QUAY QUIZZES THEM

The Great Leader Is Very Eloquent.

Impeachment of Judge Ricks Reported.

Matters and Blugs as Reported from Washington by Wire Last Night.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In the senate today Quay submitted a statement in the stockbooks of the Lehigh Valley railroad company showing that the income tax would fall only on stockholders having small amounts of stock. It gave the total number of stockholders as 190, while more than 70 per cent of the number had interests below $1,000.

Quay said the showing of this company was undoubtedly the same as that of other corporations. Allen, of Nebraska, spotted the fact and Gorman and the senator from Iowa (Allison) were now announcing to the country their readiness to get together on a plan for raising the revenue, although the parties of these two leaders had been undoubtedly separated on revenue questions for twenty-five years. He said that a considerable element on the conservative side of the senate were essentially protectionists as the senators on the other side. It was merely difference of degree in their protection. This common feeling was the reason the senate had witnessed yesterday the remarkable spectacle of democrats and republicans falling on each other's necks and indulging in a free fight.

In the house today Grosvener, rep. of Ohio, presented a reply to the recent memorial to the judiciary committee by Ricks of Akron, O., making charges against Judge Ricks. Grosvener stated Ricks' charges incidentally advanced by Senator H. B. Payne of Judge Stephenson Burke, and in reply which was presented through him gave a full statement of pertinent facts in connection with the Ricks charges on behalf of these judges. Grosvener asked for a full investigation and a complete report, complete and prosecuting, or exonerating.

At 3:15 p. m. the house judiciary committee voted to report a resolution for impeachment of Judge Ricks of Cleveland, O. The vote was 7 for to 6 against.

EVERGREEN LEGISLATORS.

Olympia Infatuated with Law Makers—They Mean Business.

Olympia, Jan. 14.—The fourth session of the Washington legislature convened at noon. In the senate Rev. Chase offered prayer, and the members were sworn in by Chief Justice Hoyt. The senate elected Senator Van Houten, of Spokane, president pro tem; T. G. Nicklin of Whatcom, secretary; A. B. Cowley of Thurston assistant; and Joseph Mitchell of Pierce, sergeant at arms. Rules of the last session were adopted, and a committee to notify the governor that the legislature was ready to receive any communication, was appointed. The senate then adjourned until 2 p. m.

The house members were sworn in by Judge Dunbar, Ellis Morrison of King county was elected speaker; E. C. Finch of Chelan county, chief clerk; F. Z. Alexander of Spokane, assistant chief clerk; and Dan G. Lovell of Pierce county, sergeant at arms. The house then adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The only business before the senate in the afternoon was a concurrent resolution by Dorr of Whatcom, for the appointment of a committee in both houses to investigate the methods of transacting business by the state and commission, the commission of public lands, and the several boards of title land appraisers, said committee to report to the legislature whether such offices should be continued, consolidated or abolished. It was unanimously adopted.

Quay said the showing of this company was undoubtedly the same as that of other corporations. Allen, of Nebraska, spotted the fact and Gorman and the senator from Iowa (Allison) were now announcing to the country their readiness to get together on a plan for raising the revenue, although the parties of these two leaders had been undoubtedly separated on revenue questions for twenty-five years. GORMAN AND HILL AT IT

The Two Big Leaders Swap Items.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Striving interest was given to the senate proceedings today by the speeches of Senators Gorman and Hill on the various phases of the tariff and financial situation. At one time the debate between the two senators took on an ad lib character, each making personal criticism and satire directed at each other.

Gorman spoke for two hours. His speech was mainly remarkable in its arrangement of facts to show that the tariff law passed March 3rd and assigned Hill for his attitude then and since.

The speech of Hill was equally personal and equally vigorous, and was received with the same care attention from the galleries as had been shown to the Maryland senator. Hill directed his remarks mainly at Gorman, who sat only a few feet away.

Speaking of the treasury deficit, Gorman after March 4th, let me ask him: "You cannot afford to trifle with the situation. You must maintain without party divisions, the honor and integrity of this government."

"We are raising more taxes from our people than from our customs duties," said Gorman. "Not enough revenue was being raised from customs to pay pensions, and the bulk of taxation was now being levied within our own borders."

Addressing the republicans, he said: "You will come into power on March 4th next, under circumstances more favorable than we did. We have removed many of the obstacles from your path. You will have in the house a majority as big as ours."

For some time Gorman and Hill were in a heated discussion of the tariff and financial situation. Gorman said: "You cannot afford to trifle with the situation. You must maintain without party divisions, the honor and integrity of this government."
