Pure Blood
It is the secret of the restoration to health which Hood's Sarsaparill gives.
"It gives me pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparill. I have cured many complaints, and purified my blood. I was troubled with my liver, had lip disease and other troubles, the result of my bad blood. For a long time I had to walk with a cane. For several years I had the grip in a severe form. I procured six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparill and it built me up. My recovery is due to Hood's Sarsaparill. All my ill habits are a thing of the past now. I sleep well, my hair is growing, my complexion is healthy, and I feel like a new man."—J. W. KELLY, Hayward, Cal.
Hood's Sarsaparill
It is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye today. Try it.

At the meeting of the Auditorium last Monday evening the proposition of having a Chautauqua assembly in Independence to commence June 24 and last until July 24, was received with much enthusiasm and a committee was appointed to arrange matters consisting of Prof. Hayes, W. P. Conway, Prof. E. E. Balsom, J. G. Van Orsdel, Rev. S. A. George.
Last Thursday evening the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs had a joint installation there being only members of the two lodges present, or immediate relatives. After the installation of the officers and the appointments, the subscription lodge had a surprise for the sister Rebekahs when the Emma Judice singers came in and sang their entertaining songs for an hour to an appreciative audience. A fine luncheon followed the evening programme. About one hundred and fifty were present.
Are you owing for your subscription to the West Side? If so wouldn't you be better if you were to pay it, and enjoy the pleasure of reading a paper that was paid for? And then, if you don't think you would feel in a more comfortable position than you are in now, we will give you a paper that was paid for? And then, if you don't think you would feel in a more comfortable position than you are in now, we will give you a paper that was paid for?

W. P. Conway went to Portland Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reed, of Salem, were visiting friends here over Sunday.
There will be an institute at Suver next Saturday at 10 a. m. for school officers of that part of Polk county.
Justice Irvine, on Monday, united in marriage Len Steppow, of Parker, to Miss Viola Miller, of Independence.
Mrs. Hornbuckle living in North Independence died last Tuesday after a lingering illness and was taken to Buma Vista for burial.
Jerome Dornis made a flying business trip to Idaho last week, but is at home again. Chas. Hubbard was motor conductor during his absence.
Mr. Bruggers, of near Osnaha, Neb., is visiting in Polk county, having a sister attending school at Monmouth. He may decide to come to Oregon and locate.
Rev. E. C. Sanderson, of Eugene, dean of the Divinity school at that place is expected to fill the pulpit at the Christian church this city Sunday evening.
Miss Mattie Longacre is again unable to remain at her post in Grade 6 and has gone to her home in Buma Vista to recuperate Mrs. Ell. Wasson of Monmouth taking her place.
The two-year-old baby, of J. B. Ford, fell last Tuesday on the edge of a bathtub, cut his head over the eye to the bone, so that two stitches were necessary to sew up the wound.
Snow to the depth of eight inches fell in Independence on Wednesday and on top of that a crust of ice so thick that small children walked on it. However nothing is suffering unless it be the stage horses over the country, which have to break roads.
Preaching at the first Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Fleenor, morning and evening at the usual hours. Morning subject, "The Positive Knowledge of Religion;" scripture lesson, 2 Cor. 5 chapter. Evening subject, "Dancing." Christian culture class, Monday evening at 7:30.
Gaudium Sommer, mother of Mrs. Jesse B. Ford, of this city, while visiting here last week cut two teeth in the lower jaw although she is 65 years of age. She had all her teeth taken out the year before, and these are front teeth.
A dramatic entertainment will be given at the Auditorium on Thursday evening January 23, under the auspices of the G. A. R. It will be that thrilling play to five acts, "Five Nights in a Barroom" with ten of our local talent, as actors. For further notice see posters.
W. C. Wiles, from Prineville Or. who lived in this city in 1881, was visiting in business at Dallas, was being here this week. He is a member of the State Board of Equalization from Crook Co. He notes many substantial improvements here in the time since he was a resident.
Independence M. E. Church, D. Hasler Glass, Pastor. Services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m. and Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Morning subject, "What is Sanctification?" Evening subject, "Labor and Capital." Laboring men are especially invited to attend the services.
Sol Durbin, F. R. Smith, Mrs. Sophia Durbin and Mrs. Madeline Walker, of Salem Prairie, near Salem, were guests of H. Best last week also A. B. Wheeler of Salem. There is a probability that a 1,500 acre farm in this county may be purchased by some of the party and Polk county be their future home.
Next Saturday night the Workmen and Degree of Honor Lodges, A. O. U. W. will hold a joint memorial service in Odd Fellow's hall, which will be speeches by Messrs B. F. Mulkey, N. L. Butler, W. P. Conway, and others, and an interesting musical and literary programme. Friends of Workmen and Degree of Honor will be made welcome.
There will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. S. A. George, at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath at the usual hours. Morning subject, "The Friend of God." Evening subject, "What of the Night?" Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. In connection with the morning service there will be the ordination and installation of elders.
Geo. W. Henkle, who has so long been identified with the firm of Stockton & Henkle in the dry goods business, left this week for Corvallis, where he will take charge of the Davis stock of goods, he having purchased the same on execution. Mr. Henkle was recently elected one of our city councilmen and his going away will cause a vacancy in the representation in the Second ward. We regret to see Mr. Henkle leaving us.
The action by the directors of the Independence National Bank in their meeting last Tuesday, in removing W. P. Conway from the position of cashier was almost received with unadvised when first heard, but it is true. From inquiry we learn that it was on account of any fault with Mr. Conway, but simply to reduce expenses. Mr. Conway has served in the capacity of cashier of the Independence National Bank for seven years, and has always had the respect and esteem of the patrons of the bank so far as we know. Mr. Chas. Irvine will act as book keeper and teller.

