A pleasant time was had and at 12 o'clock sharp, supper was served, which ended the programme.

Parker's literary was named "Purification" and gave its opening programme last Saturday evening. There was considerable talent shown during the evening and the audience was large and interested. Next Saturday evening our best talkers will war over, "who deserves the most praise, Washington or Columbus."

The meetings in the Christian church now in progress, as conducted by the evangelist, F. L. Pierce are accomplishing very much good. There have been several additions. The ordinance of Christian baptism will be observed some evening this week. Interest deepens at every service. Popular sins are receiving hard hits, but in a spirit of kindness and generosity.

When ministers leave one church and join another it is thought and implied by some that they leave because of trouble and grievances with their brethren or perhaps have been expelled.

So, in vindication of himself and in compliance with the request of friends, he will on Friday night give "His Reasons for Leaving the Baptist and Joining the Christian Church."

On Sunday night he will give a talk to students. His text will be Matt. 22:32, "WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST?"

The meetings will be protracted throughout the coming week.

Largest Manufacturers of Shoes in the United States.

(Chicago Tribune)

One thousand employees answered the whistle of Selz, Schwab & Co's boot and shoe factory No. 1, Larabee and Superior streets, yesterday morning. The factory started Monday but did not reach its full running capacity until yesterday.

The factory has been closed about a week to allow the taking of the annual inventory, which is a matter of considerable magnitude. During the period the factory was closed new machinery was put in and the capacity of the four plants increased to 8,000 pairs of boots and shoes each day.

The enlargement of the plant has caused an increase in the working force of over 200 employees.—The above goods are sold by Stockton & Henkle of Independence.

A Piano for $40!!!

Chicago's most prominent music house, Lyon & Healy, have a number of slightly used and second-hand pianos taken in trade, used in concert, and in fact new brand instruments, which they have determined to sacrifice rather than try to make room for. These instruments comprise square pianos, at $40, $65, $90, $100, and $125. Upright pianos at $125, $140, $150, $165, $190, $200, $225, $240, and upward. Grand pianos at $200, $250, $300 and upward. Nearly all original sold for from two to four times their present price. Almost all prominent makes (square and uprights) are represented, including among numerous others, Chickering, Knabe, Steinway, Weber, Decker, Stein, Fisher, etc. This is an opportunity that will not occur again, as Lyon & Healy never had so many pianos of this class before. Immediate attention is necessary. A good piano would be offered to a piano, leaving the selection to Lyon & Healy. However, they will send a list and full particulars upon application. Any piano not proving satisfactory may be returned at their expense. Address at their new salesrooms, corner Wabash Avenue and Adams Street, Chicago. Distance is no obstacle in taking advantage of this remarkable chance to obtain a piano, for in proportion to the saving to be made, the freight charges are insignificant. If you do not already know you of Lyon & Healy's entire responsibility and record of over a third of a century for honorable dealing. Write to-day so as to avoid disappointment.

The Rebekah Ball.

One of the most successful dances given this year was that of Clover Leaf Rebekah Lodge, I.O.O.F. given on Thanksgiving evening at the auditorium in this city. It was in point of numbers the greatest crowd which ever congregated in any hall at one time in this city. By actual count there were nineteen sets dancing at one time, and as there were 172 dancers in each set, there were 172 dancing at once. The total receipts of the evening were $172.30. The expenses were $74 so that the ladies cleared the neat sum of $98.30.

This money will be used in purchasing handsome robes for the beautiful initiatory services of the order. The ladies served an elegant supper, consisting of turkey, chicken, cakes, etc., and the supper was pronounced by all to have been a great success. There was no stint, each persons plate being kept topped with good things as long as they would sit and eat. Prof. Weimer and his orchestra furnished the music and to the soft sweet mellow strains of violins horns and piano, the light feet of the dancers never grew weary until the wee small hours of the morning. There were many visitors here from Dallas, Monmouth, Corvallis, Albany, Salem and other towns, and one and all were extravagant in praise of the delightful evening spent. It was a brilliant affair.

A Welcome Usher of '96.

The beginning of the new year will have a welcome usher in the shape of a fresh American, descriptive of the origin, nature and uses of the natural tonic and alterative, Hoistetter's stomach bitters. Combined with the descriptive matter will be found calendar and astronomical calculations absolutely reliable for correctness, statistics, illustrations, verses carefully selected, and other mental food highly profitable and entertaining. On this pamphlet, published and printed annually by The Hosetteter company, of Pittsburgh, 60 pages are employed in the mechanical department alone. Eleven months are devoted to its preparation. It is procurable free, of course, and may be had by sending a stamp to the publisher.

Music furnished for bands and parties, a reasonable price.

Rooms at City Restaurant, on Main street.

A THRILLING ACCIDENT.

Special Parker Correspondence.

Wm. Castor, of Independence, had an accident that does not baffle many people without worse results, if all reports are true, while returning in a dogcart to Bob Armond's, sometime after 4 a. m. Thanksgiving night.

It appears when he reached Heinlein's bridge there was a lot of siding off the covered part and his horse seeing the light in the opening concluded to take a short cut home. The result was a plunge, at a moderate guess, of 45 or 50 feet directly into the Luckiamute bottom with Billy a close second, not attempting to check his madly flying steed. The horse alighted feet foremost, while Billy lit with what is known to the swimming fraternity, as a "Belly buster" in his nonchalant way and was rather absent minded for a while, but if there is anything that will bring a dead man back to life it is the Luckiamute's water in winter. Luckily he sank only twice, 1st and 2nd time, then swam stiffly ashore remarking, as he struggled up the sloping, sandy shore: "Wouldn't that take your breath?" The horse with a splash and sputter, swam off down stream, to be seen no more that night. The axle of the cart was damaged. The horse next morning was found mucilage bottom, with a far-a-way expression on his face and a few disorderly straps lying over his anatomy.
