

SUNDAY RECORD.

The Only Paper in Polk County Receiving Associated Press Dispatches.

SUNDAY, MAY 5, 1895.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The county court meets on the second Wednesday of May.

The street sprinkler will soon begin its summer's labor.

The best place to dine in Salem is at Kenworthy & Barnett's.

You'll smoke tobacco, if you buy Griffith's 5-cent Havana Bud cigars.

Salem—15-cent meals—Kenworthy & Barnett—Commercial street—remember.

Call at Alexander-Cooper Drug Co. and see their fine line of Imperial bicycles.

Have you been to see the latest styles of ladies' hats at Mrs. Hurley's millinery store?

Don't forget the 15-cent chicken dinner Sunday, at the Independence coffee house.

Rev. D. V. Poling, of Albany, was in Independence several days this week visiting relatives.

Have you seen some of D. H. Craven's latest specimens of artistic photography? They're good.

Col. J. B. Eddy, of Pendleton, was in town, and addressed the republican club Wednesday evening.

The branch conference of the Y. P. A. of the Evangelical church convenes Monday the 6th at Salem.

Try one of Griffith's clear Havana 10-cent cigars, the Crescent Queen, hand made by white labor.

Fresh French candies, fruits, and cigars, at the Bon Bon, next to post office, U street, Independence.

Ernest Wilson, Zadoc Riggs and Frank Skinner came over on their wheels from Salem Wednesday.

J. P. Irvine was up from McMinnville a day or so this week looking after his mercantile interests in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lucas returned to Portland Monday after a brief visit to his parents' home in Monmouth.

Don't forget that Force, the Independence barber, is agent for the Salem steam laundry, where they do first-class work.

There is to be a big time in Monmouth the 11th inst., when the Normal scholars present their idea of London Assurance.

When you go to Salem take your meals at Kenworthy & Barnett's 15-cent lunch counter; best and cheapest meals in the city.

Every traveling man who stops at the Little Palace hotel is a walking advertisement of its popularity and good management.

The Independence Amateur Athletic club is at work on their proposed bicycle tournament and expect to have a very successful time.

Oscar Renie, a former type of this city, and his wife were up from Salem this week on a visit to his father-in-law, P. Cook, of this city.

Trout fishing is steadily improving or else the boys are getting down to business pretty fast, for the number of trout reported caught is greater each succeeding trip.

The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.s meet each Sunday morning at 8:30. The Y. W. C. A. in the Evangelical church Y. M. C. A. in the Christian church, All young people are cordially invited to be present.

Just received at J. P. Irvine's, the finest assortment of plain and fancy colored glassware that ever was brought to Independence, which will be ready for sale about May 1st. Call and see what we have.

D. M. Hewitt, living about six miles southwest of Monmouth, was a pleasant caller Wednesday morning. He reports all the crops in his neighborhood looking much better than at this time last year.

W. O. Robb, contractor, says a large number of horses in Eastern Washington and Montana are being rounded up and bought for from 50 cents to $1.50 per head and are being fed to hogs. When fat the hogs are worth from $6 to $10 each. Robb says a large number of horses will be sold for taxes at from $1.50 to $2 in Eastern Oregon and Washington this year. Many of these will be slaughtered, hind quarters, or "hams" being cured for the French market. Some parts of the horses will be canned, the skins, hoofs and bones being saved. It is said one firm will slaughter 5000 horses and either can or render them.

Another shower or so.

Tennis shoes at the Raker Stor.

Try Douty & Locke's 25-cent tea.

Independence has another second-hand store.

Try Breakfast delight, at Douty & Locke's.

Craven, the photographer, takes pictures by flash light.

Rev. J. S. Smith returned from California Thursday afternoon.

The Britannia sailor has—something new—at Mrs. A. M. Hurley's.

The outlook for fruit in the vicinity of Buena Vista is said to be good.

More tinware for the money at the Raker Stor, than anywhere else.

Special dinner at City restaurant today—oysters, chicken, etc., 25 cents.

See those neat new dress patterns just received by Mrs. A. M. Hurley.

Don't forget that D. H. Craven, the photographer, does fine outdoor work.

Best in the market, well cooked by white women, at the City restaurant.

Try Corvallis flour and be convinced it is the best; for sale by Douty & Locke.

For the best paints, oils, varnishes, brushes, etc., go to Alexander-Cooper Drug Co.

Mrs. Geo. Chaggett returned Thursday from a visit to her mother's home in Zena.

The Lemmon building is being put in shape to receive the Enterprise news paper plant.

Don't forget to try the 15-cent chicken dinner today at the Independence coffee house.

The Ideal American cigar, manufactured at Key West, Fla., for sale by Alexander-Cooper Drug Co.

Mrs. St. Helen, wife of the piano tuner, returned to Salem Thursday morning by way of the river.

The Tetherow boys, of Luckiamute, recently sold a car load of potatoes to George Brey, of Independence.

