Mrs. Williams and daughter, Miss May, of McMinnville, are visiting Mrs. Ed. Gale. City Marshal Buckley is putting in a tile drain across third street near D street. Lyon Lodge No. 29, A. F. & A. Miller, who recently visited her father—Mr. John Stapleton—on returning home to Vancouver, Wash., fell and broke her right wrist. Misses' 75-cent shirt waists for 40 cents at J. L. Stockton's. Don't overlook the United States cream separator, it is the cheapest and the best. For sale by R. M. Wade & Co. Alonzo Cox, wife and son, of Missouri, after visiting with the family of Peter Kurre for a month, left on the Portland train Wednesday enroute to Sonoma county, California. Robinson & Co. is the place to go for a nice cold drink of soda. Ladies' 40 and 50-cent hosiery at 30 and 35 cents for one week at J. L. Stockton's. Why do some farmers go to Albany to buy their binding twine when they can buy it cheaper at home of R. M. Wade & Co. Orris Robertson, wife and child, of Blythe, spent a week visiting relatives here. They have returned to their home on the east side of the mountains. When in Salem and you want a good meal don't forget to go to Strong's Restaurant, where everything the market affords can be had. The Washington State Grand Lodge of Masons, at its recent session in Tacoma voted not to admit liquor dealers to membership in the order, and directs present members who are in that business to withdraw. E. C. Pentland is making preparations to tour the southern part of the state in the interests of the Oregonian and Evening Telegram. He will take a team from here and write his observations from personal knowledge. The principal points of interest will be the mines which have never been fully written up. He will be gone several months and perhaps move his family to that section. Gov. T. T. Geer has appointed Associate Justice C. E. Wolverson, of the supreme court, a regent of the State Normal school at Monmouth, to succeed J. J. Daly, late of Dallas, removed from the state. Judge Wolverson will fill out Daly's unexpired term, that is to say, until May, 1903. This appointment will doubtless meet with much favor, as Judge Wolverson is a graduate of the Normal school, and takes a lively interest in his Alma Mater and in education generally. On Sunday morning at ten o'clock occurred the wedding of Mr. P. L. Williford, of Independence, and Miss Grace Matthey, of this city. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, a mile and a half southwest of town. The groom is a well known young man of Independence and the bride is a host of friends in Corvallis who wish them all joy in their wedded life.—Corvallis Times, July 7. Mart Seraffino was in town Tuesday and tells the West Side that he saw the biggest and prettiest deer the day before in his hay field that is ever his luck. The deer came out of a small swamp that is on Mart's place and came within seventy-five yards of Mart. It saw him and then leisurely trotted off to another swamp and hid in the bushes. As the deer were thought to have been all killed off in this part of the country, Mart thinks this one must have come down from the mountains to get away from the dogs and hunters. During last May an infant child of neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it was good. In two days the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. CURTIS BAKER, Brookwater, Ohio. Sold by Kirkland Drug Co.

Note the Raket's new ad this week. Special bargains in ties and socks. Willamette lodge No. 42, Degree of Honor, met Monday evening and initiated one candidate in the side degree. Mr. Mottershead will sing "The Holy Church" by request, at the M. E. Church on Sunday evening. Oats it is claimed will prove a good crop this year. Mr. K. C. Eldridge came up Monday to look over the new assembly building. He will come for good as soon as the machinery arrives. R. M. Wade & Co. sent a binder out on Monday and one on Tuesday. The harvest is coming on fast and the farmers are getting prepared for it. W. H. Warner commenced Tuesday to move his home from near the S. P. depot to a new location between Henkle's and Goodman's. John H. Niderkamp, representing the Irwin-Hill company of Portland, passed a few hours in this city on Tuesday. Charles L. McDonald, of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived in this city Tuesday morning to visit for a week or so with Mr. John Stapleton, Mrs. McDonald's father. Claggett's mill is saving maple lumber for the Portland market. A carload was sent off Monday and another carload on Tuesday. The lumber is made up into furniture. Don't forget that the West Side clubs with the Oregonian. If you are already a subscriber to the West Side and want the Weekly Oregonian, come in and get the benefit of the clubbing rate. The saw mill still keeps hammering away and turning out lumber at a lively rate. As soon as Mr. Claggett gets in a planer, he will hardly be able to keep up with his orders. The early closing movement although hitting the towns all about us has not yet struck Independence, but the boys are talking about it and hoping some one will start the agitation. Miss Burnett, who conducted the millinery store here for some time, has closed the same and gone to Portland to take a position in a wholesale millinery establishment. The wheat crop of the eastern part of the state