Their Secret is Out.

All Sadieville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S. P. Whittaker, who had for a long time, endured untold suffering from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discovery," writes her husband. "It completely cured her and also cured our little grand-daughter of a severe attack of Whooping Cough." It positively cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Kirkland's drug store.

"The Oregon State Fair at Salem, September 23rd to 28th, 1901, inclusive, promises to be the best this year that has yet been held. New features for amusement and instruction have been added, and particular attention will be given to the Stock Exhibit, owing to the great and constantly increasing interest in dairying throughout the state.

For this occasion, the Southern Pacific Co. will make a rate of one fare for the round trip, from all its stations in Oregon, to Salem and return, and it is to be hoped that everyone who can do so will show his appreciation by taking advantage of this opportunity to pass a few days profitably and pleasantly at our State Capital."

Astounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splended for torpid liver." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at Kirkland's drug store.

Married

GRIMSLEY—LEMASTERS. At the home of the bride's parents in Monmouth, on Tuesday, August 20, Mr. Virgil H. Grimsley and Miss Bertha LeMasters were united in marriage by the Rev. Wm. Short, of Salem.

The bride is a highly esteemed young lady of Monmouth where she has resided for a number of years. She was formerly a critic teacher in the training department of the Normal school. The groom is a young man of ability and is well and favorably known in Monmouth, having attended the Normal school for a number of years.

The happy couple left on the 1:30 motor Tuesday for San Francisco, where they will visit for a short time before going to their new home at LaMoore, Cal., where the groom has a position as principal of the LaMoore schools.

To Save Her Child

From frightful disfigurement Mrs. Nannie Galleger, of La Grange, Ga., applied Bucklin's Arnica Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in Sores, Bruises, Skin Eruptions, Cuts, Burns, Scalds and Piles. 25c. Cure guaranteed by Kirkland's Drug Co.

Hops.

The outlook of the hop crop in Polk county for this season is very encouraging and a large output is expected. The hops are well advanced and growers contemplate starting picking on the first Monday in September, though a few will be picking in the last week in August. The warm dry weather has kept the lice from appearing, and a continuance of similar weather will guarantee the best crop in both quality and quantity marketed for years. Growers show reluctance to contract, as they feel confident of realizing a better figure after the market opens.

It Saved His Baby.

"Baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic Cholera Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams Ore. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and complete cure." For sale by Kirkland Drug Co.

Serious Accident

I. Claggett, yard manager of the Independence mills, was the victim of a serious accident last Friday. He was working about the machinery, when it was started without his knowledge, and he became entangled in the carrier. He suffered a compound fracture of the leg and many bruises. His advanced age will render the fracture slow of mending.

Would Have Cost Him His Life.

Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have been using Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it gave me permanent cure of kidney disease which certainly would have cost me my life." Take none but Foley's. A. S. Locke.

Mr. Carrie Nation has applied for a divorce from Mrs. Carrie Nation on the ground that she made a public ridicule of him, neglected her family duties and has abandoned her home. It is a trite saying that the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world, but it has also been wittily said that the hand which makes a specialty of ruling the world rocks no cradles. Reform, even temperance reform, lies much nearer the cradle than it does the hatchet or the police court.—Statesman.

Sheriff After Forger.

Last Friday Governor Geer issued requisition papers for B. R. More, who is at Mayville, N. Y., to return him to Albany, where he will be tried on the charge of raising an order. The young man, who is only 18 years of age, was working on a farm near Lebanon, and in payment of his services was given an order for $8. This he raised to $80, cashed and started for his home in New York. It is said the act was committed because he was homesick and adopted this means to visit his parents. Sheriff McHargue asked for the appointment of a deputy to accompany him, but the state does not appoint deputies. The name presented for this place was that of McHargue's son Fred. The state bears all expenses of the trip in case the sheriff returns with the right man, otherwise the expenses of the journey must be born by the officer.

Resolutions of Condolence.

General Gibson W. R. C. No. 42, adopted the following resolutions last Saturday evening:

Whereas: Our sister, Mrs. Amelia Scrafford, passed from this life August 13th, 1901, after a brief illness, therefore be it

Resolved: That the Woman's Relief Corps sustains a severe loss by her removal, as she was an active member, faithful officer, and always found at the post of duty, taking a lively interest in all things pertaining to the good of the order. That we shall miss her wise counsel, cheerful genial bearing and warm friendship. And

Resolved: That we signify the high esteem in which she was held, and our sense of loss, by draping our charter with the emblem of sorrow for thirty days, while at the same time we dress her official chair with evergreen and flowers in token of her immortality; and having arisen to a higher life of usefulness and progression; and of our lasting loving memory of her noble traits of character.

Resolved: That we extend to the bereaved family and relatives our sincere sympathy; and desire to speak a word of consolation as well as of condolence, by reminding them that as love is undying, her love and sympathy is their's still. And although their hearts are sore and bleeding, yet may the thought of the glad reunion on the other shore, be to all her loved ones, the silver lining of the dark cloud of sorrow whose shadows now envelope them. Also

Resolved: That these resolutions be published in the city papers; a copy of which shall be sent to the bereaved husband and children; also a copy sent to the Department Headquarters, and a copy be preserved in the records of the Corps.

Harvesting operations, which are now well advanced, develops the fact that the predictions of a large wheat crop in the Willamette Valley were in no wise overdrawn, the yield averaging between 25 and 30 bushels to the acre. There will be busy times for the next few months getting the big crop of wheat and oats to market.

Dr. W. C. Brown started Sunday for Buffalo, New York, to visit the Pan-American exposition. He will also spend a short time visiting other eastern points before returning home. He expects to be gone five or six weeks.

Born

To Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Calbreath, on Tuesday August 20th a girl.

A Eugene woman tried to scare her husband, who was a hard drinker, into reforming recently. She secured a costume of satan that had been worn at a mask ball, and the next time her spouse came home with his shoes off, she quickly donned the satanic robes. As he opened the door he stepped forward and said in a sepulchral voice: "Come with me, I am the devil" The result rather startled her, for his answer was: "Zat so? Shake, old boy; I'm your brother-in-law, I married your sister." He still drinks.—Eugene Guard.

A Man Slips Up
On it every time that he takes his laundry work outside of the Salem Steam Laundry to be done up. He finds "that tired feeling" stealing over him when he notes the difference in the exquisite color and beautiful finish, saying nothing of the good condition in which your linens are returned by the Salem Steam Laundry.

You can take your hat off to the man who wears our suits because we know they are the best made-to-order clothes you could possibly get—cost a trifle more than a ready-made—but outlive three—made to fit and wear besides—are guaranteed—these are the garments made by

Henry Kilp

San Francisco's leading tailor. Call on and insist that you see the HILP samples, then leave your measure.
