—x—
Would you rather be in jail or out of it? It seems a foolish question and yet in "In Again—Out Again", coming to the Isis theatre next Sunday, "Doug" Fairbanks proves that he'd rather be behind the bars than living the life of freedom. However, perhaps you would also be in the same frame of mind if you knew the cause, but then the Artcraft picture will disclose all.

Mrs. Ruth Conkey has resigned her place on the Independence school board.

A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend this service. Wear a white flower, and come and worship with us.

THE French of today are famous as pastry makers, but they would not now think of using the crude methods pictured here that were employed by them some centuries ago. They, like ourselves, must have a

Modern Bakery Equipment

in order to produce the toothsome dainties that are demanded. Our customers tell us that our pastries are always as good and frequently better than the home kind. The secret is baking genius plus modern equipment.

Quality and cleanliness are the twin mottoes of this bakery at all times.

C. A. Lochridge

Mrs. Grace Morgan of Vancouver has been in Independence this week.

The Woman's Division of the Council of Defense met one night last week and elected the following officers: Mrs. B. F. Swope, chairman; Mrs. O. A. Kreamer, vice-chairman; Mrs. L. L. Hewitt, secretary.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, cry and you get the gate", contends smiling Douglas Fairbanks. There will be no cause for "getting the gate" if you visit the Isis theatre on Sunday, May 12 when "Doug" appears on the screen in his first Artcraft picture, "In Again—Out Again", a satire crammed full of hearty laughs.

MRS. CATHERINE WAGONER DIES IN PORTLAND

Portland—Mrs. Catherine D. Wagoner passed away at her residence, 720 East Ash, this city, Tuesday, May 7. She was a native of Iowa, where she was born in 1851. Mrs. Wagoner came West in 1882, locating in Dayton, Wash., later removing to Independence, Ore., in 1892. Since 1904 she has resided in Portland.

Her husband, H. H. Wagoner, and two sons, Harry E. and Clarence R. Wagoner, all residents of this city, survive her.

COMMANDEERING OF PRUNE CROPS FEARED BY JOBBERS

Salem, Or., May 8—Salem fruit packers have been notified that contracts covering the 1918 prune crop cannot be entered into by packers and jobbers until after June 1. Prior to this notice it was understood that no contracts could be made until after May 1. Prospective commandeering by the government of the crops is believed to be the reason for the change in dates.

NONE WHATEVER

Cholly—Her father has no objection to her marrying, I suppose?
Georgie—Not if she marries someone else besides me.

THE MODERN SEQUEL

She—And so finally they were married—
He—I know the rest. They afterwards get a divorce and live happily until the end.
