

BANKS.

THE INDEPENDENCE

National Bank

Capital Stock, $50,000.00.

H. HIRSCHBERG, President. ABRAHAM NELSON, Vice President. W. P. CONNORWAY, Cashier.

A general banking and exchange business transacted; loans made, bills discounted, commercial credits granted; deposits received on current account subject to check, interest paid on time deposits.

DIRECTORS.

R. F. Smith, A. Nelson, J. A. Allen, H. H. Jaspersen, A. J. Goodman, D. W. Sears, H. Hirschberg.

Commenced Business May 9

Established by Attestal Authority.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

of Independence, Oregon.

Capital Stock $50,000.00

Surplus $14,000.00

J. S. COOPER, L. W. ROBERTSON, President. W. H. HAWLEY, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

J. S. Cooper, L. W. Robertson, Lewis Heimick, G. W. Whitaker, W. W. Collins.

A general banking and exchange business transacted. Buys and sells exchange on all important points. Deposits received subject to check or on certificate of deposit. Collections made. Office hours: 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF OREGON

Polk County Bank,

MONMOUTH, Or.

J. H. HAWLEY, President. F. L. CAMPBELL, Vice-President. H. C. POWELL, Cashier.

Paid Capital, $30,000.

DIRECTORS.

J. H. Hawley, F. L. Campbell, L. M. Simpson, J. B. Butler, J. S. Stump, E. S. Powell, Joseph Craven.

A general banking and exchange business transacted; loans made, bills discounted, commercial credits granted; deposits received on current account subject to check, interest paid on time deposits.

A. PRESCOTT. J. A. VENESS

Prescott & Veness,

Proprietors of—

INDEPENDENT SAW MILL.

Manufacturers of and Dealers in

FIR and HARDWOOD,

AND

Rough and Dressed

LUMBER.

J. A. WHEELER, Manager.

American and European Plan.

The Imperial Hotel,

THOS. GUINEAN, Proprietor.

Seventh and Washington Sts., PORTLAND, OREGON

Go to the C Street

BLACKSMITH

SHOP

And see how

CHEAP

You can get your Work Done.

Wagon Repairing of All

Kinds,

H. A. FULLER, Proprietor.

If you want a Good Square Meal for

25 Cents

Go to the

CITY RESTAURANT

MRS. L. CAMPBELL, Prop.

Ice Cream every day during the season

Chicken Dinner every Sunday. Meals served at all hours

NEW ORLEANS ANARCHY

Four Negroes Killed by Rioters.

White Men in Complete Control.

The Determination Is to Keep Negroes from Working—Troops Called for Protection.

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 12.—The levees from Louisiana arrive to Maudslayi street in the hands of an armed mob, and the police are powerless. White men are completely in control and have declared that no negro shall appear upon the levee front. All work in the levees is practically at a standstill.

Rioting and bloodshed began this morning at 7 and resulted in the killing of two men and a wholesale discharge of fire arms in two sections of the city. The morning is very foggy. The police were massed in the sixth precinct police station all night, under command of Acting Chief of Police John Journe. Everything was quiet when there came a message that a dozen men had been killed in front of Jackson square and a terrible riot was in progress. The police were at once hustled into patrol wagons and hurried away. They had barely gone when Sergeant Richard Walsh, in command of the precinct, led a volley from the direction of the levee in front of the station. He rushed to the scene among the freight cars between Philip and First streets, he found a crowd of negroes surrounding a wounded man who was lying on the ground and was bleeding with blood. The negro, who was unknown, was taken to the station.

Those about declare he was crossing the levee and found a mob of 250 men armed with Winchester rifles and other guns on the negroes at work. The levee to Eighth street and then back to Chippinias street to Jackson, and dispersed, according to what seemed to be a prearranged plan.

At Washington street they were received by Sergeant Walsh, who recognized one of the men.

Port Warden McCubbin said the rioters were from down town, and did not belong to the crewmen. At 8:30 the water front was quiet, and the levee to Eighth street and then back to Chippinias street to Jackson, and dispersed, according to what seemed to be a prearranged plan.

