANATOMY. 1023 North of St. Jean Street, between 1st and 2nd Sts. Portland, Ore. We want you now, while the fruit industry is so important. Good chance for advancement. Credit and full pay guaranteed. BROWN BROS. CO. nurserymen, Portland, Ore. This house is for sale. Name this paper. E33.

When visiting the Midwinter fair, be sure to see Jordan's Museum.

PAVASSER. Bakery and confectionery paid weekly from bank. Permanent position. Exclusive territory. Experience unnecessary. Pupils advanced to business. Liberal commission to local part-time agents. Large territory. We want you now, while the fruit industry is so important. Good chance for advancement. Credit and full pay guaranteed. BROWN BROS. CO. nurserymen, Portland, Ore. This house is for sale. Name this paper. E33.

NO MORE BACK ACHE NO MORE KIDNEY TROUBLES. OREGON KIDNEY TEA CURES GRAVEL, CONSTIPATION, INFLAMMATION OF THE BLADDER, AND ALL KIDNEY DISEASES.

BANKS. THE INDEPENDENCE National Bank. Capital Stock, $50,000.00.

H. HIRSCHBERG, President. ABRAHAM NELSON, Vice President. W. P. CONNAWAY, Cashier.

A general banking and exchange business transacted; loans made, bills discounted, commercial credits granted; deposits received on current account subject to check, interest paid on time deposits.

DIRECTORS: A. Nelson, L. A. Allen, H. H. Nelson, J. Goodman, D. W. Sears, H. W. P. Conaway.

Commenced Business March 4, 1889. Established by National Authority.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK. of Independence, Oregon. Capital Stock, $50,000.00. Surplus, $14,000.00.

J. S. COOPER, President. L. W. ROBERTSON, Vice President. W. H. HAWLEY, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: J. S. Cooper, L. W. Robertson, Lewis Helmick, G. W. Whitteaker, W. W. Collins.

A general banking business transacted. Deposits received subject to check or on certificate of deposit. Collections made. Office hours: 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF OREGON. POLK COUNTY BANK, MONMOUTH, OR.

J. H. HAWLEY, President. J. R. BUTLER, Vice-Pres. IRA C. POWELL, Cashier.

Paid Capital, $30,000.00. DIRECTORS: J. H. Hawley, P. L. Campbell, I. M. Simpson, J. R. Butler, J. R. Stamp, F. S. Powell, Joseph Craven.

A general banking and exchange business transacted; loans made; deposits received subject to check or on certificate of deposit; interest paid on time deposits.

ATTORNEYS. GEO. A. SMITH, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Will practice in all state and federal courts. Abstracts of title furnished. Office over Independence National Bank.

A. M. HURLEY, ATTORNEY AND Counselor at Law. Office, next to Independence National Bank, Independence, Or.

BONHAM & HOLMES, ATTORNEYS at Law. Office in Bush's block, between State and Court, on Commercial street, Salem, Or.

MITCHELL & BOHANNON, MANUFACTURERS of sash and doors. Also, scroll sawing. Main street, Independence, Or.

VETERINARY SURGEON. DR. E. J. YOUNG, late of Newberg, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist has moved to Independence, and opened an office over the Independence National Bank.

TAILORS. W. G. SHARMAN, MERCHANT Tailor, C Street, next postoffice. Suits in any style made to order at reasonable rates.

HOP POLES. Parties wishing to purchase cedar hop poles or fence posts can have the same delivered aboard the Oregon Pacific cars at Berry, Marion Co., Or., in quantities and prices to suit. For further particulars call on or write to J. L. BERRY, Berry, Oregon.

W. E. POOLE, PHYSICIAN and SURGEON. Office next door to Angine's Furniture store. MONMOUTH, OR.

Go to the C Street. SPERLING BROTHERS Meat Market. DEALER IN Choice