It is published by Wiley B. Allen, of Portland, the professor receiving a royalty. It has gathered considerable popularity and is a good piece of music, well adapted for use in the schools. The sentiment is beautiful and the tune catchy. No better song could be used by the schools of Oregon to still state pride.—McMinnville Telephone-Register.

W. W. Walker & Son's, the Marion county nursery men, with headquarters at Salem, are introducing this year several novelties in fruit. Among these is a so-called apple. This remarkable apple originated on the farm of John Brattbait, one mile N. W. of Bentonville, Benton county, Ark. The tree is very hardy and thrifty, and a early and uniform bearer. The apple is large, smooth and round; very black; doted with white speckles; flesh yellow; very juicy, and delicious flavor; among the best cooking and keeping apples known. Trees of this variety and also others are for sale, and will be delivered anytime this fall. W. W. Walker was in Independence on last Saturday making arrangements for the fall delivery of trees.

The Electric Light Company, of this city recently had some rules and regulations printed, and H. H. Japerson, the secretary, very energetically went about tacking the rules in every house. Dr. Babbitt and family were away from home when he arrived there, so he went up on the back porch and started to drive a tack. Dr. Babbitt keeps chained a powerful bull dog. At the first sound, he made for Mr. Japerson and caught him securely by the pants. The neighbors say it was a sight worth seeing. Mr. Japerson breaking loose and getting over the back fence with all haste. He thinks electricity is quick, but that dog is quicker, and he will look for a dog before he again ventures on a back porch.

"A Polk County Farmer" writes to The Oregonian: "The political contest in Polk county next year will be unusually interesting. There is a county-seat issue, which should be fought out at a special election in 1897. This will free the county-seat question from politics, and give Dallas, Rickreall and Independence an equal show. In common with The Oregonian, every true republican in Polk county is loud in condemnation of the record made by the last legislature, and will see to it that men be sent to represent them who are in accord with the policy of the party. The vacillating do-nothing course of our representatives in the legislature will relegate them to well-merited obscurity, and the ticket will be made up of good, competent, clean and new men—men whom we can trust." [His question arises. Who wants a county seat fight? Who wrote that letter? Let us have a rest. [Ed.]

There is one medicine which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severe pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed, and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment and bound on over the seat of the pain, will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable, however, for rheumatism. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the prompt relief from pain which it affords, and it can be depended upon to effect a complete cure. For sale by Alexander-Cooper Drug Company.

Turkish towels, crash and table linen at the Basket Store.

Rev. W. T. Fleener, of Seattle, has been occupying the pulpit of the Baptist church here during this week. He is a very logical and convincing speaker, and his practical presentation of the truths of the scripture appeal to his hearers.

The music in the Baptist Sunday school is now led by an orchestra consisting of five instruments. Prof. Wetmer, and Miss Amanda Griffs, violins; Clara Irvine, trombone; Frank Green, flat, cornet; Mrs. Alexander, organ. It adds very much to the volume of sound and melody.

A good joke is told on W. S. Stowers, the Building & Loan man. He and Mr. Riley Cooper went to see Lewis Kelso about taking stock, and Mr. Kelso became interested with Mr. Cooper in examining into the workings of the company and after Mr. Kelso had made up his mind to take some stock, he turned to Mr. Stowers and lo, he was sitting in his chair sound asleep. His excuse that he was newly married did not suffice, and he had to "set up" the cigars.

POPULAR PEOPLE.

The Opinions of the Readers of the West Side.

THE MOST POPULAR LADY AND GENTLEMAN.

A Competition in Popularity, Which Will be Carried on by Readers of this Paper.

In this issue of the WEST SIDE will be found a coupon, entitled: "A Popular Lady," which every one who receives is invited to tear out, write the name of some lady a resident of the town designated on the coupon, and mail the same to the West Side not later than Monday following the date appearing on the coupon.

