

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS

The neighborhood isn't all to the bad

To attain your highest efficiency in business—to maintain the best of health—to be able to keep your appointments—your feet must be comfortable—they must not distract you.

Good Fitting Shoes

Shoes that fit your feet perfectly are essential. They leave your mind free to think—not fret. And they make it possible for you to go where and when you please.

We have made a special study of fitting and give it particular attention.

We have the newest fashions and our prices will please you.

Conkey & Walker

Local Briefs

Phone the news to Main 622. That's the Post.
New summer goods are coming in every week at Conkey & Walker's.
Reuben Bowman of Monmouth aged 18, died in a Salem hospital last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Clodfelter of Jefferson were over Sunday visitors at the C. McBeth home.
Frances Sheythe and Della Truax of Pedee have been enrolled in the Junior Rainbow Division.
Clara Toedemier of Airlie has won a place in the Junior Rainbow Division.

Buy a bond.
The Baptist ladies have sewed five quilts.
Miss Frances Townsend is now the musical genius at the Isis.
The Clark Jewel Oil Stove saves oil has high speed burners and has large capacity. Craven & Huff carry them.
Fishing season is now on. Craven & Huff can fill your wants. Fishing licenses and tackle.
Miss Vivian Whiteaker was the guest of friends in Portland this week.
Mrs. A. Nelson of Albany was calling on friends in Independence Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Fluke returned this morning from a visit in Portland.

Postmaster H. S. Wood was in Albany Wednesday.

K. C. Eldridge was a passenger to Eugene this morning.

Mr and Mrs. W. A. Metzger of Dallas visited friends here yesterday.

James Hart, a former resident, is in the city.

We can save you money on small musical goods such as violins, banjos, guitars, mandolins, strings and findings. O. A. KREAMER.

Miss Carrie Seaman of Portland spent several days with her parents here this week.

Arthur Lyday of Hoskins has been enrolled in the Junior Rainbow Division.

From April 1st, on account of the high price of stock and low margins in sales, I shall limit my credit accounts to a thirty-day basis. DICKSON'S MARKET

William Farnum at the Isis next Wednesday night.

William Farnum's new screen masterpiece, "The Heart of a Lion" is a thrilling adventure of love and life in the lumber camps. At the Isis, one night only, Wednesday, April 10.

Mrs. Ernest Tice of Portland is visiting relatives and friends in Independence.

Why wear those old overalls when you can get the Unionalls for a very little more at Conkey & Walker's—for men, women and children's sizes.

Warm weather is coming, and we are beginning to think of shedding our heavy winter underwear, and if you need a couple of suits for a change, go in at Conkey & Walker's and get them. The having bought early will save you the advance in price.

$5 down, $1 weekly are the very liberal terms Sloper Bros. & Cogle are offering on the guaranteed Maytag washer. No need for any woman to break her back over the wash tub in this section.

Mrs. Peter Kurre returned Monday evening from Minnesota where she has been for several months. Mrs. Kurre says she is certainly glad to be home and that she doesn't care to spend another winter in Minnesota.

John Feagles, former city marshal, bid farewell to Independence this week and left for Grants Pass where he will remain for a few weeks. He doesn't know where he will go from there.

Some stagnant surface water in this city was recently examined and found to contain a large number of typhoid germs.

J. B. V. Butler and son, Jay, visited the cantonment at Camp Lewis this week while they were the guests of their son and brother, Dr. W. D. Butler, who is a member of the medical corps.

The milk house on the farm of A. V. Tetherow was burned yesterday with all its contents, including a cream separator.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Alice Porter April 9th. All members are requested to be present.

Rev. Carson, who has been in a Salem hospital for several weeks, is sufficiently recovered from the effects of an operation, to be able to return to the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. King.

BUY A BOND.

BUY A BOND.

Dr. R. E. Duganne, Dentist, Independence National Bank Building.

Before you men buy those new summer shirts and ties, you should see the good assortment Conkey & Walker has.

Mae Marsh was at her best Wednesday night in one of the most clever productions ever seen at the Isis.

Our ready to wear suits are bargains worth coming after, $16.50 to $25.00. O. A. KREAMER.

S. Taylor Jones is now Southern Pacific agent in Independence and we are quite sure he will give satisfactory service both to the company and the public.

Hobart M. Dickson, one of Uncle Sam's No. 1 navy men, arrived in Independence today. He has sailed the "seven seas" and has many interesting stories to tell. His enlistment recently expired and after a short vacation, he will sign up again. He won't desert his country right at the time when his help is most needed.

"THE HEART OF A LION" AT THE ISIS APRIL TENTH

Barney Kemper (William Farnum) is a sturdy young American farmer who aspires to become a doctor. During spare moments from his "chores" he reads and studies medicine under the tutelage of Hiram Danford, a fine type of the old fashioned country physician. Margaret, his daughter, a winsome country maid, secretly loves Barney, who, however, is unaware of her affection for him.

