> The Demand For Trained Rapidly Increasing.

The demand for teachers with Normal training is growing rapidly in the state. The State Normal school at Monmouth reports that out of the forty-six members of the graduating class of 1893 all out one were employed as teachers daring the past year. Of its 217 graduates, exclusive of this year's class of fifty-one members, 146 are reported as at present engaged in teaching. The first class was graduated eleven years ago.

The demand for teachers with trainsupply; the supply of untrained and inexperienced teachers, on the other band, is far beyond the demand.

Both for the good of the teacher and the good of the schools, a thorough Normal course should be taken by those who expect to seek positions in the public schools of the state. It pays to repare to compete for the best places.