While this was going on four negroes had been shot and one Caribbean killed at the French market. The trouble occurred at the landing of the Harrison line of steamships, opposite Jackson square.

In the fog 100 armed men got through the guns of the police and opened fire on the negroes at work. They fled in terror, some jumping in the river. Those who ran across the levee in the direction of the square were subjected to a deadly volley. The shots seemed to come from all directions, through galleries and streets. Look where they would the negroes saw pistols and heard the discharge as revolvers were discharged. Each man ran in a different direction and the poor negroes seemed panic-stricken. Those whites who were not armed with revolvers, picked up stones and clubs and other improvised weapons and attacked the negroes.

For many minutes the firing continued at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

Later reports are to the effect that at least two negroes shot, injured and it was just before this hour that the firing began. It seems to have been totally unexpected, for the negroes were upon the levee in large numbers. They evidently believed there was sufficient force on the river to protect them.

It is positively known that four negroes are dead. Of these, three are unknown. The fourth is a Caribbean. At the hospital there are eight wounded, and of this number two are dying. They are Henry Brown, shot in the head; the French and Joseph Mallard, shot through the forehead with a Winchester rifle.

Mr. Bain, purser of the British steamship Engineer, who was shot, being cared for on board his vessel. His wounds are considered dangerous. The captain of the engineer threatens to make the shooting an international affair.

JOHN BULL IN HAWAII

His Influence There is Dangerous.

Repetition of the Rebellion Promised.

Strong Desire for Annexation to the United States Makes Britain Envious.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 12.—The Alouera arrived this afternoon, seven days from Honolulu. She brought no deported revolutionists. It is understood that there were some offered, but the company desired to take no risk in the matter. Honolulu advices to March 5th are:

Work consequent to the rebellion so far as military organizations are concerned was practically completed on Friday, when the judge advocate of the military commission announced that the government had no more cases to bring before that body.

All cases have been acted upon and the sentences of only a few minor offenders have yet to be made known. The natives convicted last, as a rule, been sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor, the total fine of $5,000 being remitted by the president. The ex-queen has been sentenced to five years imprisonment and to pay a fine of $5,000. She is still confined in the room in the executive building where she was placed on the day of her arrest and is under guard of the military.

The king is to be done with Lilloukalan is a question which the government has not yet answered. Undoubtedly before the end of the month some proposition will be received from the natives' representatives whereby she will either take up her residence on one of the other islands or leave the country, doubtless to go to England. She has a private income of about $10,000 a year which will be used to support her and her government. It will be the policy of the government not to assume an arbitrary attitude should the ex-queen make a reasonable proposition.

Though the work of the military commission is completed, the natives will not be dismissed or martial law declared off until all those who have signed agreements to leave the country have departed. The movement for annexation is gaining ground among the natives and the formation of an annexation league by Sam Parker, one of the ex-queen's commissioners to Washington, and other prominent Hawaiians are being actively active in monster annexation petitions from all parts of the islands.

A remark reported to have come from a prominent British official that he expected "this thing would be reported in a week or two, and while the superficial attitude of the English may be friendly they have no deep-seated love for the republic or the possibility of the United States controlling this territory."

THEIR SECOND TRIAL. An Interesting Batch of Portland News Items.

Portland, Mar. 12.—June 3d has been set as the time for the trial in the United States court of J. M. Miller, Wm. Dunbar, E. W. Hannon, and Lotan, Sold Back, and others for smuggling opium.

The attorney for the receiver of the Oregon National bank has asked Judge Foster for authority to sue the receiver of the Northwest Loan & Trust company for $35,000, the amount of a 50 per cent assessment on the stock of the Oregon National bank.

The trial of A. L. Hunter and Harry Hunter, father and son, for complicity in the Barker-Karpis case, was concluded before Judge J. M. Miller this afternoon. The defense rested its case at noon after the evidence of a large number of witnesses had been introduced to show that it was impossible that Hunter could have remained hidden in the Hunters' barn for two or three months avoiding detection and being fed by the accomplices without the neighbors becoming aware of the fact.

