Wanted - A ton of oat hay; inquire at this office. Mrs. Eva Black is visiting her father, B. N. Thorp.

Fruit jars - extra rubbers and lids at the Star Grocery. Fine large yellow bananas 25 cents a dozen at Clodfelter Bros.

Choice country-cured hams and shoulders to be had at the Star Grocery. Miss Myrtle Miller will visit her aunt, Mrs. Morrison, at Dallas next week.

Lumber is being hauled to cover the long bridge on Main street. It will take 40,000 feet. If the people have you "spotted" on account of your light colored suit, send and get them dyed.

Shoes of all kinds, latest styles and all sizes, at Vanduy's at lower prices than anywhere else in town. Wanted - Position at general housework or in cook-wagon, by a lady of experience. Call at this office.

The Robert Steel threshing mill will start up at the N. Steel place next Monday with a crew of thirty-one men. Dean Tatom, who has been an engineer in the Oregonian building, returned home for a visit last week.

Mrs. Pagenkoff, of Salem, who was a resident of Independence several years ago, was visiting Miss Patie Cooper last week. Wanted - To trade land, for improved property in Independence ranging in value from $500 to $1000. Enquire at this office.

Misses Ruth and Nannie Cooper, of The Dalles, are visiting their relatives here: Riley, W. E. and J. S. Cooper and families. Pluk Patterson still keeps on hand cool, refreshing beverages and the very best grades of tobacco and cigars and invites your custom.

For rent - House of five rooms in North Independence, with good growing garden and fruit orchard. Apply at West Side office. Edgar Collins, our new county surveyor, who was in town last week, reports business light, but prospects good for this fall.

Geo. Steel was in town Tuesday, and says they will start the Steel & Bagley threshing machine Monday and expect to have a good run. R. Shelley passed through on Saturday's train for Newport, where he will spend a few days. He is in business in Portland and is doing well.

J. W. Fetzer and wife and Mrs. Lola Price left last week for Meadow Lake, in Yamhill county, where they will camp for a few weeks and gather berries. On Saturday Dave Gelwick, of Roseburg, came in on the afternoon train. He is looking well and when he completes his visit here he will return to Roseburg.

The best place to buy your groceries is at the Star for they have a complete stock of new and fresh goods, which they are selling at the very lowest prices they can be handled for. Why cannot the young men of Independence organize an athletic club, have a bowling alley, and a place where they could spend their evenings and invite their visiting friends.

We see in the Corvallis papers A. J. Achison, of this city, is negotiating to engage in conducting a steam laundry there for a bonus of $1000. Half that amount has already been raised. D. M. Kiemen, and family left last Saturday for Oregon City to make their future home. Mr. Kiemen will be head grinder in the Imperial mills there going to work at noon and quitting at midnight.

The first specimen of hops of this year's growth were brought to this office on Saturday from the yard belonging to Hank Merwin below town. They are an early variety and already nearly an inch long. We notice that the Informer, a daily paper at Corvallis, has been enlarged and shows signs of substantial patronage. The publishers Messrs Simpson & VanCleave say they are making a success of the venture.

The work being done by Supervisor Cooke in covering the long bridge on Main street is timely. It will take 40,000 feet of lumber. The constant travel of four years has worn the old covering nearly through. The steamboat Eugene is very irregular in her trips, but manages to make two a week. She passed here last Tuesday on her way to Corvallis. Capt. Jones says he intends making Independence his headquarters shortly.

F. Elgin, the new Nasby at Suver, was in town Saturday as a witness on the Sparks-Esteb case and while here filled out his bonds as postmaster, with J. S. Stump and Green Suver as sureties. He is now acting as postmaster, but will be so in a few weeks. Out near James Harris' residence, near the motor line, Rev. Bryans and wife are conducting religious meetings in a large tent. The interest seems to be quite active, and last Sunday evening the tent was crowded. Their method of preaching is somewhat sensational, but they will probably reach many who would otherwise never be brought under the influence of their preaching.

Royal Green, whom our citizens will remember as the pitcher for the Independence team two years ago, and who gave the boys many victories and some serious defeats, is in Salem, South Dakota, receiving $100 a month, as pitcher in a team, and in a letter written to Jimmy Collins says, if his creditors in Independence will send him the amount of their bills he will pay them. He wants to come back to Oregon.

Misses $1.50 red shoes for .75 at Vanduy's. Blackberries at Clodfelter Bros., next Tuesday morning cheap. Miss Cassie Stump left on Wednesday to visit friends in Seattle.

