THE SUGAR STEAL.

A repeal of the sugar bounty act, is an effort to steal from the people. On the basis of a consumption of sixty-five pounds of sugar per capita of our 68,000,000 of people, we have a total consumption of sugar for the country amounting to 4,430,000,000 pounds, which, at an average price of 2 1/2 cents per pound for the raw material, would cost $112,500,000. It is proposed under the Wilson tariff bill, now before the senate, to impose a duty of forty per cent, ad valorem upon the whole of the sugar we import, and the value of our entire domestic product would be regulated accordingly, although not imported.

A 40 per cent, ad valorem tariff upon the $122,500,000 worth of raw sugar that we consume would amount to $48,620,000 which is equivalent to a special tax of 7 1/2 cents upon every man, woman and child in the country, upon the basis of a 68,000,000 population. Under the McKinley tariff the total cost to the country of the sugar bounty paid to the producers of American raw sugar was but $9,375,180.88 during the season of 1892-93, this including the bounty on both the sorghum and maple sugar products, as well as upon the cane and beet-sugar. Placing the amount of the bounty at $10,000,000 and deducting this from the $48,620,000 direct tax upon the people under the 40 per cent, ad valorem rate, as now proposed in the senate we have a special additional and direct tax upon the people of $38,620,000 to be imposed by the democratic party. While imposing this special and direct ad valorem tax of $38,620,000 upon the people, so as to provide a surplus of revenue for democratic extravagance in the administration of our government affairs, we also have the fact that the producers of the American raw sugar will be robbed of more than $4,100,000 a year, to which they are legally entitled under a contract with the United States government. Thus we have the complete policy of the democratic tariff exposed. It is proposed to steal $4,100,000 a year from the farmers and producers of sugar in the United States, and it is further proposed to steal $38,620,000 a year from the entire people of the United States, in the North, in the East, in the West, and in the South, by a direct ad valorem tax upon their breakfast tables.

FARM EDUCATION.

One of the necessary things for successful farming is at least a fair education in the common English language, of our own public schools, not simply as an education, but it is a help for the farmer to contrive. Some might say education is not necessary on a farm. How many persons you hear say: "I can get along without an education, I am going to be a farmer, or I am going to be a farmer's wife," and also parents will talk before their children, saying: "I never went to school after I was a certain age," and many other remarks, which is poor encouragement to your children to attend school. You will hear these same remarks made by little school children, especially where such remarks as above are expressed to them by older ones. What a sad mistake, especially of the youth, when they can attend public school free of tuition, be at home, and if nothing more go to school at times of the year, when not at work on the farm, especially our boys, in the winter when they are doing nothing, flitting away their time, and receiving in return no consideration whatever. Education cultivates the mind, promotes ingenuity, quickens the thought, enlarges the thinking faculties and increases promotion for wiser plans that can be followed out for our own general welfare.

The well cultivated capacities can and have better judgment than without, and the more knowledge one possesses, the better he is adapted to perform his duties. This is true among business proprietors, and if this is true with places of business and professions, it is also true among farmers. We would advise farmers, not only farmers, but others who are passing this by without proper attention, to think what you are doing; keeping your boy or girl out of school and its influences. You are inflicting an injury upon him. Send him to school; seek to employ the best of teachers. Too many of our country schools have little or no attention paid them, especially some places, poor teachers and conveniences, no one visits the school to aid and instruct the teacher as to many things that might be bettered. Some of our country directors take no pains to have a good school, employ incompetent teachers, and the salary is small and they seem to think one can teach as well as if paid more, but they are mistaken. The incompetent teachers fill these places, consequently no interest is taken in the school room and of course your boys and girls soon become discouraged and dislike school and soon think they can get along without an education, and at the ages of fifteen or sixteen with boys, they have an idea that their knowledge is above their parents, or think they know more than any one. A large part of their character is formed in school, as well as at home. Think of it, and send your boys and girls to school as they will receive what cannot be sold or taken away from them in future life.

In the whole United States, only six beet-sugar factories were in operation in 1892; producing 12,004,838 pounds of sugar, operating on an average 583 days, as follows: The Utah Sugar Co., Lehi, Utah; Alameda Sugar Co., Alvarado, Cal.; Western Beet-Sugar Co., Watsonville, Cal.; Chino Valley Co., Chino, Cal.; Oxnard Co., Grand Island, Neb.; Norfolk Co., Norfolk, Neb. The same factories have been licensed again. The production of last year is expected to show considerable increase over the previous season. The beet-sugar producers reported 17,314 acres under cultivation. The amount of sugar to be produced will be from 27,000,000 to 30,000,000 pounds as estimated. Let Polk county try her hand at beet raising.

The McKinley act of 1890 provided that a bounty should be paid to the producers of raw sugar in the United States until 1905. This was a definite undertaking on the part of the United States government, and believing in the honesty of our government the producers of raw sugar have expended more or less money by extending the area of sugar lands and by adding to their machinery, expecting to recoup themselves for the outlay in subsequent years. Shall congress ignore the McKinley act, and by annulling its provisions retard the production of sugar in the United States?

Wheat Production.

