CO. L. LOSES ITS FIRST BY DEATH IN FRANCE

Dallas—Private Benjamin Hill, Company L, One Hundred Sixty-second infantry, died of spinal meningitis in France, April 15, according to a telegram from the war department received by his father, A. Hill of Rickreall, Tuesday night. Hill is the first Polk county boy to die in the foreign service. He was a veteran of the Mexican border service, where he served with the Dallas company of the old Third Oregon.

SOME DRESSY COAT BLOUSES

Peplum Models Chosen by French Women in Preference to All Others. Paris Correspondent Writes.

Blouse designers continue to show peplum models, but many insist they be called "coat" blouses, inasmuch as the word peplum has not proved itself a sales maker during the past two or three seasons. French women prefer the peplum model to all others, says a Paris writer, and there is no denying that a blouse that extends below the waistline is more dressy than the conventional model that reaches just to the waist and must depend upon some sort of belt, matching either the skirt, of which it is the proper companion piece, or matching the blouse itself, to finish it off.

Peplum or coat blouses have a better chance of life during the warm months because in cold weather they are seldom worn except as accompanying pieces for suits. In summer a blouse and a separate skirt make up a correct outfit, and if the skirt has a matching coat it is more often than not merely an "incidental" and is swung over the arm.

MISCELLANEOUS THOUGHTS IN SHORT PANTS

A number of us —x—
Old bucks —x—
Whose wives —x—
Are away from home —x—
Have been having —x—
A swell time, —x—
But it gets old. —x—
Take J. S. Cooper —x—
For example —x—
Everything was lovely —x—
For two weeks; —x—
He could do —x—
Just as he blamed pleased —x—
Or could go —x—
Fishing on Sunday —x—
If he wished —x—
Or could go —x—
To a show —x—
Where the girls —x—
Kick at the electric bulbs. —x—
All this is fun —x—
For awhile —x—
And then— —x—
It commences —x—
To get lonesome —x—
And the train —x—
That brings —x—
The wife home —x—
Is a good old train. —x—
P. S. —x—
Some trains —x—
Have not arrived —x—
So its still lonesome —x—
For some of us.

HAS KNITTING POCKETS

Patriotism and fashion are going hand in hand this spring. In this dress a chance to combine a roomy knitting pocket with the new barrel silhouette effect is given. The dress is a two-piece creation of pussy-willow taffeta. The long fold around the neck extends down the paneled front of the frock. The paneled front gives added charm to the white net vestee. The oriental design is in red, blue, yellow and green.

Suede and Leather Coats.

Suede and leather are the best materials for sport clothes, because they both look and wear so well. Suits of suede in gray or tan have three-quarter coats, a skirt which buttons down the front, and can be made into a cape. The coats are Norfolk, either unlined or lined with silk. For motoring are the leather coats, lined in flannel, in three-quarter lengths. Trench coats in dark worsteds are also very much in demand.

THE French of today are famous as pastry makers, but they would not now think of using the crude methods pictured here that were employed by them some centuries ago. They, like ourselves, must have a to produce the toothsome dainties that are demanded. Our customers tell us that our pastries are good and frequently better than the home-baked. The secret is baking genius plus modern equipment.

Modern Bakery Equipment

Sanity and cleanliness are the twin mottoes of this bakery at all times.