Shall we ever have an athletic club in Independence? If so when and where? Miss Anna Lester a former student at Monmouth was visiting friends there this week.

We shall be glad to have reports on the crops of Polk county from our correspondents next week. W. E. Cressy and Willis Hill are sojourning at Newport and are furnishing music for the dances.

Leave your orders at the WEST SIDE office for Safety Hop tickets. The best material and lowest prices. Take fun in the social dance at the park next Saturday night. 10 cents a dance, or 50 cents for the evening.

Julian the four months old daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Prof. Powell died last Friday at Monmouth and was buried Saturday. Judge O. N. DeNny came down on Wednesday's train, having been visiting his mother at Jefferson, who is very sick.

The best and cheapest hop tickets are printed at this office. Every ticket is numbered and has a tab with a duplicate number on it. Rev. Handsaker and Prof. Northrup, of McMinnville, were here on business connected with the McMinnville college, last Tuesday.

Dancing at the City park next Saturday evening. There will be a series of these dances, and the proceeds, over expenses, will go toward covering the platform in the park. Next Saturday evening there will be a concert at the city park, followed by a social dance under the management of G. G. Strong. Music by Butler's orchestra, of Monmouth.

Farm for sale - One of the best 30 acre farms in Polk county - one mile from State Normal school; also 40 acre choice hop land. Apply to Eugene C. Patton, Monmouth.

J. Brown, is building a new hop house, H. Hirschberg is building two, and Riley Cooper is building two, these five being north of Independence and within one mile and a half of town.

Mrs. James Ladd and daughter, of Amity, and Mrs. Floyd Messenger, of Tacoma, are visiting at the home of Dr. S. A. Mulkey. Mrs. Ladd being an aunt on the doctors. This is their first visit to Independence.

A list of the gate-keepers and other temporary employes of the Oregon State Fair is published this week in the Oregonian, and it looks a little strange that nearly all are from Salem, McMinnville and The Dalles.

Last week this office was favored with a basket full of small fruit and early vegetables from Mrs. Ed. Dove, on Dove's island. The raspberries were of a new variety and were of a most delicious flavor. Mrs. Dove has made quite a success of raising small fruits.

Lewis K. Roberts is the name of the young man who came from Nova Scotia to Independence with Mrs. T. Layton Jenks. He is working as an apprentice for Mr. Jenks. His home is in Paris, about fifty miles from Halifax. "Go to Halifax" was quite common with him.

Fred Brown, who recently broke into a house in Cooper hollow, was arrested by the sheriff of Morrow county last week and Sheriff Plumer returned to Polk county with him last Thursday. He has been bound over to appear before the grand jury and in default of bonds is now in jail.

War in Japan, cholera in China, a drought in Central America and hard times in the United States. The first three are calamities; the last is a condition - yet more men are giving up in despair under the present conditions in the United States than are in the less favored countries above mentioned.

A gentleman who returned from the coast this week says he was much amused to see John J. Daly's card, issued before election, stuck up on trees from Salt creek to the ocean beach. No formal announcement was ever made of the judge going up salt creek, but we presume June 4th was about the time.

Our town was visited by one of the famous "muscle dancers," accompanied by her husband, one day last week. Not having money enough to procure a suitable hall, she gave her performance in the Gem saloon in the evening. As the performance was not advertised the crowd was not very large and only a few of them contributed anything when the hat was passed. The young lady extended her "muscles" to a considerable extent to the amusement of those present. Those people who expected to see something extremely vulgar were disappointed. They are not meeting with very good success financially; they came from California, and more than once had to "hit" the road for want of the price of a ticket.

Argentina is already sending more wheat abroad than the United States, and we have other strong competitors scarcely heard of a few years ago. When we open our ports and have free wheat, as well as wool, we need not raise wheat here at all, but buy it of South America, where the farmer laborer is worth ten cents a day. Our democratic orators prove that the twenty-five cent McKinley duty on wheat is of no value; then why not give us free wheat too? What is the use of a farmer getting sixty cents a day when we can get the same work done for us in Argentina for sixty cents a week. Free wheat may strike the farmer pretty hard, but it is good democratic doctrine of "free raw materials." The present bill before congress protects wheat about one-half the present duty, but to be consistent with the democratic platform, why have any duty on wheat more than on wool? Let some of our democratic farmers answer this question.
