

THE WEST SIDE

Telephone, No. 141.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1900.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS... LOMER LODGE NO. 45, MEETS EVERY 1st Wednesday evening.

All the hop yards will be going next week. Durable goods cheap at J. L. Stockton's during hop picking.

Good fanning mills at R. M. Wade & Co's, price $20 to $25. Agent Wilcox says he's handled enough sulphur during the week to make a small inferno.

See reduction in prices in our ad on bicycles, don't miss this chance. Campbell Bros.

Salem has an ordinance taxing telephones in the city & county a month. Hop into J. L. Stockton's for nice stylish dress goods, men's clothing, boots and shoes, etc.

We have several bikes on hand and they must be sold this fall. Campbell Bros.

The Salem Light & Traction company has voluntarily advanced wages of their employees ten cents per day.

CORDWOOD taken on subscription at the WEST SIDE office. Gilmore & Calbreath have been working like beavers all week getting their fruit dryer in shape for business.

Completed they will have a model plant. Golf caps, lovely jackets, now in at J. L. Stockton's at the Collins mill. Buy your mill feed at the Collins mill. Bran, $12 per ton; shorts, $14 per ton.

Ice cream and ice cream soda at Robinson's. Fred Deaty and John Mills are thinking seriously of pooling their issues and going into partnership on the guessing question.

Neither one has the advantage over the other when it comes to guessing. At Robinson's you can have crushed fruits in your ice cream.

"Dad" Locke says that "Dutch" Hedges may be an expert in some things but blating isn't one of them. He is too premature, says Dad.

There will be services at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday at 11 a. m., subject, "The Way"; and 7:30 p. m., subject, "What are the Wild Waves Saying?" Sunday school at 10 a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Jas. Mottershead, pastor.

Goods cheap, cheap, cheaper, cheapest at J. L. Stockton's while you are hopping. Try Moore, the barber, north side of "C" street, opposite Knave's grocery store, for a hair cut or shave.

Larry Gilmore, who has been attending school in Salem for some months, has accepted a position as stenographer in the office of the division superintendent of the Great Northern railway in Kalispell, Montana, and left Saturday for that place.

Be sure and see J. L. Stockton's stock of goods while you are here. A jolly crowd of members of the Woodmen's Circle went to Buena Vista last Friday evening for a fraternal visit.

Two hacks were well fitted and the trip was an enjoyable one. The Buena Vista Circle knows how to make visitors feel at home. During the evening our folks were entertained with music, recitations and addresses. Ice cream and other refreshments were served plentifully.

Buy your cameras and supplies of F. E. CHAMBERS. Mr. E. C. Pentland has for sale three lots in Hill's addition, which cost $300 a few years ago. He asks for a cash offer on them now. Any reasonable offer accepted.

Also 40 acres of timber land near Falls City. Make an offer on it. Steel ranges at R. M. Wade & Co's at prices that cannot be met by any canvassing agent.

Prof. W. H. Whiteaker has moved to Portland, his household goods going down the first of the week. He expects to practice his system of magnetic healing, there being quite a call for it.

Special Sale of men's shoes at J. L. Stockton's. A hay baler kept hammering away in front of Ed Hilliard's shop Tuesday on a lot of hay for J. H. Burton. It is not usual for balers to come to town to bale hay. Quite a number of visitors witnessed the operation.

For special rate on Lippincott's Magazine to subscribers of the West Side, call at the office. Mr. Baker has become quite a faddist on canes made from natural woods. Just now he has on display in the Raket Star window some thirty canes of various design, making quite a unique sight.

Why is it that farmers will buy fanning mills and steel ranges of strangers canvassing through the country when they can buy from their home dealers for 50 per cent less. There came near being a pleasant surprise for the train postal clerk on Tuesday afternoon. The time between trains is too short to write and mail letters in the postoffice, so a great many people take their letters to the train. Mr. J. S. Cooper was among this class on Tuesday and unthinkingly put a fifty-dollar greenback among his letters to be placed on the train. He discovered his mistake before the train arrived and the postal clerk was knocked out of a surprise.

A rather amusing stab is just now being worked to a hard boiled finish by the wily book agent on which some people proceed to bite. Thusly: Mr. Book-agent drops in and makes it appear that the book publishers, in order to get their work introduced, has limited the sale of the same to five parties in each town, and that your name (think of the honor!) has been handed in to the committee (whose that body is) as one of the five to be thus favored (?). It is a great sell but many nibble on it just the same. These smooth book agents are limited to no number and would dispose of 500 sets in each town if they could.