The plan of the contest is as follows: Each postoffice in Polk county will have a contest, each lasting four weeks. At the end of the fourth week, the lady and gentleman having received the most votes will have a picture, a half-tone engraving, printed in this paper.

We hope to have every postoffice in Polk county represented in this collection of young ladies, and at the end of the contest the pictures will be grouped and a vote of four weeks taken on all, and the picture receiving the most votes, will entitle the young lady to receive a gold watch presented by the West Side; and the gentleman a gold headed cane.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

In order to have this contest entirely satisfactory to all, we ask that the spirit of the contest be observed as well as the letter. It is to be remembered that the pictures will include only head and shoulders, as far down as the waist, therefore the two essentials are regularity of feature, perfection of form, expression of face and grace of pose.

1st. As many votes will be received as coupons can be obtained from papers.

2nd. Voting will close each week at 12 p. m. on each Monday. Votes received later will not be counted.

3rd. In voting, the name on the coupon must be of a lady or gentleman, who receive their mail at the postoffice belonging to the coupon.

4th. The order in which voting will take place is as follows: Independence, Monmouth, Dallas, Buena Vista, Falls City, McCoy, Parker, Rickreall, Suver, Eola, Halston, Smithfield, Lincoln, Crowley, Lewisville, Perrydale, Airlie and Zena.

5th. The initials and full name of contestants must be given on ballots. Arrangements will be made with postmasters at each postoffice, while the contest lasts at that office, for receiving and forwarding ballots together.

6th. All ballots will be filed in the WEST SIDE office until final of monthly vote, when they will be counted by a committee, and result announced over signature of such committee. The ballots will be destroyed two weeks thereafter.

RICKREALL.

School is progressing nicely with Miss McCowen as teacher.

Messrs. Starkweather, Regan, and Ranshaw have lately returned to their homes in the East.

Miss Alice Vernon has gone to Monmouth to stay with her brothers, who are attending the Normal there.

Mr. Hargrove has been on the sick list this week.

Last week some thieves broke into the school house and stole in-st of the school furniture and a "pair of curling irons," since then the directors have secured the door with a strong lock so they will not break in so easily now.

A Storm at Sea

Increases the discomfort of the voyager. But even when the weather is not tempestuous he is liable to sea sickness. They who traverse the "rigid seasons" should be provided with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which quiets disordered stomachs with gratifying speed and certainty. To the harmful influence of a tropic, malarious or log tigrum or damp climate, as well as to the baneful effects of unwholesome diet and bad water, it is a reliable antidote. Commercial travelers by sea or land, mariners, miners, western pioneers, and all who have to encounter vicissitudes of climate and temperature, incur in pronouncing it the best safe guard. It prevents rheumatism and pulmonary attacks in consequence of damp and cold, and it is an efficient defense against all forms of malaria. It can be depended upon in dyspepsia, liver and kidney trouble.

Damon and Pythias.

Last Friday evening the opera house was filled with a large and intelligent audience assembled to listen to the presentation of the beautiful play of "Damon and Pythias, or the Test of Friendship." Wm. Rasmus, as Damon; Basil Wagner, as Pythias; Chas. Burggraf, as Dionysius; Mrs. Rasmus, as Calanthe; and Miss Josie Brown, as Hermonie, were the principal characters, and their acting was true to nature and carried the audience from one scene to the other with bated breath. The ever interesting story of how Damon was condemned to die for defying the new made king, and how he asked for a few hours to visit his wife and child and how his friend Pythias agreed to act as his ransom and suffer death if he should fail to return, and how plots were laid by his friends to prevent his return, and he came in just as the axe was about to descend on the neck of Pythias was vividly depicted, and not a few were the tears of joy that were shed when the friendship of Damon was proven.

The music by the Salem orchestra was very pleasing and a social dance was given after the performance, which was attended by quite a number and much enjoyed.

The proceeds were over $60. This public exhibition of a sample of true friendship under the auspices of Homer Lodge, of Independence, Knights of Pythias, will no doubt add to the membership of that worthy order.
