Let us all get into the brigade with which we can the easier keep step, and march shoulder to shoulder to battle and to triumph. I don't know any one of the evangelical denominations today in which a minister cannot offer sympathy, pardon, help, salvation and eternal life to all the people. What more opportunity can any of us ask? A minister of re ligion may stand under any of the denominational banners in the presence of ten thousand people, all of them strangers, and in perfect confidence the salutation said: "Mother, he's just ing to get ourselves hurt by putting our foot under the chariot wheel or said finally, "you know we had three running our heads against some fortress wall or standing in front of
