Halls Ferry News in Salem Journal: It is reported that J. N. Jones, our road supervisor, has taken up with the county court the question of installing a ferry here for the purpose of securing gravel for this end of the road. This action on the part of Mr. Jones will be welcomed by the people of this community who have long suffered on account of the high price of gravel at the same time we have a billion tons just across on Budd's Island and all that is needed is a ferry. The claim is made by some of the taxpayers that the difference in the cost of the haul in one year between here and the old Mamack pit will pay for the boat. Go to it, Jones, the people will back you up.

STREET VACATION QUESTION DUE TO BE SETTLED

The city council will hold a special meeting on Thursday night next to take final action in the matter of vacating a section of the street so as to permit the Oregon Milling Co. to build a dumping pit for grain. The question has been under consideration for nearly two months now. The council has been divided on the matter, but it is guessed that a majority will favor vacating.

"Do you know why I whipped you, my son?"
"Just to show, I suppose, that you could come back."

Since Oregon —x—
Went bone dry —x—
Nobody in Independence —x—
Has touched a drop —x—
And the hot days —x—
Of last week —x—
Made a number of throats —x—
Feel like the Sahara desert. —x—
Near beer —x—
Doesn't hit the spot —x—

According to the testimony —x—
Of a leading citizen. —x—
"Sunday night," —x—
He said, —x—
"I incidentally remarked —x—
To a friend —x—
That a swag of beer —x—
Would taste good —x—
And he said, —x—
'Sh!' —x—

And I followed. —x—
We tip-toed —x—
Down the alley —x—
From C street —x—
Nearly to Verd Hill's house —x—

All the time —x—
A saying 'Sh!' —x—
Then we crawled —x—
On our stomachs —x—
From there —x—
Across Main street —x—
To the I. & M. bridge —x—

Under the bridge —x—

That felt all right —x—
In the dark —x—
And I emptied one —x—
Before tasting —x—
And what do you think? —x—
It was some of this —x—
Near beer stuff. —x—
Who was responsible —x—
For this outrage —x—
I do not know —x—