In looking over files of the West Side of two years ago, we find that contributions were made by several sportsmen of this vicinity towards a pool for the purchase of English partridges. Al Herren informs us that this money is still in the hands of Cap. Riley, of Portland, and the chances are good for a number of birds to be had on account thereof. This matter has lately come up and is being pushed by leading sportsmen in other localities. We will either have the birds or our money back.

Miss Mabel Wells is visiting relatives in Corvallis.

Mrs. E. C. Pentland came home from her Dallas visit on Friday evening. Ray Wagner, of Salem, was in the city last Monday.

M. G. Flynn, of Falls City, was in town the first of the week. "Where are you going, my pretty maid?" "Going to pick hops, sir," she said.

Ernest Welch and Miss Edna Hubbard came up from Salem Tuesday evening on a short visit. The "crab" club now meets on Wednesday evenings.

J. S. Cooper took a run up into the eastern part of the state last week, jumping off at Moro. A carload of sulphur for the hop growers in this vicinity was unloaded on Tuesday.

All Going to the Circus.

Everybody is talking about Ringling Bros.' famous big circus, which is to exhibit in Salem, Saturday, September 8. Several big excursions will go from this vicinity and the popularity of the show will insure an enormous crowd. People from this locality should make an especial effort to arrive in time to see the new free street carnival which precedes the exhibition every morning at 10 o'clock. The procession is divided into thirty enormous sections, each of which is a complete parade, and presents in its entirety a bewilderingly magnificent two-mile carnival of pageantry, such as the world has never seen. In this gorgeous display are shown over 100 beautiful dromedaries and cages of wild animals, 500 horses, 25 elephants and nearly a thousand people, and the costumes throughout are of the finest silks, satins, and cloth of gold. The performance that follows is the most magnificent aerial display ever presented by any circus in America.

To Repair a Bridge. The members of the county court of Polk county were in Salem Saturday to consult with County Judge John H. Scott and the members of the city council regarding the needed repairs to the joint bridge across the Willamette river. As a result of the consultation, Judge Scott wrote letters to a number of bridge builders, asking for bids for the replanking of the approaches to the bridge, and various other repairs required, the bids to be opened August 31st, at the Marion county court house.

Normal School. The West Side is in receipt of the 18th annual catalogue, 1899-1900, of the Oregon State Normal School, Monmouth, and from it glean the following: Examinations begin on September 12 for admission to advanced standing. First term begins on September 18 and ends November 23. Second term begins November 29 and ends February 1, 1901. Third term begins February 4 and ends April 12. Fourth term begins April 15, graduation day being on June 19.

Death of L. B. Fraser. He came from Kentucky in 1853 and settled on the Willamette where he lived for several years and while residing there over forty years ago, married Miss Amanda Campbell, of Salt Creek. Years ago he bought and moved to a farm adjoining that of C. B. Graves at Bethel. Afterward he built a home in the foothills, just east of there, which was his abiding place until he died, August 18, aged 66 years. He was buried next day in the Bethel cemetery, his funeral being preached by Rev. A. Kane. A good man in all the relations of life has gone from among us. His sons Rily and Charles, came from Eastern Oregon a few days before his death. The other children are Mrs. Vieta Neale, in Kentucky; Mrs. Hattie Barnett and Mrs. Jessie Mulkey, of Monmouth; Uel, of McCoy; Mrs. Pink Denny, of Bethel; Carrie and Clay at home with their mother.—Itemizer.

Hop Picking Begins. Over a hundred pickers went into the Hill yard on Monday morning and active hop picking is now under way. The pickers were started in the poorer end of the yard and not much progress was made the first day or two, as the hops were small and rather green, but as soon as they reach the north end pickers will average up better as the hops will be in much better shape than at the start. Pickers in this yard will receive 35 cents per box.

A Salem Statesman and Homestead hustler was in town Wednesday, but he was too full of business to leave his name. He was hustling around among the hop yards and seemed to like it.

The Southern Pacific Railroad company tendered the tracklaying gang, the section hands and carpenter workers here, an "excursion" Sunday. The object was to distribute a train load of ties along the roadway between Rowland and Coburg.—Brownsville Times.

An old newspaper man says: No sensible man should or does get angry because a man duns him for his money. A dun is not an impeachment of a subscriber's integrity, but simply an opening of a publisher's necessities. For instance: One thousand men owe a man from $1 to $10 each; he has to dun them to pay his expenses. Instead of getting angry and stopping his paper because the publisher asks what is due him he should thank the editor for waiting so patiently and pay up like a man.