As cotton is to the South, wheat is the money crop of the West. Year by year the acreage devoted to wheat has increased with the growth of population, and the surplus available for export has increased; but while we have been enlarging our surplus other countries have been going into wheat production for the purpose of export, and all this surplus has been poured into the European markets in competition with us, with the effect of making the price of grain lower and lower, and taking from our grain growers that virtual monopoly of supply which they once enjoyed, instead of having to compete in the Liverpool markets with Russia only, the American grain grower has to-day to compete with Russia, India, Australia and with the great and growing importance of the wheat fields of Argentina. The production of wheat in Argentina is increasing by rapid bounds, the wheat export jumping from 827,000 tons in 1890, to 1,000,000 tons in 1893. It is claimed the exports of the current year will reach 2,000,000 tons. For imports, protection is effected by a tariff, for exports, it is only possible to produce the same result by a reduction in transportation. Protection and cheap transportation is the only solution of profitable wheat raising.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Mazamas.

To mountain climbers and lovers of nature: Pursuant to published call, a meeting of interested parties was held in Portland on March 19, 1894, to consider the practicability of organizing a mountain climbers' club during the ensuing summer.

It has been decided to meet on the summit of Mount Hood on the 19th of next month for permanent organization, and a cordial invitation is extended to all mountain climbers and lovers of nature, to be present. A typical mountain banquet will be spread. The list of charter members will be limited to such as are then and there present, and no one will be permitted to join thereafter, unless he or she has climbed to the summit of a snow-capped mountain, acceptable to the club.

The name selected for the organization is, "Mazamas." The mazama is the American representative of the European chamois, and is found in the mountains of the Pacific Coast in North America. It is commonly known as the mountain goat, and is the best mountain climber in the country.

Those intending to be present, should make up their own parties, and reach Government Camp or Cloud Cap Inn not later than Tuesday, July 17th.

The summit of Mt. Hood will probably be illuminated on Tuesday evening, so as to be seen throughout Oregon and Washington.

Crossing the Atlantic.

Usually involves sea sickness. When the waves play pitch and toss with you, strong indeed must be the stomach that can stand it without revolting. Tourist, commercial travelers, yachtsmen, mariners, all testify that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the best remedy for the nausea experienced in rough weather on the water. Nervous and weakly travelers by land often suffer from something akin to this, and find in the Bitters its surest remedy. No disorder of the stomach, liver or bowels is so obstinate that it may not be overcome by this prompt and thorough remedy. Equally efficacious is it for chills and fever, kidney and rheumatic troubles and nervousness. Emigrants to the frontier should provide themselves with this fine medicinal safeguard against the effects of vicissitudes of climate, hardship, exposure and fatigue.

They Will Be Missed.

The school year of the Monmouth Normal has come to an end, the students from abroad have returned to their respective homes, and our recently lively village has become somewhat dull, by reason of the closing of the same. No longer, morning and evening do we see young men and maidens in goodly numbers sending their way at the sound of the chapel bell, to engage in their studies preparatory to assuming the responsibilities of active life. They are now free from the restraints of scholastic rule, and for a season can enjoy them selves in innocent amusement, and healthful recreation till again summoned to appear before their instructors. Yet, many will miss one, who has been faithful in the performance of his duties, one who has not only been a careful instructor, but one who by his kindness and courtesy had won their highest esteem. The removal of Professor Powell, from class work is regretted most grievously by all, and it is the fond hope that he may yet be returned to his usual position in the school room.

Professors Powell and Dunn will be sadly missed when the usual exercises again begin in the chapel.

Monmouth, during the last commencement exercises, has gained more, and the approval of the people from abroad as a healthful school location, and its being so free from contact with immoral resorts, whereby students might be led from the path of virtue and morality, into paths of vice and immorality. Monmouth will grow and prosper, and the Monmouth Normal school will from year to year receive more and more the approbation of the people until its very name will be the signification of a high and worthy institution of learning.

Pioneer Day At Dallas.

The Polk Co. pioneers held their fifth annual meeting at Dallas, Friday and Saturday, and was a successful event. The procession started from the city hall, headed by an ox team loaded with pioneers, followed by the Dallas cornet band and this by pioneers on foot and in carriages. Arriving at the grounds the pioneers present were registered according to the year in which they arrived, 1844 being the oldest and on down to 1859, the latest date for a pioneer.

Minutes of previous meeting were read, and then came the announcement of pioneers who had died during the year in Polk county being: B. F. Burch, Isaac Lewis, Ira S. Townsend, David N. Burns, Mrs. Tillotson and G. T. Waller.

Hon. J. H. Hawley, delivered the address of welcome, in which he touched on the objects of this reunion, the renewing of old acquaintances, and of the class of men who hewed the forests of the West and spoke of the grand country which we inhabit. He then extended a cordial welcome to the pioneers.

Hon. N. L. Butler delivered the oration in which he lauded our pioneers and showed that theirs were heroic achievements.

The barbecue then took place, which was well handled and gave satisfaction.

The reminiscences of pioneers followed which were unusually interesting. The crowd was large but orderly. The various games, were called, but there was no tug of war as Independence has no team. The game of base ball between Dallas and McCoy was won by the former.