DEATH FROM FIRE.
Buelah Gilmore Dies in Awful Agony, and Courtland Her Brother Badly Burned.
Last Friday afternoon, the explosion of a can of coal oil in the hands of Buelah Gilmore and her brother, resulted in the death of the former, after lingering until Saturday morning. All that medical skill and assistance of kind friends could do, was not availing in saving the dear one from death at last.
The circumstances of the sad accident as we glean them from different sources are that the fire had gone out in the furnace in the basement of the Gilmore residence about five o'clock in the afternoon, and Mrs. Gilmore asked her little son, Courtland, seven years of age, to go and rebuild the fire. Buelah, five years of age, went with him. The furnace is in the center of the basement on a cement floor. The children found the fire entirely out, so took the gallon coal oil can and it is thought poured some on kindling, intending to light it and the fire started itself and exploded the can of oil, and the full can of oil went over little Buelah, striking her on the chest and face and literally cooking her. Courtland was burned on the face, hands and legs, but not so badly. Their screams brought Mrs. Gilmore to the basement stairs where she met Courtland with his clothing on fire and he screaming in agony. Buelah was following, her arms over her head and the flames reaching from her burning clothing, saturated with coal oil, far above her. The frantic mother to d Courtland to get out in the yard and roll in the grass, and with her bare hands she put out the flames of Buelah's burning dress, burning herself badly. Neighbors soon came to the rescue. Mr. Frank Burch says when he looked down into the basement the oil had run over the floor and for a space of ten by ten feet the oil was burning to height of at least two feet.
It was soon discovered that little Buelah was most seriously burned, and medical assistance was summoned at once both from Independence and Salem and every thing possible done to alleviate the suffering of the little one but in spite of all efforts little Buelah, died at 8 o'clock Saturday morning.
The funeral services were held at the family residence Sunday afternoon, Rev. D. V. Pilling of Albany, delivered a very feeling and sympathetic sermon, a large number of friends being in attendance. An orchestra and a choir rendered sweet music.
The remains were taken to the Odd Fellow's cemetery.
Courtland is gradually recovering from the severe burns and it is thought no serious disfigurements will result. Mrs. Gilmore is still prostrated from the shock, but the burns she received are not serious.
It is not necessary to state that this community sympathizes with the heart broken parents, they evidenced their sympathy in every possible act of kindness, and Mr and Mrs. Gilmore feel grateful to them for it.

PARKER.
The country in this vicinity is very quiet, and according to the maxim, "The quietest hour is just before the storm," it forebodes renewed energy in the spring, which is the bright spot in the horizon of business, which many a laboring man is watching with interest.
Last week Wm. Fuqua shipped a car load of oats and Frank Brown two car loads. They did very well in the transaction.
Viol Calbreath and Ralph Brown, are visiting relatives and friends in Benton county.
James Aldrich, of Suver, was sighted in the city of Oakland, Cal., the other day. He is down there with the intention of locating.
Dan Atkinson is now a full fledged "Woodman of the World," and was to have ridden the national last Tuesday evening and probably did, for we have not seen him around this week—presumably teddy-t.

A Leap Year Party.
While Independence is crying hard times, in harmony with the rest of the country, it does not propose to be in the rear in affording its share of social incidents for leap year. With this idea in view, last Monday evening was the occasion of the first Leap Year social of the season, which was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Butler, in this city, by their daughter, Miss Bessie. The whole scheme was carried out in a truly Leap Year style. The invitations were sent out by the young ladies, and the gentlemen were escorted to and from the party by them. Several of the young gentlemen, not willing to be outdone, appeared with hair curled in latest style and in bloomers fashion, while the young ladies wore the conventional black and neat little caps, with hair parted on the side, and upon calling for their company removed the cap in a becoming and gentlemanly manner. The evening was passed in the indulgence of music and parlor games until a reasonable hour when all repaired to the restaurant and partook of a delicious oyster supper previously ordered by the young ladies. This year the parlor was again occupied, the forfeits redeemed, and the pastime hours taken. All in all it was a unique Leap Year social carried out to the letter. The following are the names of those present: Messrs. F. E. Chambers, John Alexander, M. E. Masterson, W. H. Hawley, L. C. Bell, L. C. Clodfelter, Misses Myrtle Miller, Clara Fisher, Kate Wheeler, Essie Robertson, Mattie Longacre and Bessie Butler.