J. H. Alexander, of the drug firm of Cooper & Alexander, was in Portland on business the last of this week.

Polk county's unpaid tax list became delinquent May 1, and one percent will be added for collection.

A large invoice of wagon and carriage material came up Thursday night on the Elmore for R. M. Wade & Co.

A large order of new summer styles of hats was received Thursday by Captain & Kinney, Main street. Call and see them.

Traveling Passenger Agent O'Brien and Freight Auditor Coman, of the O. R. & N. Co., passed up on the Elmore Thursday evening.

Rev. Yost preached his first sermon on the Buena Vista circuit last Sunday Services again on the second Sunday in May at 11 o'clock.

Hop reports from all points in this country are most encouraging, many of the vines already being up to the twine, and the plants in splendid order.

C. F. Mills, wife, and mother went to McMinnville Friday afternoon. Mr. Mills will go into business at that point, and his parents will also reside there.

Mr. Buttrick, of the Bethel neighborhood, a few days ago was forced to kill a valuable horse which had severely wounded itself on a barbed wire fence.

It is learned that farmers in the neighborhood of Perrydale never had a better prospect for a good wheat crop, and will be satisfied if prices are anything like proportionate.

J. S. Wenger, a young gentleman from Ohio, was in this city last week. Mr. Wenger is much pleased with the valley, and particularly with the appearance of Independence.

The Elmore brought up five tons of freight for Independence, Monmouth and Dallas merchants on Thursday's trip. This looks something like business activity and better times.

Mrs. J. E. Hale, who has been having her eyes treated in Salem, returned last Monday accompanied by her aunt Mrs. Chaney. The latter went back to her home in the capital city Thursday morning on the boat.

M. T. Crow has just completed the door and sash work for B. Thorp, who is building a neat two-story cottage in the northwestern part of the city. Among the other work were some beautiful marginal windows and doors.

W. H. Hawley, of Independence, assisted in organizing a Sunday school last Sabbath at Parkers. The following officers were elected: Superintendent, Miss Agnes Calbreath; assistant, Miss May Bradley; secretary, Cyrus Bradley; treasurer, Claud Boone; chorister, Mrs. D. M. Calbreath.

Fresh citrus fruits at Irvine's.

Investigate the circulating library at Cloefelter Bros.

Mrs. W. H. Craven is visiting her mother in Portland.

Have the baby's pictures taken by Craven, the photographer.

Save money by subscribing for any periodical at Cloefelter Bros.

Watch for announcement of Matsuri, at Vanduyne, Veness & Wilcox.

A. M. Hurley returned from the lower part of the valley last Friday.

H. Hirschberg returned from his trip down the valley Friday morning.

There is a full line of colored glassware due this week at J. P. Irvine's grocery store.

Frank A. Kinney, the well known Portland manufacturer's agent, was in town Friday.

Miss Sophia Goff does all kinds of dressmaking at the lowest prices consistent with good work.

A. S. Locke, of the grocery firm of Douty & Locke, has been somewhat under the weather for a day or so.

Have you been to look at the new lot of glassware just opened by J. P. Irvine? The prices will surprise you, they are so low.

Rev. D. V. Poling and family returned to Albany Saturday, after a week's visit to relatives in this city and Lafayette.

J. N. Vorshies, who has been employed by W. O. Cook as undertaker, leaves Monday for Portland, where his family are living.

A large amount of new stock for the J. F. O'Donnell Co.'s hardware store has arrived and much more is expected this week.

The new show windows of the Vanduyne, Veness & Wilcox store give that firm a splendid opportunity to display their new goods.

P. J. Baughman, of Monmouth, who has been in California since the first of the year, returned to his home on the up train Friday morning.

Carpenters have been at work during the past week rebuilding the residence of Mr. Turnbow, of Monmouth, which was destroyed by fire recently.

Miss May Barnes, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. A. Mills for some days, returned to her home in Salem on the steamer Saturday morning.

W. H. Hawley, Rev. J. Fred Jenkins, T. Layton Jenkins and E. C. Pentland attended the Sunday school convention Friday and Saturday at Dallas.

J. S. Kelley, brother of L. Kelley, has gone back to Pleasant Hill to return in about a week with his mother and sister and take up their residence in this city.

The Raker Stor is being enlarged to meet the requirements of increased business, and J. A. Mills has moved his family into the Behannon house on Monmouth street.

Miss Maggie Mackay, a sister-in-law of Ed Owens, arrived from McMinnville Friday morning, on her way to the Siletz reservation where she is employed as a teacher.

Work on the new residence of W. O. Cook has been temporarily interrupted to give his workmen a chance to complete some necessary improvements on Mr. Cook's hog ranch.

Miss Pauline Robertson, a daughter of D. W. Robertson of Oregon City, and a cousin of Miss Jessie Robertson, returned to her home Friday after a pleasant visit in this city.