In nothing else as in the words we habitually use in the common talk of our daily life do we show so plainly our degree of refinement, our culture or the lack of it, and the plane on which our thoughts move. It is therefore worth our while, do you not see, to take some pains for our conversation, not in such a way as to make us seem stiff and pedantic, but to recognize the fact that here as in other departments of life and learning, it is training that tells in results.—September Home Journal.

Everybody is busy now, unless we might except the printer—and they were rather busy up to the first of the week getting out hop tickets. If there is any idle man, woman, boy or girl in the valley now no one is to blame but the party him or herself. Hop and fruit growers want all the hands they can get, and what's more to the point, they have the cash to pay for help.

The Wallowa Chief says that W. N. Boots, of Monmouth, was in Enterprise last Tuesday.

"Dutch" Hedges is said to be a swift hop picker. Sam Irvine says that he went to Hill's yard with "Dutch" on Monday to see how fast he could pick and that he filled three boxes in twenty minutes. They were the smallest size of pill boxes.

There will be regular preaching services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

J. L. Frazier having resigned his position with F. E. Chambers, W. O. Cook has taken his place and is once more behind the counter.

Bruce Campbell returned on Monday from his vacation which he spent in Portland.

When in Salem and you want a good meal don't forget to go to Strong's Restaurant, where everything the market affords can be had.

Mrs. Art Simpson, of Albany, is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. H. Pillar, at this place.

Mr. D. C. Baldwin, of this place, and brother, J. R. Baldwin, of your city, went fishing up on the Luckiamute Wednesday. They expect to be gone several days.

Mr. J. Boster, a former resident of this city, passed through here on Tuesday on his way en route to Corvallis. They rode their bikes.

Manfred Sears, of Dallas, went to Rickreall on his wheel Sunday. He caught the wheel while hunting birds, and someone stole it. Manfred had to hoot it home and now says that "Jordan is a hard road to travel."

The members of Homer Lodge No. 45, Knights of Pythias, tendered a reception to Ed Matheson at the opera house on Wednesday evening. A goodly number was present and an enjoyable evening spent.

The hop market still continues to show signs very favorable for the grower. One prominent and reliable farmer from the Buena Vista neighborhood declares that he was offered by three separate buyers in Salem 12 cents per pound for his crop if he would sign a contract therefor. He gave the names of the buyers, and says that one of them offered to do a little better than 12 cents, but the farmer would not sign any contract. Another grower from Salem Prairie says he has been offered 14 cents on contract.

Law, or No Law. It is believed that the law against the slaughter of birds is pretty generally observed in this county, says the Corvallis Gazette, but in other counties there is some disregard of the law reported. The fault cannot be laid at the door of the real sportsman for he has too true an appreciation of the situation not to desire that the birds be protected during the close season. From the account given in Lane county it will appear that Game Warden Quimby was a little mistaken in some of his calculations: "Notwithstanding the statement of the game warden to the effect that few upland birds are being killed unlawfully, an almost incessant rattle of shot guns can be heard in various parts of this county. If the game warden saw the amount of ammunition that is being sold to farmers' boys, he might begin to think some birds were being killed. In some localities the law is respected, while in others it is not at all unusual to hear the guns of from two to twenty hunters. The earliest spring brood of pheasants are now large enough to make good eating but the second and third broods are still too small. Sportsmen claim that some attempt should be made to enforce the law for the benefit of all concerned."

Beware of Quilnets for Catarrh that contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering through the mucous membrane, such articles should be used with caution. Beware of cheap imitations. Chamberlain's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and it takes internally, acting directly upon the most and most sensitive surface of the system. In saying "Halt! Having a Gay Time in Paris. The following article concerning Fayne Moore, nee Pat Strahan, appeared in the San Francisco Examiner under date of Aug. 25: Fayne Moore, who came over to Paris from London recently, is having the gayest time of her life. She is accompanied frequently by Florence Crosby, formerly of the Casino Theatre of New York. Fayne is very popular with the fast set here. She is dressing lavishly and it is said she does not have to wear the same dress twice. She and Miss Crosby dined last night at the Armenian Villa, a fashionable restaurant in the Bois de Boulogne where many Americans with much money go. At a table near by sat Marquis de Rochefoucauld, who ogled Fayne more than she liked, so she threw a bottle of champagne at his head. Then she grew more gracious and the Marquis was presented. They wasted no more bottles in target practice. The Marquis is the sole survivor of the Brittany family which furnished the hero of "Les Cloches de Corneville."
