A writer in an exchange says: I dispoplar, basswood, or ash as any other can be prepared for less than two cents apiece. This is the receipt: Take boiled linseed oil and stir in pulverised coal to the consistency of paint. Put a coat of this over the timber, and there is not a man who will live to see it rot

Last Friday B. F. Burch and Ed Cladfelter took a tour around the country on their bikes, visiting Dixie, Mc-Coy and other places, for the purpose of posting the bills for the bicycle tournament. On their return in the evening Mr. Burch met with an aceident to his wheel which will interfere with its usefulness for some time Another rider dashed into his bievele as Frank was making a turn and play ed smash with his hind wheel.

Much interest is manifested in the voting at Clodfelter Bros,' store for the most popular young lady in Polk county, who will be crowned "Queen of the Roses." The result of the first week's ballot will be made public next Monday, and from that time until the voting ceases the interest will be great. for Pelk county has some very lovely daughters fit for Queen of the Rosesor any other man.

Horseback From Virginia City. Mont., to Steer Creek, Ore.

Last week the eyes of the sporting editor of this paper were gladdened by the sight of a camping outfit oming up the street, and when the man stopped in front of the office of course the s. e. aforesaid had to go out and "find out all about it."

The outfit conisted of one spare built, energetic and determined looking young man, and two cavuses-one of them with every indication of being "right next to himself" as far as his ability to take care of his hide was concerned, and the other several legrees nearer the common scrub stock with a fair sized pack on his back. In speaking to the tourist it trans dred that his name was J. C. Thompson and he was on his way to his claim on Steer creek in Benton county, about twenty-five miles west of here. He had journeyed all the way from Virginia City, Mont., where he had spent a greater part of the winter with his relatives. Mr. Thompson started the first of April and since a speedy recovery. Why don't you try a meal at the City restaurant, in piece of spoiling in court, he was detained at the state of the past two or three days. J.O. Brunk, a Polk county farmer, living near Independence, fell amongst the Philistines yesterday. Under the inspiration of several drinks, he felt particularly good, and, during the afterbood, made the acquaintance of one Katle Post. She prevailed upon him to visit her room, No. 41 at the National hotel, and, when the Polk county farmer left, he was $135 short. He complained to the police, and Katle soon after found herself a prisoner in the central station. Upon being searched, a $100 bill was found sewn up in the folds of an under garment. The remainder of the money, $35, was found in the bosom of her dress. In order to insure the attendance of Brunk in court, he was detained at the state. tion as a witness. Today he will recount his experience in metropolitan life when called as a witness in the nuntcipal court. Persons who are acquainted with both Mr. Brunk and the larcenou Katherine says that a short time ago Brunk drew several hundred dollars of "Aunt Katle" left for the north on a short voyage of discovery and recrea tion.