The father and son, were placed on the stand and they denied that they had any agreement with Barker about his alleged death by which money was obtained from the U. S. U. S. The Hunters said they were not in Barker's company that Sunday evening in the river. Both declared that if they had thought he was not dead they would have made him so. Old man Hunter acknowledged that he had known he would kill Barker but he had no intention of fooling about his death. The defendants denied everything else, as accessories to the fraud.

BRADBURY STILL HERE. Portland, March 12.—Isaiah H. Bradbury, the noted politician, and Officer E. N. Boley of Kansas City are still in this city. Both men were brought back from Salem by Sheriff Knight of Marion county on a bench warrant from that county and Boley appeared today in Judge Hurley's court to show that he is properly authorized to take Bradbury out of the state. Secretary of State Kincaid was today to testify that the requisition from the governor of Missouri was regular and that it was properly signed by Governor Lord. The case, however, was postponed until 1:30 tomorrow in order to examine all the papers in the case. Late this afternoon Boley was unable to secure bonds and was taken to Oregon City and placed in jail.

LATER. A constable took to Oregon City with Bradbury but returned late tonight and after visiting Judge Hurley at his residence, he allowed Boley to go on his own recognizance.

DEFAULTER CAPTURED. Jacksonville, Fla., Mar. 12.—Advices received here via Tampa, report the arrest in Mexico, of Taylor, the defaulting state treasurer of South Dakota.

MARKET REPORT.

New York, March 12.—Hops quiet. Liverpool—Fair; demand moderate. No. 2 red winter, 49 1/2; No. 2 red spring, 50 1/2; No. 1 hard Manitoba, 50 1/2; No. 1 California, 51 1/2; Hops at London—Pacific coast, 22 1/2.

Portland—Wheat, firm; valley 77 1/2; 80 per cent; Walla Walla, 44 1/2 per bushel. San Francisco—Wheat shippers are taking all parcels of suitable character on a basis of 87 1/2 per cent for No. 1 quality, with usual advance of 1 1/2 for choice grades. Offerings are being held for the market for soft prices rather steady. Milling wheat, 92 1/2; 90; Walla Walla, 78 3/4; 81 1/4; for fair average quality; 82 1/2; 87 1/2 for blue stem, and 75 1/2 for damp.

THE INCOME TAX LAW.

Washington, Mar. 12.—In the supreme court today Attorney General Olney made an argument on behalf of the government on the validity of the income tax. The interest of the government in the litigation, he said, was limited to the constitutional question alleged to be involved. If the methods provided for ascertaining the income of citizens were infringements of personal rights, the consequence would not be that the law was void, but that such injudicial methods could not be used. The tax was not a direct tax under the five concurrent judgments of the supreme court were erroneous, nor was any land tax aimed at by the statute.

THE WATERS BUREAU RELEASED.

San Francisco, Mar. 11.—The schooner Watersburg, which was suspected of taking a load of contraband arms to Hawaii and which was seized a short time ago by the collector at San Diego for alleged violations of the maritime laws, has been released. Attorney Cole of this city, in whose hands Martin placed the case, declared that the collector's action was unjust and notified the San Diego collector that he would sue for damages if he did not release the vessel. As a result, he was turned over to Captain Martin yesterday.

MINERS RETURN TO WORK.

Pittsburg, Mar. 12.—With the capitulation of the river operators to the demand for 60 cents per ton, 8000 miners went to work at noon today, but these were not sufficient and 200 miners from the railway mines have been furnished work. Besides there are 9000 men working at other rates in the railroad mines. These 16,000 men are expected to close up the work-lag at the 60-cent rate, and the miners claim their battle is won.

ONLY TWO DAYS MORE AND THE WASHINGTON LEGISLATURE WILL BE DEFUNCT.

Passing Bills by the Wholesale—List of Measures Enacted by Both Houses Yesterday.

OLYMPIA, Mar. 12.—The fourth session of the Washington legislature adjourns Thursday at midnight and they are rushing bills through at a lively rate with sessions commencing at 9 a. m. and ending at 11 p. m.

