A DOLLAR AFTER ALL.

There are a good many persons who advocate free coinage of silver on the understanding that it will be easier to get a silver dollar than a gold one, consequently they will have more of them in their pockets. Labor is the source of all wealth. If a man works all day long for one dollar, it makes no difference whether that dollar is gold or silver, he gives a dollar's worth of work and that is all there is of it, and it is an exchange of one kind of property for another. The time when the dollar effects him is when he attempts to exchange that dollar for something else. Under our present financial system our silver dollars are kept at par with gold and as a consequence is really a gold dollar, as it is a well known fact that there is only half a dollar's worth of silver in it. The government even now with over $400,000,000 worth of silver in circulation, half of which is fiat money, or based on the ability of the government to redeem, is finding it difficult to keep up the parity and is compelled to issue bonds to maintain the reserve. If the present deficit of revenues of $10,000,000 a month continues, it is only a question of time when the government must find itself unable to maintain the parity and silver will then drop to its bullion value, or near it, just as our greenbacks did once when they could not be redeemed. This being the present condition of our money affairs how unwise it would be to pass a free coinage act making our government virtually issue more fiat money when it cannot pay its present debts of that kind. Suppose however that our government should do such a thing, where would the profits go? The mine owner would take his silver to the mint and instead of being paid say 70 cents an ounce get 129 cents an ounce by having full legal tender dollar paid to him. It seems to us that the mine owner alone gets the profit and the great mass of the people have to pay it.

The trouble right now with our finances is that we have too much paper, too many promises to pay and no revenue with which to pay them, and until a party with a sound financial policy takes hold of the treasury the scarcity of money will continue. It is not a scarcity of money but a lack of confidence that is at the root of all the trouble.

THE MORTGAGE TAX LAW.

Several newspapers in Oregon are attempting to influence public opinion in favor of the reenactment of the mortgage tax law and the deductions for indebtedness. In other words they would assess the individual instead of the property. In our opinion it makes no difference who owns property, as far as the equity of assessing it goes. If the state holds property for taxes it can sell the property and collect the taxes, but not so with assessing the individual. If a man owns a farm and owes half the purchase money or all of it or none, should not figure in assessment; there is the land, assess it, enter it on the tax rolls, and then someone must come forward and pay the taxes or it will be sold. That is the simplest and best plan of assessment. It is the best for the state and is in the long run the only just method for the taxpayer. All property in the state should pay taxes. A merchant has $10,000 worth of goods in his store. Those goods should pay their burdens for maintaining the expenses of state and county government no matter whether owned by the man in possession, or only partly owned or even in his possession on consignment. It is not the duty of the state to settle the question of ownership. The man in possession according to the records is supposed to own the property, whether it be real or personal, and the state need simply follow the property and not the individual.

Under the McKinley law cattle from Canada, Mexico, and other countries had to pay $10 a head to come into the United States. In those countries, particularly Mexico, cattle raising is a very profitable industry provided the American market is at hand. The Wilson bill has so reduced the duty that under the ad valorem system Mexican cattle may come in now for about $1.25 a head. The effect this has had on our local cattle market is best illustrated by a letter written by Clarence Clark, of Mammoth, Arizona, who says: "Since the passage of the Wilson bill, Colorado cattle buyers refuse to come and look at the Arizona cattle, unless the owners will state beforehand they will accept eight dollars per head, as that is the price they can place Mexican beef cattle on cars in the United States."

Now that the republican party has been shown that its principles are upheld by the people, and it looks very probable that protection to American industries will be the policy of our government, among other businesses, which will receive a benefit will be the beet-sugar industry. We publish an interesting article this week giving an account of the success of a factory in Canada. There is no reason why independence could not move in the direction of having a beet-sugar factory.

BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.

BERTHIER FACTORY SHOWS A PROFIT OF ABOUT $30,000.

$1000 a Day For Beets.

PAID TO THE FARMERS—THE FACTORY INSPECTED ON SATURDAY BY MRS. TIRRELL GENTLEMAN.

[Gazette, Montreal, Canada.]

Some sixty persons accepted the invitation of Messrs. M. Lefebvre & Co. to visit the beet-root sugar factory at Berthier on Saturday, and to those who had not previously seen the carrying on of this industry it proved a decided treat. The party, for whose accommodation two parlor cars had been attached to the Quebec train, left the Dalhousie depot at 8.10 a. m., and returned by the late train in the evening, having spent a most enjoyable day.

