W. H. Park and Mrs. Lucinda Baldwin were Salem visitors Tuesday and report that Salem is "fluing" worse than Independence.

Dr. H. C. Dunsmore was in Portland Sunday. The doctor says friends take care of him while there which relieves the anxiety of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Willing, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mix, for several weeks, returned to their home in Seattle Saturday.

Tuesday was such a windy day that Captain Graves of the good ship, Independence, ordered the crew to have the life boats in readiness and the passengers to donn the life belts.

A number of Post readers have called our attention to the fact that the "z" was left out out the word "influenza" in a heading on our first page last week. They are to be commended for being such careful observers.

One of The Post reporters reports that as soon as the flu permits two of our young people will have a meeting and set a date for their wedding. Welcome to the army of married folks! It looks awful nice from the outside.

Dave Boydston "laid off" the mail wagon this week, something very remarkable for Dave to do, and whenever he does it always attracts notice and comment. Mr. Boydston has carried the mail between the depot and postoffice for the past two hundred years.

Peter Kurre and John Palmer were in Kelso, Wash., Friday. Mr. Kurre says they tried 21 hotels in Portland Saturday night for a bed and then had to sleep sitting up in a depot. If Peter had thought he could have hit a policeman in the eye and thus got a bed.

BUENA VISTA

Wilber Devine is visiting his parents at Lebanon.

Arthur Hale is confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Murphy is quite ill with malaria.

Ed Harman and N. C. Anderson shipped two crates of pigs last week.

Our school will open next Monday if there are no more cases of influenza.

R. Peterson and G. E. Harman each sold a load of hogs in Albany this week.

There has been no services in the church here for the last two Sundays because of the flu.

Miss Evans and Alma and Etta Wells, who have been sick with the flu, are able to be out again.

Jesse Moe, who was visiting his cousins, Thelma and Alice Moe, has returned to his home in The Dalles.

D. W. Nickolls received word Sunday that his sister had passed away at her home in Vancouver, Wash., with that dreadful disease flu.

Those who were shopping in Albany this week were Mr. and Mrs. Knighton, Mrs. Roy Knighton, Mrs. G. E. Harman, Merlin Prather and Mr. Moe.

WIGRICH

Arthur Hale is confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

The Ralph Porterfield family has been nursing bad colds the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chown visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Moore on Monday evening.

The Cole family, who have been very sick with the flu, are reported better which we are glad to hear.

The Misses Plant and Rose of Buena Vista were Sunday guests at the Major Rose and Walter Plant homes.