The senate is making better progress than the house and has passed these senate bills:

Making it a penalty to permit persons under 18 years of age to enter a saloon, gambling house or place of vice for any purpose.

Placing all normal schools under the control of one board.

Fixing fees of court stenographers not in excess of $5 per day.

The bill to abolish municipal courts has been reconsidered twice, defeated by a vote of 12 to 10.

Dorr's bill placing the power of impeachment with the supreme court failed to pass.

The house passed these bills: To prevent the basing of employees by employers, the fine being from $500 to $1,000.

Making it unlawful to take saloon from any waters within the state between March 1st and April 10th or August 10th and September 10th.

Taking the admission of attorneys out of the superior courts and transferring it to the supreme court; also extending the length of the course from sixteen months to two years and restricting admission to citizens of the United States; appropriating $16,880 for improvement, repairs, furniture and library at the Western Washington asylum and $8,250 for the same at the Eastern Washington hospital. These amounts are about 24 per cent of the appropriation asked for.

McGraw's appointments. Olympia, Mar. 12.—The senate occupied the morning in executive session for confirmation of Governor McGraw's appointments for the two years past. Every appointee was confirmed by a vote of 24 to 2.

McGraw recently appointed reagent of the state university. No formal charges were presented, but Allen was charged generally with incompetency, extravagance, and as being susceptible to outside influence. His record as superior judge was also referred to and the statement made that of fifty-four appeals from his decisions fifty-three were reversed.

AN UNSAVORY RECORD. Better Let Him Go to Sea in That Boat of His.

San Francisco, Mar. 12.—Gustaf Bronan, the Russian Finn who proposed to make the trip from Marchfield to San Francisco in a twelve foot boat, is well known to the police authorities all over California. Detective Anthony says that at San Pedro, Sacramento and in this city he has committed various robberies of diamonds and money. In each case the charge was dismissed as an attempt to blackmail. The San Pedro citizens turned and feathered him and drove him out of town.

BANK OFFICERS ARRESTED. Brookfield, Mo., Mar. 12.—Officers of the Bank of Brookfield which was closed early in January, were arrested last night on state warrants sworn out by six depositors. They gave bonds immediately. The officers are: John Ford, cashier; J. R. Huffaker, president; J. W. Huffaker, director; L. W. Huffaker, bookkeeper. They are charged with receiving deposits when they knew the bank was in a failing condition.

SUSPECTED OF MURDER

Four Italian Miners Lynched.

A Mob Shoots Them from Ambush.

They Were Supposed to Have Murdered a Saloon Keeper—Other Crime Notes.

PERIBO, Colo., March 12.—A special to the Chieftain from Walsenburg, a small town 56 miles south of Pueblo, says:

A mob in ambush, at 7:30 this evening fired on a wagon containing nine Italians, who are charged with fatally beating A. J. Hixon, a saloon-keeper at Rouse, a coal mining camp six miles from Walsenburg, on Sunday last. Four of the Italians and the wagon driver were killed. The prisoners, who had been lodged in the Walsenburg jail, were taken to the coroner's inquest at Rouse this afternoon. At the conclusion of the session the prisoners were loaded into a wagon and started back to jail. At Bear creek the crack of a score of rifles, presumably in the hands of miners, rang out. Four of the prisoners, whose names cannot be learned, were instantly killed. Joe Welby, a young American boy, who was driving the wagon, was also killed. The officers returned the fire, which lasted for several minutes. The most intense excitement reigned.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four of the nine prisoners was met at Bear creek by a party of armed men mounted on horseback. They commanded Deputy Sheriff Earl Danford, who had charge of the prisoners, to throw up his hands. This he did, but Driver Welby either became excited or his horses became unmanageable and a volley from the party killed him. Sheriff Malley, who was on his way to meet the prisoners, found one of them shot in the breast. No trace of the other prisoners can be found and it is supposed they were speedily killed.

At 10 o'clock the Chieftain from Trinidad says the wagon with four