Immediately on reaching Berthier the visitors were conducted to the factory, a substantial stone structure, containing much improved machinery over which they were shown by Aid. Lefebvre and Mr. de Musy, the manager. In the course of the tour of inspection Messrs. Lefebvre & Co. were the recipients of many congratulations upon the state of prosperity to which they have apparently brought the industry, which gives employment to about 120 persons, work being carried on day and night during the season. From 150 to 200 car-loads of beet-root are received each week, and the output of sugar is from 15,000 lbs. to 20,000 lbs. a day, the yield of the manufactured article being about 10 per cent. on the raw material. The Government gives a bonus of two cents a pound, while the pulp that is left after the extraction of the sugar can readily be sold for cattle feed during the winter months and realizes about $1 per ton.

Messrs. John and Senator Doughty and Mrs. Doughty and Pandine, spent Thanksgiving at Mrs. John Grants at Dallas.

and another $100 a day was expended in oil, grease, lighting, etc. The sugar manufactured was sold at from 2c to 4c a pound at the factory; but he thought that next year they would be able to sell it at from 2c to 3c a pound, as they had now considerably improved the machinery. The annual expenditure in connection with the factory was about $180,000. Until this year the industry has never realized a profit, but it was expected that this season's working would result in a favorable balance of between $30,000 and $40,000.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MONMOUTH.

Last Saturday evening "Shamrock and the Rose" was played here by the young people of Dallas. On account of bad weather and other amusements, there was not a large attendance. The young people sustained their characters quite well, and their efforts were appreciated as was shown by the enthusiastic applause. The specialty "Silly Jimmy" was altogether too funny and silly. A. E. Moore is right at home in the role of funny man.

The excursion to Corvallis on Thanksgiving day did not materialize on account of the heavy bonds that would have to be raised for the motor to run on the S. P. R. R. The bonds were placed at $100,000.

Miss Daisy Lee, who has been attending school here, left Friday for her home at Shedd, Lyon county. Her eyes were bothering her, was the cause of her departure.

Letter From Stephen Maats.

Roseburg, November 17, 1904. Editor West Side.—We receive the West Side regularly and eagerly scan its columns to learn of the events happening in and around your lively city. We extend our congratulations on your eleven pound feminine beauty; may she live to be an ornament to society and a pride to her parents.

The weather here at present is fine and healthful, the last two mornings we have had quite a little freeze. Some of the pumps refuse to work on account of the freeze.

The citizens of this burg are wagging along with apparent content, business is improving, our merchants are laying in quite heavy stocks of goods, with the prospect of a lively trade this fall and winter.

Are there any democrats left in Polk? We presume they are about as when I left Independence, few and far between, with countenances indicative of despair. The great avalanche of ballots that has snowed them all hopelessly must have deprived them of all hope of ever again attaining to power in the administration of governmental affairs. Republicans about here are gloriously happy since their star has risen in the ascendant, and well they may be, for the overwhelming defeat of democracy proves conclusively to people that the free trade democracy is destructive of the agricultural and commercial interests of the American Republic. The people have declared in most emphatic tones, that the policy of the democratic party must always result, in the future as in the past in regarding the prosperity of all our industrial interest.

Let the people of Independence, you, the entire people of "Old Polk" put their shoulders to the wheel with the consummation of the best-sugar enterprise, and the result will be highly praiseworthy of the county's financial interests.

The prune industry is taking precedence of all other industries in Douglas county. We have the natural soil and climate for the prune, it grows to perfection here, and in the East is fast taking precedence of the prunes of any other locality or country.

We were much surprised to learn of Uncle Dave Lewis being placed in the insane asylum. It does seem to us that a man of his advanced age might have been taken care of by relatives and friends without resorting to such an extreme procedure. We crossed the plains with Uncle Dave in 1848, and had long and friendly intimacy during our residence in Polk, and we learn with deep regret of his sad affliction, and the course which it seemed necessary to pursue for his care and restoration to sanity. We sincerely hope that ere the vital spark has fled from his mortal frame, that he may be completely restored to sound mental condition, and at last pass away conscious that he is surrounded by kind and loving friends.

We see that hop raisers are under much discomfiture on account of the low prices of hops, but they must not be discouraged thereat, but keep pegging away, put their hop yards in good condition, for they must eventually succeed in obtaining a fair remuneration for their labor. We propose occasionally to contribute some thoughts to the West Side, not for their "intrinsic value," but to let our friends know they are not forgotten by

"I have proved the value of Ayer's Pills in relieving dyspepsia and headache, with which complaints I was so long troubled. I feel better than I have for years."—A. GASKILL, Versailles, Ill.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for 15 years as a cathartic in liver complaint, and always with extremely beneficial effect, never having had need of other medicine. I also give Ayer's Pills to my children, when they require an aperient, and the result is always most satisfactory."—C. A. WHITMAN, Nipmoo, Cal.

"Having been severely afflicted with constiveness, I was induced to try Ayer's Pills. Their use has effected a complete cure, and I can confidently recommend them to all similarly afflicted."—C. A. WHITMAN, Nipmoo, Cal.
