THE BICYCLE RACES. NEARLY 2000 PEOPLE WITNESSED THE RACES AT THE TRACK. Riders From All Parts of the Country Take Part, and Made it a Great Success.

Last Saturday was indeed the greatest day in the sporting history of the city of Independence. Fully 1800 people assembled at the race track to witness the bicycle races, which have been the principal topic of conversation for the past month.

At last the eager crowd was gratified by hearing the starter announce that the starting line and the finishing line would differ fourteen feet, owing to the fact that the track was fourteen feet over a mile in length, and lastly requesting the marshal to order out the entries in the one mile novice race.

In exactly five minutes after the marshal ordered out the entries the seven bicyclists who entered assumed their respective positions and at the crack of the pistol the wheelmen were shoved off. They started slow, but sure around the circle.

Children's Day will be observed at the Presbyterian church this coming Sunday. A good program has been prepared, and the evening will be devoted exclusively to the children.

Clarence and Raymond Henkle, and Clare Irvine took a spin to Portland on their wheels to witness the bicycle races at that place last Tuesday.

For some reason or other the report of the races and picnic write-up from this place to the Oregonian contained several wrong names and some people will be surprised to not know their own name.
