Farewell Reception.

A large number of the students of the Normal and friends of Professor Spillman congregated at the chapel last Friday evening to bid him good-bye, as on Saturday he assures us that no pains have been was to depart for his new field of spared to make it a complete success. labor. A short programme was rendered, as follows: Opening address, President Campbell; he gave a short talk on the good work of the departing professor and concluded by wishing him prosperity and God speed. A piano solo by Misses Butler and Young was well executed; then came a recitation by Miss Fanny Orr, which was greeted with prolonged applause; after this was a guitar quartette by Misses Parrish and Young, Messrs. Haley and Ringo, who were given a very hearty encore to which they replied with a charming selection; an original poem by Miss Bertie Whiteaker was next listened to. A wellcomposed essay by Mr. Vining was well received. Miss Kittie McCue with a neat little speech telling the good will of the students, presented Professor Spillman with an ele- of the votes of this district for justice of gant open face gold watch in a the peace.

beautiful plush case. Professor Spillman made a short farewell talk in which he thanked the students, the faculty, the board of regents, and his friends in Monmouth for their many manifestations of kindness toward him. A vocal solo by Mrs. Spillman was sweetly sung which was heartily applauded. After the literary exercises those present availed themselves of the opportunity to give the professor a lie school here will take place this parting handshake. It is with sincere regret that we see Professor Spillman leave our town as he has been one of the most popular teachers in the Normal, and always well in the lead toward furthering the interests of our town. Mrs. Spillman will sojourn here until the latter part of June before departing from our midst.

Man's Inhumanity to Himself. The most inhuman outrages, outrages which would disgrace the savage, man perpetrates upon his own system by swallowing drastic purgatives which convulse his stomach, agonize his in estines and weaken his system. Many people constantly do this under the im passed on most of the studies in pression that medicaments only which are violent in their action, and particularly cathartics, are of any avail. Irreparable injury to health is wrought under this mistaken idea. The laxative round-up at Salem next Saturday which most nearly approaches the beneficent action of nature is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is painless but thorough, and invigorates the intestinal canal instead of weakening and healthful.iufluence is felt throughout thesystem. Malarious, rheumatic, kidney and nervous complaints succumb to