M. Nichols, of Bowland, Linn county, arrived in town Friday to spend a few days here visiting old friends. Mr. Nichols is a former resident of Monmouth and will visit his old home before returning.

G. M. Hyland, representing the well known firm of Olds & King, of Portland, will be in Independence at the sample rooms of the Little Palace Hotel Monday and Tuesday May 6 and 7, with a full line of samples of spring and summer wraps, dressgoods, silks, trimmings, Royal Worcester corsets, joyon kid gloves, underwear, novelties, fancy goods, curtains and poles, portieres and draperies, furnishing goods, fine shoes and clothing. Ladies you are particularly invited to call and inspect the line of samples. You can see the samples and leave an order and delivery will be made in a few days. Remember you have the immense stock of Olds & King of Portland to select from and the low prices quoted will astonish you. Ladies are particularly invited to call and see this magnificent line of samples. The very finest fabrics can be seen and purchased at lowest prices. Mr. Hyland will be here Monday and Tuesday only.

Miss Lottie Hedges is much better.

J. M. Vandoyen went down to the state metropolis Saturday.

It is rumored that there will be another barber shop in town.

Rev. L. S. Fisher was a passenger on the morning train yesterday.

W. H. Patterson has sold his shoe business to J. Bentley, of Albany.

J. A. Veness returned Saturday from a business trip to Cowitz Co., Wash.

Buy some extra copies of this paper and send to your friends in the East.

"London Assurance" next Saturday evening at Monmouth. Admission 25 cents.

H. H. Jasperson and wife returned home from Portland Saturday evening on the Altona.

The athletic association held a meeting Saturday evening to make arrangements for the bicycle tournament.

You can get reserved seats at Patterson Bros. for "London Assurance" at Monmouth next Saturday evening.

Fred Bynon, of Salem, came up on the Altona Saturday evening to visit his brother, Gus H. Bynon, editor of this paper.

J. A. Washburn, a well known traveling man and prominent member of the Elks and Knights of Pythias, was in this city Saturday.

The Sunday school convention at Dallas Friday and Saturday was well attended and a very profitable session. Lack of space prevents our giving the proceedings.

Most of the garden stuff sold in this city is obtained from the Chapman gardens at Salem; so the people in the star grocery say, very little California vegetables now finding a market here.

Miss Reddick, who has been with the family of L. C. Gillmore for some time, left for her home on the Luckinsburg Saturday.

Clarence Irvine expects his new Imperial bicycle, which he ordered through Alexander-Cooper Drug Co., to arrive tomorrow.

J. T. Beckwith, the well known Jefferson stock raiser, was here last week with his Clydesdale stallion, Lord Legion. His headquarters are at Ell Johnson's stable, regularly Friday and Saturday of each week during the season.

By buying in large quantities direct from the Eastern manufacturers, J. P. Irvine is able to sell glassware at the same figures that he has heretofore paid for the same grade of goods in Portland. To be convinced of this call and examine the goods.

C. O. Groves, the accommodating young liveryman, has decided to change his base of operations and will move his stock of buggies and his roadsters over to Dallas. His new place of business will be on Main street, under the L. O. O. F. building.

The Bethel Y. P. S. C. held their business meeting Monday evening and elected Elva Richardson, Mrs. Delia Kelley, Ellie Emmett, James Buttrick and F. D. Gardner to represent them at the state Christian Endeavor convention which meets at Salem May 10 to 13th, inclusive.

S. H. Tetherow, of the Luckiamute, was in town Saturday with five beaver and three otter skins, which he had taken from animals trapped on the creek on his place during the past month. He cleaned up over $10 on this lot of furs, which he thinks is better than could be done farming.

In his sermon at the Congregational church tonight Rev. O. B. Whitmore will touch freely on the salient points of spirituality, giving the experience of Prof. John McQueen, formerly of Hillsdale, Mich., known as one of the principal "sealed letter readers" of the world, and who is always acknowledged by the spiritualists as one of their leading mediums, while he was in their ranks. The subject is one full of interest to all and no doubt will draw a large congregation.

The Brownies' Entertainment.

Friday night the Independence tribe of Brownies made their appearance at the opera house, and assisted by some of the best home talent, gave a large audience a very good entertainment. Lack of space forbids an extended mention, but the music of the orchestra was excellent as was also the instrumental number rendered by Misses Barnes and Mills. The recitation by Miss Vanderson was received with much applause, and the young lady was recalled to again please the house with her oratory. It is pleasant to note that the entertainment was a success financially and in every way reflects credit upon the ladies of the Methodist church.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Physicians and Surgeons.

E. A. BABBITT, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, office on stairs in First National bank building, business and children a specialty.

D. E. L. KETCHUM, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, office and residence on Second street near railroad, hours, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and evenings.

D. O. D. BUTLER, PRACTISING PHYSICIAN, office, upstairs to operating room, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.