The Price of Prunes.

The Willamette Valley Prune Growers Association through the board of directors, has pooled fifteen or twenty carloads of Italian and French prunes belonging to the members of the organization, and quoted the following prices per pound, to eastern buyers:

30s to 40s 30 cents
40s to 50s 40 cents
50s to 60s 45 cents
60s to 70s 45 cents
70s to 80s 35 cents

While these prices are considerably above the market price, the Association has made sales on this basis and there is but little doubt that the whole crop of prunes in this section will be disposed of at remunerative prices.

There is great activity among fruit growers in getting in readiness to take care of the crop which will soon be ready for picking and drying. Many new dryers are being constructed and old ones are being repaired for the season which is just opening and promising to be a busy one. The most of the growers in this section will be at work by the middle of next week and all will be busy by the first of September.

Gilmore and Calbreath, enterprising business men of this city, will soon have their steam dryer in operation and growers might be able to do better than the prices quoted above by having their prunes dried here for the market.

Fruit Dryer.

Gilmore and Calbreath began work Monday morning on clearing the premises about the steam fruit dryer which they intend to put into first class condition for this season's crop of prunes and other fruits.

A new and larger boiler than was used before will be put in and the capacity of the plant largely increased, giving employment to a dozen or more hands and putting that much more money into circulation in this neighborhood, besides keeping the fresh prunes here for working up into a higher priced article.

Our people ought to foster this sort of industries as they tend to make the city more prosperous.

The prospects for a good hop crop are daily growing better, and buyers are consequently more eager to purchase or make contracts for this year's output. One prominent grower of Brooks, says the Salem Statesman, was offered 12 cents per pound by a Portland buyer, but the offer was declined.

Others report offers of that amount and it is evident that good prices will prevail, if the quality of the crop is as good as it now promises to be. There seems at this time to be no damage threatening the crops as lice have disappeared—in fact, have been very scarce this year—and if the present favorable weather continues, there will be no damage to be feared, except it be from a too early picking. All dealers and exporters are unanimous in warning growers against picking the hops green, as that will spoil the quality, and consequently the sale at the highest price.

BUENA VISTA.

Sam Baldwin left for Winlock, Wash., Tuesday morning. He rode his wheel as far as Portland.

Quite a number of loads of grain have been hauled to the warehouse.

But a very few fields of grain have been threshed around here.

Misses Mary and Dorelle Shives have returned from the Willhoit springs. They report having had a fine time.

The hop crop will be ready for pickers earlier than usual this year. Most all hop men around here will begin the first of September.

Cucumber Pickles.

Select very small cucumbers and cut each 100 allow 1 ounce each of whole cloves and white mustard seed, a tablespoonful of salt, a cup of sugar and two small peppers. Tie the spices in thin muslin bags; put them in a kettle with the cucumbers and add enough vinegar to cover. Heat to the boiling point, take from the fire and bottle. Examine them every week or ten days when first put up to see if they remain firm. If some soften, remove them, drain off the vinegar from the remainder. Add a half cup of water and a half cup of sugar to each 200 pickles, scald the vinegar and pour it over them boiling hot.

Deceased had been an invalid for several years, but was taken seriously worse a few weeks ago and finally succumbed to her ailments. She was 68 years of age. She came to this country from Sweden when 13 years old landing in Chicago in 1847. From there she went to the state of Washington, and in 1897 came to this county with her husband. A husband and three children survive her. Two sons, Henry and George live in Astoria, and a daughter, Ella, lives here. The body was shipped on the train Saturday to San Francisco, where the funeral took place, the remains being cremated.

Dallas Notes.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible flux, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose, told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured."