Barney has a younger brother at a distant college, studying for the ministry. Dick has fallen into bad ways and continually importunes his brother for funds. Barney has just paid a note of $500, which leaves him with nothing but the old farm.

At this stage Dick decides to spend his summer vacation "back on the farm." At the same time Iola Hammond, who is studying for an operatic career, visits Margaret. Barney is attracted to the visitor from the city, and believing that he is really in love with her, is quite happy. Barney's love scene with Iola is witnessed by Margaret, who is broken hearted.

When Dick returns to his studies

Bungalow Cash Grocery

NORTH INDEPENDENCE

- TOP-NOTCH
- 6 Bars soap 25c
- 5 Bars Soap White Laundry... 25c
- 5 Bars Bob White 25c
- 5 Bars Wh. Borax Naptha.... 25c

New Gasoline Filling Station. Convenient Service.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Groceries.

HOLSUM Bread, Pies and Cakes. Fresh Every Morning.

J. G. McIntosh.

The Money You will save

BY PAYING CASH FOR GROCERIES AT

JOHNSON & COLLINS

invested in THRIFT STAMPS will help win the war and at the same time lay away a nest egg for you.

Johnson & Collins

Iola returns, too. She breaks into Bohemian life, and one night gives a party. Barney makes an unexpected visit to the city and goes to the boarding house, where he arrives in the midst of the revelry. He is surprised to see drunken men and women in Iola's home. In a daze he seeks Dick's rooms, but instead wanders into Iola's apartment, where he discovers her in Dick's arms.

In a rage, the deceived lover denounces them both. Dick is grief-stricken, while Iola is indifferent. Barney rushes from the house, goes back to the farm, sells everything and disappears. Dick, sincerely sorry, turns to Margaret and, in their common sorrow, they are united in a brotherly and sisterly bond.

Two years pass away. Dick, taking up his religious studies in earnest, becomes an ordained minister.

Meanwhile, on the "edge of civilization", in a faraway camp, Barney has settled as the community's doctor. The roughest character in town is "Texas", who runs a saloon.

Meanwhile Dick has accepted an appointment to the self-same camp, where he is to open the town's first church. Margaret, still true to her love for Barney, accompanies him to take charge of the hospital. They are received in a rowdy manner, and "Texas" at once declares that "no sky pilot can clean up this town." Barney goes with the crowd to hear the new minister deliver his first sermon and—discovers Dick. He struggles in rage and jealousy, and his better nature comes to the fore.

"Texas" decides to frame Dick with the aid of a dissolute woman. By subterfuge he entices Dick to the woman's room, where she seizes him in her arms and kisses him just as the door opens and "Texas" and his gang enter.

"Now we've got the goods on you," he shouts, "you will never dare to preach around here."

Meanwhile, Dolly, a camp follower, goes to Barney and tells him of his brother's danger. Barney starts to the rescue, a fight ensues, and in the melee Dick is shot. Barney carries him to the hospital, where he meets Margaret again. Barney at first will not listen to Margaret's explanation and pleading, but he finally succumbs to Dick's pleadings and a reconciliation of the brothers follows.

Dolly again warns Barney of "Texas" intentions and, Dick lying seriously wounded, Barney decides to take his brother's place. He goes to the church and lays his gun before him on the pulpit. He then begins to tell the story of the two brothers. The crowd is sympathetic, and "Texas" loses his in-

- Max Goldman Deals in
- HIDES
 - PELTS
 - WOOL
 - FURS
 - MOHAIR
 - CASCARA BARK
 - VEAL
 - PORK
 - BEEF
 - POULTRY
 - BUTTER
 - EGGS
 - FARM PRODUCE
 - WOOD
 - WOOD
 - GROCERIES
 - SHOES
 - FURNISHINGS
 - DRY GOODS
- CASH OR TRADE

fluence over it. Concluding his sermon with the words, "Forgiveness brings happiness, for one day the two brothers met again," Barney striles "Texas" and the crowd by giving back the $3,000 he had won from the saloon keeper gambler. "Texas" not to be outdone, announces that he will give it to the new church. Even "Texas" is redeemed. Dick, repentant and happy in the reunited love of Barney and Margaret, dies from the bullet wound. The lovers decide to remain in the camp and with the promise of a golden future, take up a new life with the clouds behind them.

BUY A BOND.

Butter Wraps

Neatly Printed As You want them at

The Post

THE Germans, even centuries ago, were famous all over Europe for their ability as bread and pastry makers. They are said to have first invented the doughnut, now popular throughout the entire world.

Our Doughnuts

are prepared throughout this entire community. Our customers tell us they are "like those mother used to make," and that is the best recommendation a doughnut or any other article of pastry can have.

Quality and cleanliness are the twin motives of this bakery at all times.

A. Lochridge