is a month earlier than common. On Sunday morning a carload of bluestem was received at Portland, breaking the record for early wheat receipts. Rev. C. P. Blanchard, of Hillsboro, was in attendance at the United Brethren conference at Philomath, stretched over here for a few days' visit with Miss Withrow and other old acquaintances. He left for home Saturday. On Tuesday J. L. Stockton and family started for Chautauque near Oregon City. They went with all the household goods and camping outfit necessary to enjoy life and will not return to be vexed with business for at least ten days. The excursionists to Salem on Sunday from here were very numerous. They say though that they had a good time until the two accidents—a national guard man being drowned and another man having his leg broken in falling from his horse—acted as a damper on the pleasures of the day. The gravel haulers for the roads and streets are still busily at work. There is plenty of gravel left on the bar in front of the O. R. & N. company's property. Every year the bar here seems to be working down lower and the first thing they know there will be several acres of land added to this side of the river. Mrs. Sanford Williams, in commenting on the sticky paper formula mentioned in last week's West Side, says that if you open your doors about ten o'clock in the morning the flies will mostly all leave or can be easily driven off. She says it is a sort of habit with them. But they will want to come back in again shortly after dinner time, so keep your doors and screens tightly closed after noon. The O. C. T. company boats have quit up the Gypsy, made her last trip up from Portland on Saturday, returning Monday. The steamers will continue to run between Portland and Salem. Were it not for a lot of snags in the river where the Gypsy was wrecked, the boats might run up here a little longer. As it is now we won't be likely to see them again until the fall rains set in—about September 20. The telegram has this to say of one of Polk county's boys: "Charles W. Brickner is a large, well built fellow, five feet high, and weighing 228 lbs., is attracting a great deal of attention in the city. Crowds of small boys follow him around as they do a Corbett or a Jeffries. He is never free to go to school until he enters his hotel at the foot of Morrison street. As a specimen of the physical development of the native Oregonian, when given a liberal chance to grow, he is said to be unequalled. In him Polk county takes especial pride, for there he was reared to early manhood. He is at present engaged as an advertising representative of a tea company, of this city." Deputy Head Counsel W. C. Warwick organized Lockiamute camp No. 8187, Modern Woodmen of America, at Falls City, Monday evening. The officers are as follows: V. C. W. B. McGowan; adviser, M. G. Flynn; banker, Wm. Ellis; clerk, E. J. Reynolds; escort, L. Murphy; watchman, Wm. Lee; sentry, Chas. Hays; managers, Chas. Pugh, Chas. Hingworth, Willard Gilbert; physician, Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, of Dallas. The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles. "I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most of all the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have not found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form." For sale by Kirkland Drug Co. Drink Hop Gold Beer THE PUREST AND BEST..... Bottled beer for family use to be had at ED. GALE'S CASTLE SALOON, Independence, Oregon.

Miss Fay Shelly, fourteen years of age, died at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, on July 7 of cerebral typhoid. Deceased was a former resident of this city and the remains were brought here for interment last Saturday, services being held in the Christian church. Another pioneer has passed away. Willis Elliott died at his home in Bridgeport, this county, Tuesday morning. He had lived until the seventh of this month, he would have been one hundred and one years of age. The funeral took place in Odd Fellows' cemetery Wednesday afternoon. A year ago next month, a grand reception was given in honor of his 100th birthday, at which party there were over two hundred invited relatives, consisting of his children, his children's children, and yet again their children. He was married to Miss Polly Vandervoort in Ray county, Missouri, August 12, 1821. In 1838 he emigrated to Nebraska, and to Polk county in 1847, where he has made his home ever since. He was the father of 11 children, six sons and five daughters. Two sons were killed during the Civil war. The other children survive. Bicycle Thief Caught. Charles Rose, a young man aged about twenty years, was arrested and tried Wednesday for stealing a bicycle from Charles Gross at Simpson's logging camp, on the Luckiamute. Rose was caught by Mr. Simpson, with the wheel in his possession, and brought to this city where a complaint was made before Justice of the Peace Irvine. The culprit pleaded guilty and was fined $25. In default of payment he was to go to the county jail for 12 1/2 days. A constable took Rose over to Dallas Wednesday morning to serve his sentence. Base Ball. Douly's boys have in a measure, redeemed themselves. On Sunday a team from Salem gave the boys a hard rub for awhile, until Simmons of the Douly's came to bat and knocked the base over the