The Steamer Ruth.
The new and elegant steamer of the O. R. & N. Co. made her first trip up the river last Thursday and whistled a salute to Independence, as she passed on up as far as Corvallis. Returning Friday afternoon she gave our people an excursion down to Independence. Parson's orchestra was on board, and when they arrived here repaired to the Auditorium and spent an hour or two dancing. About one hundred of our citizens here joined in the "wild!" At twelve o'clock the steamer returned to Salem. The excursionists voting the officers of the O. R. & N. Co. who tendered them the excursion "Royal good fellows."
The Ruth is a twin sister of the Elmore. She is 161 feet long 34 feet wide, 5 feet depth of hold. Her boiler and engines are very powerful, the stroke of piston being 7 feet, and bore of cylinder 14 inches. Her speed is from 14 to 15 miles an hour. It has not yet been determined whether she or the Alton is the faster boat.
She is piloted as follows: Captain, Geo. Rande; Officer, Miss Bell; Pursers, E. N. Gilmore; Mate, Henry Senn; Engineer, Wm. Mahr; Steward, Tony Bowman.
Among the officers of the O. R. & N. Co. who were on board were: W. H. Hurlihar, General Passenger Agent; J. J. Rathbone, Sup't of Water Lines; J. O'Neil, Traveling Passenger Agent; C. F. Overbaugh, Traveling Freight Agt.

Lively as a Cricket.
Although in the first instance as sluggish as a toad, the kidneys become as lively as a cricket when a healthy Diapir is given by them with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a promoter of activity in these organs which counteracts a tendency to their lethargy and disease. Inaction of the kidneys, it should be remembered, is the first stage of those dangerous renal maladies against which the resources of medical science are too often exhausted in vain. First is forestalled by the Bitters, which averts Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, gravel and the troubles arising from a weak kidney. Equally efficacious in its checking and eradicating malarial, bilious and nervous ailments, dyspepsia, constipation and rheumatism. Appetite and sleep are improved and convalescence hastened by its beneficent action. Either when health is slightly or seriously impaired, the value of this salutative and preventive medicine is specially made manifest.

The Athletic Club.
Last Monday occurred the annual election of officers of the Independence Athletic Club, resulting as follows: President Walter Bablitt, Vice Pres. J. M. Vanduyne, Secretary B. F. Burch, Treas. W. O. Cook, Board of Governors: H. Hirschberg, J. E. Kirkland, W. H. Patterson, I. B. Morin, Ed Williams.
The Club has leased the O'Donnell building, size 45x75, with a large reading room in the rear, also a bath room and shower bath. The membership fee is reduced so that the membership has reached 80 members. It is proposed to soon have a bowling alley, and the club is in a prosperous condition.
The club has over a hundred dollars in the treasury and proposes giving entertainments from time to time to increase this fund.
The list of charter members numbering eighty is as follows:
Walter Bablitt, Chas. Staats,
D. P. Patterson, E. P. Burch,
Ed Clodfelter, I. A. Bailey,

THE I. A. A. C. BALL.
What the Society Editor of the Salem Statesman Said About It.
The following write-up of the recent ball given by the I. A. A. C., was crowded out of our last issue:
The most delightful party of the season was that given by the Independence Amateur Athletic Club, at the large Auditorium in Independence, on Wednesday evening last.
The music was furnished by Prof. Parsons' orchestra, of Portland, assisted by Messrs. Deuton, Poppa and Woodson, of Salem.
The large hall was beautifully decorated in ferns, evergreens, and wild grape and over the stage were the letters "I. A. A. C." in the club colors—orange and black.
A most elegant supper was served during the evening at the Palace hotel, and for the accommodation of their invited guests carriages were furnished to convey all from the Auditorium to the hotel and back.
A very jolly crowd of Salem young people enjoyed the hospitality of the club. They went by the steamer Alton, and returned early next morning on her down trip. They were met a Independence dock by the committee on entertainment, H. Hirschberg, C. E. Clodfelter, L. C. Cary and D. P. Patterson, and the ladies escorted to the hotel by a large carry-all and from there to the large Auditorium, where all had a hearty welcome and a royal good time.
All came home highly pleased with their entertainment and having only the kindest words and highest praises and thanks for the I. A. A. C. club members of Independence.
Those going from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rieley, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pugh, Miss Jessie Creighton, Miss Skiff, Miss Nettie Porter, Miss Ethel Cusick, Miss Ada Boise, Miss Arlene Bier, Miss Adda Davenport, Miss Lottie Heltendbrand, Miss Jennie Booth, Miss Josie Brown, Miss Bertha Townsend, Miss Mabel Carter, Miss Maud Hirsch, Miss Esther Collins, Miss Ethel Thompson, Miss George Giltner, Messrs. Homer Craven, Geo. Payne, T. C. Smith, Jr., E. C. Wagner, M. Schiller, Archie Irvine Harry Albert, Ed Singleton, P. H. D'Arcy, Chas. McNary, Harvey S. Jordan, Dr. W. B. Morse, Carey Martin, Mr. Livesley, John B. Gileay, Edmond C. Giltner, Chas. Roblin, and H. K. Jones and Everett Hickman, of Oregon City.