fence, bringing in four runs, which seemed to throw a damper over the visitors who thereupon went to pieces and Douly's boys wound them up by a score of 20 to 11. Next Sunday, July 15, a team from Buena Vista will cross bats with Douly's team on the Talmage ball grounds. Miss Maud Brant entertained a few young friends Wednesday evening. Mr. Al Shives, of Buena Vista, was in this city on business Thursday. Dr. Jessep, of Salem, was in the city Wednesday. Miss Ella Fennell, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city Wednesday. G. L. Hawkins, our general dealer in marble, went down to Crowley Thursday to set up some headstones. A third car is being loaded with maple lumber for the Portland market, where it will be made up into furniture. John Flaker, sawyer at Claggett's mill was taken ill Thursday and the mill was not running in the afternoon. Frank Clendenen, of Lawrence, Kansas, is visiting his uncle, Eli Johnson. He will stay here until fall, perhaps longer. An old gentleman from Portland, named C. H. Friendly, lost his valise from the hotel Thursday morning. There is some question as to whether it was stolen or taken through mistake. A copy of the Acron, published at Three Oaks, Mich., has just been received at the West Side office. It gives a very interesting account of the unveiling of the Dewey cannon in that city, and is illustrated with half tone cuts. Preaching morning and evening at the M. E. church Sunday. In the evening Rev. Dr. T. B. Ford, of Eugene, will occupy the pulpit in the evening. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the evening sermon. HOMER LODGE NO. 45 MEETS EVERY Wednesday evening. Stump finished on Friday last, on his farm adjoining Monmouth, a thirty acre field of rape which yielded ten bushels to the acre. This plant resembles the rutabaga turnip, the stalks running about four feet high when matured. The pods and seeds are also much like those of the turnip. The recent rains caused the pods to open, and fully one-half of the seed scattered and was not saved. It was cut by a grain binder and threshed with a grain separator without difficulty. The value of this crop to the progressive farmer interested in diversified crops, can readily be seen when it is known that this 30-acre field, which was sown in June of last year, Mr. Stump has pastured 300 head of sheep till early this spring, also many goats and hogs during the winter months. And the seed at the present market value brings 34 to 6 cents per pound or about $3.50 per bushel, making on the amount saved on this crop $35 per acre. This is probably the first crop of rape harvested on the Pacific coast, and the outcome has been watched with considerable interest by agriculturists from different parts of the state who have known that it was being grown here. James E. Wing, of the Breeders' Gazette, Chicago, with Dr. Whiscombe of the state agricultural college, examined this crop when it was threshed, and both expressed great satisfaction at the result of the experiment. Mr. Wing was here visiting Mr. Stump's stock farms, taking views of the stock and farm scenes for publication; and was also making a look-up of thoroughbred sheep and goats, which he says are not excelled anywhere in the United States. Many Good Cough Medicines. A man thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, get a trial for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years, have yielded to this remedy and perfect health has been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by Kirkland Drug Co. Wood for Sale. Reduce Output of Hops. A call was issued Monday, signed by a number of prominent hopgrowers, requesting all hopgrowers of the state of Oregon to meet at Salem at 11 o'clock, on July 14, to consider a reduction of 25 percent in the output of hop this year. This call is occasioned by a communication received by M. L. Jones, president of the Oregon Hopgrowers' Association, from H. J. Ottenheimer, a hopgrower of Salem, representing Lillian Bros., of New York City, in which he says: "Referring to my letter of June 28, and supplemental thereto, I desire to say that in case the offer made therein is accepted by the growers representing 75 percent of the acreage devoted to hops in California, Oregon and Washington, and the selling thereof left to us, our guarantee of 15 cents per pound to that effect, and the money advanced for harvesting would also be considered as a further security for the guarantee." BICYCLE NOTE—A comfortable saddle is a stern necessity. Buy your cameras and supplies of F. E. CHAMBERS. Great Damage Done. The waterpocket which visited part of Wheeler county last Friday, did untold damage, and in some cases completely demolished the entire crop. Most of the damage was done on Cherry creek, where the bulk of this year's crop of hay was either carried completely away or scattered so as to make it useless. J. M. Connelly's ranch, the head of Cherry creek, was a total loss, sweeping away his entire crop, tearing down every one of his fences, and carrying them away before the mad rush of waters. His loss is estimated at $7000. It would be useless to try to estimate the entire loss, as most of the ranchers had just finished stacking this year's crop, and in less than one hour they were not worth the ground upon which they were stacked.—Wheeler County News.
